New robes for Bethel officers, the annual candy sale and coming visitations to neighboring Bethels were discussed. Reported on the school of instruction for council members and Daughters held recently in Eugene. Attending were Mrs. Piper, Miss Diana Strohkirch, queen, Lester Hoff, associate guardian; Mrs. Alton Sowell, Miss Diane Blue, Miss Beverly Sowell, Miss Sandra Piper, Miss Jenny Carothers and Miss Nancy Hogan, officers of the Bethel. Mr. Hoff spoke concerning the Masonic tree farm in O'Brien.

California Couple Wed In Methodist Ceremony

Hills, Calif.—Miss Cheryl Gay Smith became the bride of James Albert Young in a ceremony held Sunday, August 31, at 3 o'clock at First Methodist church in Yreka, Calif. The Rev. Harold Coleman officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Smith, Hills, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Young, Etna, Calif.

Baskets of white gladiolus and stock decorated the church. Miss Judy Moore of Yreka played the traditional organ music and accompanied Miss Ann Wright, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of candlelight imported tulle lace and tulle over tulle fashion with a fitted bodice and full skirt with a pleated tulle flounce at the hem. Her finger tip length illusion net veil fell from a crown of satin and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Wear Taffeta

Miss Mary Lee Rutledge, Hornbrook, was maid of honor, and the bride's two sisters, Misses Candace and Janice Smith, were bridesmaids. All wore matching frocks of aquamarine taffeta with bouffant skirts and large bows in back. They wore matching tulle and velvet hats and carried nosegays of pink carnations.

Little Nancy Trinca, flower girl, wearing an aquamarine taffeta dress with large butterfly bow in back and matching headband of taffeta and pearls, carried a white basket filled with pink rose petals. Miss Diane Ward, in a pink taffeta gown, was candle lighter.

Paul Fredrickson, Sonoma, Calif., was best man and ushers were Dr. Roy Mason Jr., lone, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Don Dowling, Etna.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Smith chose a pure silk gown and hat of Dior blue. Her corsage was of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Young, mother of the bridegroom, wore a brown dress with green and brown accessories and her corsage was of bronze chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Yreka Inn. Miss Kaye Harmon, Red Bluff, was in charge of the guest book.

From a table covered by a hand crocheted lace cloth, Miss Dorice Young, aunt of the bridegroom, cut the cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Edward Carrigan, Etna. Mrs. Roy E. Mason, sister of the bridegroom, served the cake. Mrs. Robert Jorgenson, Willows, presided at the punch bowl, assisted by Mrs. R. E. Richman, aunt of the bride.

For her going away costume, the new Mrs. Young wore a two piece blue suit with white accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet. The young couple traveled to the coast for their wedding trip and will make their home in Chico.

The bride is a graduate of Yreka high school and attended Chico State college for two years. She has been employed at the Bank of America in Yreka.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Etna high school and has attended the University of California at Davis and will continue his education at Chico State college.

Out of town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Reason Evensizer, Rogue River, grandparents of the bride; Susie Nystrom, Grants Pass; Carole Baker, Medford; Linda Schuck, Sacramento; Kaye Harmon and Arlene Scott, Red Bluff; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jorgenson and daughter, Deborah, Willows; Mrs. Chris Starr, Altus; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wendell, Dunsuir; Mr. and Mrs. Al Thomas and Mrs. Bert Smith, Los Angeles; and Carl Jackson, Eureka.

To make skillets easy to clean, put detergent and a little water in the bottom before starting your dish-washing.

Miss Joan Elaine Morris

Gold Hill Couple Announce Trothal

Gold Hill—Mr. and Mrs. Bob Morris of North Pacific highway, Gold Hill, announce the engagement of their daughter, Joan Elaine Morris, to Larry Vernon Pirkey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pirkey, 433 Hopkins road in Central Point.

Both Miss Morris and Mr. Pirkey graduated from Crater High school in 1958. Mr. Pirkey is now stationed with the United States Army at Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri.

A spring wedding is planned.
