

Rites Held In Yreka Wed Couple

Hills — Miss Diane Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donovan Ward, became the bride of Michael Nunes, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nunes, in a ceremony held Sept. 7, in the Methodist church in Yreka.

The Rev. E. V. Hargreaves, minister of Montague-Hornbrook combined churches, officiated at the 6 o'clock afternoon wedding, attended only by members of both families. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a royal blue tulle dress with white accessories and carried a nosegay of white carnations with white ribbon streamers.

Miss Rita Middleton was maid of honor. She wore a white dress with white accessories and carried a nosegay of pink carnations. Best man was J. Paul Nunes, Yreka, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a blue sheath dress with white accessories and a pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a turquoise dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The couple traveled to Red Bluff on a short wedding trip. The bride attended the local school and is a graduate of Yreka High school, the class of 1958. The bridegroom also attended Yreka High school, the class of 1957, and is now with the First Airborne Battle group, 502 Infantry, U.S. Army, stationed at Fort Campbell, Ky.

A bridal shower was held September 7 at the Recreation Room in the Community center for the bride-elect.

Hostesses were the Misses Dorothy Fox, Rita Middleton, Donna Green and Candace Smith, and Mrs. Roger Smith.

Mrs. Albert Simmen and Miss Lena Faggiato were selected to construct a wedding dress for the future bride out of newspaper and pins.

Present were Mrs. John Shaw, Mrs. Roger Cecato, Mrs. Rodney Eastman, Mrs. M. F. Cavin, Mrs. Harry Black, Mrs. Joe Faggiato, Mrs.

Engagement Told At Dinner Party

Hornbrook — At a family dinner at their home here last Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Smith announced the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Albert H. Newton Jr. He is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Albert H. Newton, Yreka, Calif. Both young people are members of early-day Scott valley families.

Out-of-town guests at the dinner were the bride elect's brothers, Robert, Roseburg, Ore., and Dr. and Mrs. Edward M. Smith and son Michael of Orland, Calif., and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Williams and daughter Marsha of Redding, Calif.

Other guests were members of both families from Scott valley and Yreka. Miss Smith is a teacher in the Yreka grammar school, and Mr. Newton is a practicing attorney in the same town.

An early winter wedding is planned by the young couple.

Fjarli-Walker Rites Held at Church

The wedding of Miss Ruth Oleen Walker to Delmer Duane Fjarli was one of fall's largest, with 250 guests attending. The ceremony was held September 7 at the Valley View Seventh Day Adventist church, with Elder Floyd Breese reading the service at four o'clock in the afternoon. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Walker, route 1, Talent, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fjarli, 659 Stage Road south.

Baskets of white gladioli decorated the church. Mrs. Melvin Johnson, Albany, Ore., a sister of the bridegroom, was organist, Charles Davis, Milo, Ore., played a violin solo and Alvy Bowman sang.

The bride's gown was of white nylon organza over tulle. The very full skirt was designed with a short train and her finger-ring length veil was held by a headress of seed pearls and lace. She carried a white orchid with cascade of stephanotis.

Mrs. LeRoy Nogle was honor attendant for her sister, and bridesmaids were Miss Sybil Walker, another sister, and Miss Carolyn Wheeler. All three wore matching gowns of green tulle with net headresses of pale green net and carried cascades of yellow gladioli.

Vicki Miracle was flower girl and Calvin Fjarli, nephew of the bridegroom, carried the Bible. The flower girl's frocks was a replica of that worn by the bride, and she carried a basket of petals.

Mr. Walker gave his daughter in marriage, and Merlin Fjarli was best man for his brother. Groomsmen were Daryl Wheeler and Duane Thomsen, Centralia, Wash.; Leonard Yost and Kenneth Walker, brother of the bride, were ushers.

The reception was held in the park of Rogue River academy. Mrs. Nogle cut the wedding cake, Mrs. Merlin Fjarli poured and taking charge of the gifts were Mrs. Edwin Fjarli and Mrs. Herman Thomsen, Centralia, Wash., aunts of the bridegroom.

Fred Wilbur planned the reception program. Miss Beverly Fjarli, cousin of the bridegroom, and Herold Follett, Roseburg, gave a piano duet; Miss Donna Olson, Milo, Ore., sang and Mrs. H. C. Chilseon gave a reading. The closing number, sung by Delmer Fjarli, Robert Nations, James Nations and Leonard Yost, was dedicated to the bride.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a gray suit with pink accessories and corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a tangerine colored suit with black accessories and her corsage was also of pink carnations. Also here for the wedding

Christening Rite Set For Today

Christening rites will be held this afternoon at Sacred Heart Catholic church for Shannon Marie Kelly, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward James Kelly, 748 West Fourth street. The event, scheduled for 2 o'clock, is on the birthday of Mrs. Kelly.

Grandparents of the baby are Circuit Court Judge and Mrs. Edward C. Kelly, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Paquin, Grants Pass, who will be present for the ceremony.

Miss Noreen Kelly will be godmother of the child and Philip Paquin, the godfather. They are an aunt and uncle of the infant.

The christening dress that Shannon Marie will wear was worn by the three children of the Edward C. Kellys at their christenings. The garment was a baby dress of the child's grandfather.

Relatives and friends will attend the ceremony.
