

JACKSONVILLE Bible Classes Scheduled

By BETTE HOSKINS

Jacksonville—Child Evangelism fellowship incorporated announced this week that the Jacksonville home Bible classes will begin Monday, Sept. 22.

Children 5 to 12 years old, attending school grades one to three, will meet at 2:40 p.m. at the Ford Patterson home at Huener Lane. Grades four through six will meet after school at the H. A. Bernston home at 306 East E st.

The classes are interdenominational and specialize in illustrated songs, object lessons and Bible stories. Parents are invited to visit and are requested to send written permission for their children to attend.

The Jacksonville school's beginning band program will start next week and there is a need by students for good used instruments. Anyone having a serviceable, reasonably priced instrument to sell is asked to get in touch with Mr. Leroy Mauroni at the school.

Mrs. Jean Hewlett, city recorder, reported this week that four nominating petitions for Mayor and councilmen have been filed at her office. E. O. Graham has been nominated for mayor and Everett Raveron, Frances Guidry and Harvey Parrott have been nominated for councilmen.

Mrs. Hewlett stated that she will be at the Jacksonville pharmacy Thursday, Sept. 25 and Thursday, Oct. 2 from 2 to 5 p.m. for anyone who would like to register. Registration will close Oct. 4 at 8 p.m.

Jacksonville Parent Teachers association will hold their first meeting for this school term Oct. 8 at 7:30 p.m. All parents are urged to attend.

Mrs. Pearl Kitchen is visiting her sister in Montecello, Wash.

Daniel Serry, formerly a resident here, now of El Monte, Calif., spent a week's visit here with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Max Kitchen and children of Myrtle Creek were last week end visitors in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Helen Maples is home recovering from a broken ankle after spending two weeks at the Sacred Heart hospital. She will be in a cast for six weeks more. Her son, Dick Maples, and his wife will arrive this week end from Huntington Beach, Calif., for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sanford have announced the birth of a son, Gary Allen, born Sept. 14. Sanford is home on a nine-day leave from the San Diego Navy base.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Coleman spent a brief vacation recently at Gold Beach. While there Coleman took part in a registered trap shoot. He came home with a trophy won on yardage and he also won high in his class for the two days of shooting.

Miss Joanne Lusch of Menlo Park, Calif., was a recent guest of Miss Joan Fretwell. The girls were roommates while attending Willamette university last term. While Miss Lusch was here they attended a Shakespearean play at Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Algeo and Mrs. Lois Fretwell drove Mrs. Fretwell's daughter, Joan, to Salem last week end, where she is enrolled for her second year at Willamette university.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Turnbull spent this week in Portland.

Larry Peterson suffered a broken foot last Friday in a basketball game played at Canyonville.

Mrs. Earnest Rasmussen reports that her son, David, injured in an accident in July, is now out of the hospital but will remain in Bakersfield at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jordan until he is able to come home. He is making a good recovery, Mrs. Rasmussen said.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Belau were the Rev. and Mrs. Alvin Haun and son, Zane, of San Bruno, Calif. They were also guests of the Earl Chester family. The Rev. Haun was guest speaker at the Jacksonville Assembly of God church while here.

Zane Haun went on to Canyonville, where he will attend the Assembly of God Christian Bible school. The group was also entertained at an evening get-together at the Loyd Rasmussen home in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Hoskins, accompanied by Mrs. Hoskins' sister, Mrs. Milton James, returned last Saturday from a week's combined business and pleasure trip to Blackfoot, Idaho. While there they visited Hoskins' parents Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hoskins and other relatives in the area, also making a side trip to the Yellowstone and Grand Teton national parks.

On the trip to the parks they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hoskins and Carl Hoskins' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rogers, all of Blackfoot.

A get-acquainted party for Jacksonville High school freshmen, especially those from Ruch, was held last Friday night at the school. The event was sponsored by teachers. Miss Marion Anderson and Lee Harter.

Several parents attended as special guests. Committee workers for the party were Judy Hogan, Bonnie Hard, Stan Smith and Steve Smith. Participating on the program were Bonnie Umberger, Oleana Black, Yvonne Perreard, and Bonnie Hard. They enacted personality skits of those present, with the other guests guessing who they were representing.

