

Many Veterans in Raider Line-Up For Saturday Fray With Moffett

Ashland—A veteran lineup with a touch of newcomers is slated to be on the field for the Red Raiders of Southern Oregon college when the opening kickoff is whistled against Moffett Air base Saturday at 8 p.m. on the college football field here.

Grosz Gets Call Over Lettermen

Eugene—UPI—Many of the hopes of the 1958 University of Oregon football team rest upon the broad shoulders of an untested sophomore who has yet to play one minute of varsity football.

He's Dave Grosz, a 194-pound, six-foot-two-inch quarterback from Kent, Wash., located only a few miles from the University of Washington in Seattle.

Coach Len Casanova is extremely high on Grosz, who has moved into the starting quarterback job ahead of lettermen Sandy Fraser and Paul Grover.

Replaces Crabtree

Casanova says the Oregon quarterback situation is as good this year as it was last year at this time. And that could be a bad omen for Oregon's opponents.

Last year Oregon had Jack Crabtree, a senior who didn't crack the starting lineup until his final year but who proved himself outstanding and who was named the top player in the Rose Bowl game. Crabtree had Fraser and Grover behind him throughout the season.

Grosz was eligible last year but was held out. He picked up valuable pointers during the games. In spring practice he ran so well he was used part time as a left halfback.

Grosz is extremely quick, a valuable asset for a T-formation quarterback. He does 50 yards in six seconds. He is considered a good defensive player and punter as well as a passer.

In Oregon's attack the quarterback is often called upon to run the ball on optional plays and it may be Grosz's running ability which has placed him ahead of the other two candidates at the start.

The Oregon coaching staff believes Grosz has a chance to develop into a great star like Norm Van Brocklin and George Shaw.

Lack of experience at the signal calling post is his handicap.

He gets his first test here Saturday against Idaho. Then, two weeks later, Oregon goes up against Oklahoma. He should be "experienced" enough after that contest to run the team against PCC opponents.

West Central Mexico Flood Toll Said 23

Tepic, Mexico—UPI—Late reports from the flood zone of West Central Mexico today increased the toll of the swollen waters to 23 dead.

Persistent reports that the dead included three Americans—one of them a Roman Catholic priest—could not be confirmed immediately.

left off last year to lead the Raiders into their 1958 season. Locke is becoming more and more polished as a split-T quarterback, according to head coach Al Akins.

Filling up the rest of the backfield will be veterans Larry Maurer at fullback and Eldon Francis at left half plus newcomer LaVal Meunier from St. Mary's in Medford, in the right half slot.

Maurer, of Cave Junction, was the leading figure in the come-from-behind victory over Oregon College of Education last year when he scored three times in the second half as the men of SOC won 21-19.

Francis Sharp Runner

Francis is the sharp breakaway runner from Medford where he was a second team all-stater in 1956. Meunier played some years back for St. Mary's and in recent workouts he has proven quite a help. He is a fine pass receiver.

Jim McAbee and versatile Gordie Carrigan have won the starting end assignments for the opener should the Raiders receive the kickoff. McAbee, always dependable, is from Talent. Carrigan, from Crater High of Central Point, can play halfback, quarterback, or end where he is starting.

Phil Sword, an all-conference selection last year, will start a center and be flanked by guards Troy Bellah and Jim Tacchini. At tackles will be Bud Brittan and Al Sodoro, both Medford residents. Tacchini earned himself a starting spot after having to drop out last year with knee trouble. He has been showing some good blocking to earn the starting assignment.

Moffett Passing Likely

Moffett is expected to have just as good a team as last year, if not a little better, according to information received from the southlanders camp in the past week. The airmen have the same quarterback as last year and if the pattern follows this year as last there will be quite a bit of passing.

The Raiders on the other hand have been working on a well balanced attack which features both running and passing with the men of SOC hopeful of picking up yardage whichever way they care to choose.

