Western Truckers Call Men Back

San Francisco - (UPI) - Western trucking firms, closed for more than a month because of a dispute with the Teamsters Union, started today to call men back to work in preparation for a full resumption of operation later this week.

Indications were that Teamsters were voting overwhelmingly to approve a settlement reached late last week between the Teamsters and employers covering the 11 Western states.

Representatives of the Western Conference of Teamsters were to meet here Wednesday with leaders of eight trucking associations to sign agreements covering long line and pickup and delivery drivers.

The dispute began Aug. 11 when 2350 California Teamsters went on strike. Employers ordered an 11-state lockout in retaliation.

Two Men Bound Over to Grand Jury

Ross Birdsall Best, 343 B st., Ashland, appeared before District Court Judge James Main yesterday on charges of grand larceny and was bound over to the grand jury.

He is being held in the Jackson county jail on $1,500 bail. Best is charged with taking checks and currency Monday valued at $265 from Harold J. Strauss and E. J. Taylor, owners of the Tally Ho dining room at Talent.

Alfred E. Bowman, box 189, route 1, Medford, appeared before Judge Main on charges of non-support and also was bound over to the grand jury. Bail was set at $500.

We wish to thank the lodge members of the Knights of Pythias No. 31 and the Pythians Sisters, the Pinnacle Packing Co. & employees, the management of employees of the M & M Store, & the Hamlin Motor employees, Double Dee Lumber Co. To those who expressed their sympathy in so many beautiful and practical ways during our recent bereavement, we extend our heartfelt thanks. Leroy & Lloyd Cline, & Addie Brown & Family.