School Superintendent John Crabbe made a short address welcoming the students to the freshman class. Several games were played and refreshments served by Darlene Bowman, Shirley Walker, Bruce Niedermeyer and William Hard. Other committee workers included Donny Weir, Ronnie Adair, Gary Strong and David Jordan.

It has been reported that Mrs. Lottie Hunt, a former resident here, is seriously ill at her home in San Jose, California.

Word comes from Fresno, Calif., of the birth of a baby girl, Karen LaDeane, born Sept. 7, to Mr. and Mrs. Dave Shaw. The Shaws have an older girl, Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Reeter are the grandparents.

Mrs. Ruth Drum is in Salt Lake City, Utah, where she was called by the illness of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perin and children visited near Oakland, Calif., this week end at the home of Mr. Perin's sister.

Word was received from

Anchorage, Alaska, by Carl Magerle of the death of his brother-in-law, Allan McGregory, on Tuesday, Sept. 16. The funeral was held in Anchorage Friday, Sept. 19.

Mr. McGregory is survived by his widow, Myrtle of Valdez, Alaska, one son, Allan Jr., of Valdez, one son, Billy, of San Diego, and one daughter, Mrs. Joanne Curry, of Anchorage, and 3 grandchildren.

Mr. McGregory had made his home in Rogue River for many years. About two years ago he went to Alaska. Mr. McGregory is a school teacher at Valdez.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Magerle and Mr. and Mrs. George Magerle motored to Viola, Calif., Sunday.

The Klinkhammers are Mrs. Brayton's parents, and Mrs. Hanna is a sister. All of them, including Mrs. Cardoza, left this week for a short stay in Valljo. From there the Klinkhammers will leave soon for their home in Cogswell, N.D., and Mrs. Hanna and her son for their home in Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Leoni have purchased the corner lot adjacent to Mrs. Mary Kurt's property and are in the process of erecting a building in which they will open a barber shop and a beauty parlor.

On the other hand, Laura is wrong to blow cold air on Jane's enthusiasm. It is merely necessary for her to say that she doesn't care for this plan for herself.

(Copyright 1958, General Features Corp.)

The trouble with Jane is that she is hysterical about getting married because she has an old maid sister. She thinks that every day she lives her chances get smaller and smaller. I think she is too anxious and men sense that and don't like it. This would happen wherever we went.

The Council: We agree with Laura that one of the worst obstacles to making a match is hysteria on the subject of matrimony. Men sense that

Mr. and Mrs. Christine and small daughter have moved into a large trailer house on the Al Smith property on Cedar st.

Little Miss Sandra Brown of Grants Pass is spending this week as the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith.

Mrs. Herman Wicks of highway 99 north gave a luncheon last Wednesday, Sept. 10, for the teachers and former teachers of the primary building in Rogue River.

Attending were Mrs. Chester Jensen, Mrs. Mildred Marshall, Mrs. Vivian Miller, Mrs. Bessie Pollock and Mrs. James Beck and son Kenny.

Bill Weaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weaver, was home on a 24 hour leave Sept. 9 from the Navy. He was being transferred from Long Beach, Calif., where he was attached to the aircraft carrier Philippine Sea, to Bremerton, Wash., where his ship will be another carrier, the Hor-

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

They'll Do It Every Time

By Jimmy Hatlo

BIGDOME WANTS THE HELP TO FEEL THEY'RE JUST AS IMPORTANT TO THE OUTFIT AS HE IS—MAYBE MORE SO...

FELLOW WORKERS—THIS IS YOUR COMPANY, TOO! SO I WANT YOU TO FEEL FREE TO MAKE ANY SUGGESTIONS YOU WANT TO AS TO HOW WE CAN DO A BETTER JOB—HOW WE CAN DO ANYTHING TO IMPROVE ANY FACET OF THE BUSINESS...

SO HENRY MAKES WHAT, AFTER CAREFUL THOUGHT, HE BELIEVES IS A VERY GOOD SUGGESTION...