The defensive lineup is yet undetermined for the Raiders and probably will not be revealed until just before game time. Dick Smith and Dick Swinney along with Marion Jack and John Godlove appear likely starters in the forward defensive wall with possibly Wayne Collum appearing in the secondary.

Following this week's encounter with Moffett the Raiders meet the University of British Columbia on Sept. 27 in Ashland and then the week of Oct. 4 travel to Portland for an encounter against Lewis and Clark. After that the Raiders open OCC play against Portland State Oct. 11.

TEAM FOR SOUTHERN OREGON—Phil Sword, center, and Lance Locke, quarterback, are on hand for another football season at Southern Oregon college. The Red Raiders open their 1958 slate Saturday night on Fuller field at Ashland against Moffett Naval Air Force Base. Game time is 8 p.m. Sword made the Oregon Collegiate conference all-star first team last season while Locke was named to the all-league second crew. The two also were teammates at Ashland High. Locke is a sharp passer and runner and works well off the split T. He may share conversion chores. Sword likes contact work and may play mainly defense this fall and with lack of depth in the line may be a two-way man some of the season. He'll likely handle kick-off chores.

Jack Crabtree With Argonauts

Toronto—UPI—Jack Crabtree, star quarterback of the 1958 University of Oregon Rose Bowl team, has been picked up by the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian pro league and is slated to play Saturday night against Ottawa.

Milwaukee Hopes To Cinch National Loop Flag Tonight

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

The Braves can wrap up the whole box of biscuits tonight.

All they need is a victory over the Redlegs plus an accompanying triumph by the Phillies over the second-place Pirates to clinch their second straight National league pennant.

The Braves, who had to wait until Sept. 23 to win last year, will send rookie Carlton Willey against Cincinnati tonight and if he doesn't get the job done, they've got Lew Burdette and Warren Spahn ready to go against the Redlegs during the week end.

The still-hopeful Pirates got the official go-ahead from Commissioner Ford Frick to order printing plates for World Series tickets Thursday, but the Braves made it a rather empty gesture by heating the Cardinals, 9-3, Thursday night.

Big Bob Rush posted the victory that reduced the Braves' magic number to "two" and increased their lead over the Pirates to six games. Milwaukee and Pittsburgh each have seven games to play.

Red Schoendienst paced Milwaukee's 13-hit attack with three doubles and a single while Johnny Logan and Andy Pafko contributed homers. Pafko hit his with two on in the ninth off reliever Neil Chittum. St. Louis starter Sam Jones was kayoed in the fourth inning and suffered his 12th loss. The victory for Rush, who gave up 11 hits, was his 10th against six losses.

Hesperia Led By Jerry Barber

Hesperia, Calif.—UPI—A trio of veteran pros led by 42-year-old Jerry Barber, headed the pack today in the second round of the 72-hole $17,000 Hesperia Open golf tournament.

Barber carded a record-shattering nine-under-par 63 Thursday in the first round, sweating out 100-degree heat.

He nosed out 34-year-old Dick Mayer, the 1957 National Open champion who has won hardly a dime on the pro tour this year. Mayer turned in a 31-33-64.

The third veteran to get up there with Barber and Mayer was 44-year-old Lloyd Mangrum, who scored 33-32-65.

That was the only game scheduled in the National league. Only two were played in the American league, with the White Sox beating the Orioles, 6-2, and the Athletics defeating the Red Sox, 4-1.

Rookie Barry Latman turned in a fine relief effort in helping the White Sox strengthen their hold on second place. He entered the game in the first inning after Ray Moore was knocked out and limited Baltimore to three hits and no runs until the ninth. Then, after walking the first batter, he was relieved by Turk Lown, who retired the next three in a row.

Bill Tuttle and Roger Maris got Kansas City out to a good start with back-to-back homers in the first inning, and as it turned out that was all winner Bud Daley needed. The southpaw knuckleballer held the Red Sox to five hits.
