

Voters' League To Hold Meeting

Medford League of Women Voters will hold the first general luncheon meeting of the year at Rogue Valley Country club Saturday, September 27, at 12:30 p.m.

The program will include introductions of all the chairmen on the new board, and a survey of the activities planned for this fall. Mrs. Ben Dey, chairman of the "County Home Rule" committee will give a brief report. Mrs. Thomas Rutter, voters' service chairman, will discuss the pros and cons of the ballot measures, and also inform the guests of the Candidates' Fair which is scheduled for September 17.

The League extends a cordial welcome to anyone interested in the program. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Homer Marx, S-SPing 2-6845.

The monthly evening unit meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Rutter, 1033 Queen Anne ave., Monday, September 22, at 8 p.m.

Miss Gay Jepson Wedded To Harvey Leonard Tonn

An event of September 12 was the wedding of Miss Gay Ellen Jepson, daughter of Mrs. Dale Davis, 929 West Thirtieth street, Medford, and William Jepson, Portland, to Harvey Leonard Tonn of Central Point. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Tonn, 130 Cedar street, Central Point.

The bride's veil was held by a lace tiara and she carried a lace fan with pink rosebuds encircling a white orchid.

Mrs. Richard Dunn, twin sister of the bridegroom, was matron-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Carol McKeown and Miss Kristine Christensen. Their gowns of mint green satin with Kelly green cummerbunds were worn with picture hats and they carried baby pink rosebuds.

Pamela and Gregory Davis, sister and brother of the bride, were flower girl and ring bearer. Pamela wore a pink and white frock.

Marvin Bohmert, Central Point, was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Richard Dunn, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Wayne Newnham, Gold Hill, James Crawford, Central Point and Gordon Carrigan.

The reception was held in the church, and was attended by about 150 guests. Pink and white gladiolus decorated the room, and the bride's table was arranged with baby pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Ralph Harrison, Portland, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake and Miss Dee Clark poured punch. Miss Myda McCabe took charge of the guest book.

For the wedding and reception Mrs. Davis wore a gown of white lace over blue taffeta with blue stole and pink rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue brocade taffeta sheath with dark blue accessories and pink rosebud corsage.

Mr. Tonn and his bride spent their honeymoon in Carmel, Calif., the bride wearing for traveling a blue knit suit with white accessories. They will make their home in McMinnville, Ore., where the bridegroom will be a junior at Linfield college. Mrs. Tonn attended Medford High school and Mr. Tonn Crater High school.

Mrs. Harvey Leonard Tonn was Gay Ellen Jepson before her marriage September 12 in First Presbyterian church. The bride and bridegroom are pictured (below) following the rites. The newlyweds are to live in McMinnville, Ore., where Mr. Tonn is a junior at Linfield college. (Landis photos)

Reception Honors Franks On Golden Wedding Day

Major and Mrs. Albert Frank celebrated their golden wedding anniversary August 25 with a reception at Girls Community club. Since the Franks have no family, their hostesses were members of Just Folks club of which Mrs. Frank is a member. She is also secretary of the club.

The club rooms were decorated with bouquets of gladiolus, and gold colored chrysanthemums centered the refreshment table. The honored guests cut the first slice of the anniversary cake.

Friends who assisted with the event were Mrs. Ray Harrison, Mrs. Edwin Nichols, Mrs. Harry Nordwick, Mrs. Harry Olsen, Mrs. Floyd Burk, Mrs. Hazel Rawls, Mrs. C. E. Sherred, Mrs. Ruth Waters, Mrs. George Wimer, Mrs. Louis Bittle, Mrs. Earl Bradfish, Mrs. Donald Chase, Mrs. Jack Clark, Mrs. James Fleming, Mrs. E. R. Gilstrap, Mrs. Wheeler Hughes, Mrs. Myrtle Kinnett, Mrs. Clarence Pankey, Mrs. George L. Watson and Mrs. F. E. Wahl.

The Franks were married in First Christian church in Atlanta, Ga., while Mr. Franks was stationed at Fort McPherson.

In Medford for the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Clair Frank, Denver, Colo., who flew to the coast for the event. Mr. Frank is a nephew of the Major.

About 125 guests attended.

Freshman Girl Plans Study of Animal Husbandry

Miss Susan Arlene Wright has enrolled for her freshman year at California Polytechnic college in San Luis Obispo, Calif. Miss Wright will study animal husbandry.

The student, a daughter of Mrs. Hazel Wright, 3321 Jacksonville highway, and Clifford Horn, 101 South Keeneway drive, became interested in animal husbandry through seven years of 4H membership. Before leaving for school she attended the annual Oregon State fair in Salem. Earlier this summer she was judged 4H grand champion sheep showman at the annual Jackson County 4H fair, and won the reserve championship for a pen of three fat lambs.

Last year Miss Wright won the championship on lambs, receiving the highest price ever paid for such animals at the fair, and has exhibited cattle in both San Francisco and Salem.

Last year Miss Wright won a national medal for all-around 4H club achievement, the medal having been awarded by Sears, Roebuck and company.
