

SO Raider Outlook Bright Although Turnout Small

Ashland — With a week of practice behind them the Red Raiders of Southern Oregon college are beginning to look like a team that could go all the way to a second Oregon Collegiate conference grid title, according to head coach Al Akins.

Akins feels the small turnout in candidates for the 22 positions has added more to go into more detail and specialized training than would otherwise be possible if he had a larger squad.

Only 31 players have been turning out for the two-day practices and surprisingly enough only one injury has been reported, Larry Cranston, freshman from Medford, slightly sprained an ankle and is being forced to light workouts each day for about a week.

Last year's starting quarterback, Lance Locke, has been especially sharp in his passing and faking and the Raider coaches agreed that last Wednesday's scrimmage was the best they had seen for the men of SOC this early in practice sessions.

Del Brood and Eldon Francis have been showing some speed from the halfback slots along with Larry Maurer and newcomer Dave Wilbur.

Offense was not holding all the limelight but sharing it with the defense while stalwarts Dick Smith and Marion Jack busted up plays left and right during Friday's scrimmages.

Thus far in practice, the Raiders have been splitting their plays between running and passing with Locke hitting on a number of occasions for good gains.

The Raiders have only five days of practice before the first game on September 20 at 8 p.m. in Ashland against the visiting Airmen from Moffett Air Base.

To date no definite starters have been named and Akins has said that he may have to go clear up to game time before he names his defensive and offensive units.

Oregon Collegiate conference action for the men of SOC opens in four weeks, on Oct. 11, against Portland State on the Raider gridiron.

Machen To Try For Early Stop

Gothenburg, Sweden — (UPI) — Eddie Machen of Redding, Calif., is expected to try for an early knockout when he meets Sweden's unbeaten Ingemar Johansson today in their battle of world heavyweight contenders.

Machen is rated a 2-1 favorite but European observers believe Johansson can outpoint the hardhitting American if the rugged Swede survives the first four rounds.

U. of W. Scrimmages

Seattle, Wash. — (UPI) — The University of Washington went through a lengthy closed-gate scrimmage Saturday as head Coach Jim Owens scanned his sophomore ladden ranks for possible starters in next Saturday's season-opening encounter with San Jose State here.

The three-way battle for the first string quarterbacking job was still in evidence as Bob Hivner, who called the shots for the first team Saturday, Phil Borders and Bob Schloriedt all impressed Owens with their running and passing.

McDougald's Homer Helps Yanks to Win Over White Sox, 5-4; and Possible Tie

By United Press International
Gil McDougald, suffering through one of his worst seasons, assured the New York Yankees at least a tie for the American league pennant Saturday when he hit a three-run homer in the eighth inning that sunk the Chicago White Sox, 5-4.

McDougald's homer, struck off loser Early Wynn, overcame a 4-2 Chicago lead and reduced the Yankees' pennant clinching "magic number" to one.

That means they can wrap up their ninth pennant in the last 10 years by winning one game in a double-header with Kaas City today. One loss by the White Sox in a twin-bill against Washington will have the same effect.

Little Bobby Shantz started for the Yankees and went until the seventh inning when Murray Dickson came on and received credit for his 10th victory.

Cal McLish of Cleveland turned in his 15th victory of the year when he beat Boston 4-1, with a seven-hit effort. The only run McLish gave up was a fourth-inning homer by Don Buddin. The Indians broke a 1-1 tie with three runs off Dave Sisler in the seventh. Vic Power homered two of the runs.

Ted Williams moved ahead of teammate Pete Runnels in the race for the AL batting crown with a single in three trips while Runnels was blanked in four tries. Williams average is .320 and Runnels is at .318.

The Detroit Tigers rallied for seven runs in the third inning and went on to whip the slump-ridden Baltimore Orioles, 13-2, behind Jim Bunning's six-hit pitching.

Detroit's first eight batters all hit safely in the third inning. The AL record for consecutive hits is 10 set by Boston in 1901. Gail Harris drove in four of Detroit's runs with a pair of homers and a single. Skinny Brown was the loser.

Clint Courtney's grand slam homer in the second inning powered Washington to an 8-5 victory over Kansas City and helped snap a six-game Athletics' streak. Norm Zauchin also homered for the Senators, who hopped on loser Jack Urban for three runs in the first inning. Bill Tuttle and Joe DeMaestri each homered for the A's. Vito Valentini was credited with his fifth victory.