SO, TREMBLECHIN! YOU THINK AN EMPLOYEE'S COMMITTEE SHOULD SIT IN ON BOARD MEETINGS ONCE A YEAR? GETTING A LITTLE BIG FOR YOUR SHORTS, AREN'T YOU? IF YOU DON'T LIKE THE WAY I RUN THINGS, YOU CAN PEDdle YOUR PORCORN SOMEWHERE ELSE! OF ALL THE STUPID...

ROGUE RIVER Old Landmark Purchased

By MRS. MYRTLE WHIPPLE

Rogue River—Mr. and Mrs. John Chiamulera have purchased Waller's Inn, the old fire hall and two rental properties from Mr. and Mrs. Al Bamforth.

Waller's Inn is one of the old landmarks and was built by John Woods. Woods, being a bachelor, hired the cooking done.

Later the inn was purchased by T. H. B. Taylor and he added more to the building and Taylors and Mrs. Sabe Booker ran the place for years.

In 1926 it was purchased from the Taylor heirs by Mrs. James Whipple and was run as a hotel until 1934. The place was called the "Waldorf hotel."

The Bamfords have owned the place since April 1948. Before that it was owned by Mrs. Bamforth's father. The Bamfords will make their home at 112 West Main st. for the winter.

The Chiamuleras will run the place as an apartment house.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Babcock were visitors last week at the L. A. Miller home. The Babcocks are from Washington, D. C., and have spent some time visiting relatives and seeing points of interest. They made the trip by car. Mrs. Babcock and Mrs. Miller are sisters and had not seen each other for several years.

Mrs. Alice Harwood motored down from Eugene and spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Whipple recently.

Arthur Whims who owns property on Broadway, but is staying at Camp White, was home last week and had a new roof put on his house.

Mrs. Bertha McDonald,

Mrs. Margaret Powell and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Norval Stoneburg and son, all of Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. John Foster of Medford were guests Sunday at the home of Tom Wilson and Ambre Blayden.

Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Stoneburg are daughters of Mrs. McDonald.

Hurst Morgan and his mother, Mrs. Lois Morgan, have moved into their new house on Cedar street.

Mrs. Joe Golding motored to Mohawk, Ore., Saturday and spent the week end with her friend, Mrs. Thelma Shuster.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Wiley of McCloud, Calif., spent the week end at the Wiley-Carter ranch on Evans creek visiting Mr. Wiley's mother, Mrs. Zorah Wiley, and his sister, Mrs. Lona Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Christine and small daughter have moved into a large trailer house on the Al Smith property on Cedar st.

Little Miss Sandra Brown of Grants Pass is spending this week as the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith.

Mrs. Herman Wicks of highway 99 north gave a luncheon last Wednesday, Sept. 10, for the teachers and former teachers of the primary building in Rogue River.

Attending were Mrs. Chester Jensen, Mrs. Mildred Marshall, Mrs. Vivian Miller, Mrs. Bessie Pollock and Mrs. James Beck and son Kenny.

Bill Weaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weaver, was home on a 24 hour leave Sept. 9 from the Navy. He was being transferred from Long Beach, Calif., where he was attached to the aircraft carrier Philippine Sea, to Bremerton, Wash., where his ship will be another carrier, the Hor-

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

THE Family Council

Editor's note: The Family Council consists of a judge, a psychiatrist, three clergymen, a newspaper editor, a women's editor and two writers. Each article is a summary of an actual report. The Family Council does not give advice; it merely reports on problems that have been dealt with by responsible agencies and counselors.

Jane N.—I want to go overseas. Laura J.—It's a harebrained idea.

Jane N.—My friend and I are two girls in our mid-20s. We have gone out together quite a lot and we are both interested in marriage in the not-too-far future.

It seems to me, however, that our chances are mighty slim where we are now living. There is just a surplus of girls around. I feel we ought to pluck up our courage and move elsewhere—away from home. I would like to get a job overseas. So many girls do, and they have a lot of adventure and fun, even if they are disappointed with respect to matrimony.

I don't feel I can do this on my own. But if I had Laura to go with me I think it would be so much fun. But Laura is kind of chicken-livered.

Laura J.—I think it's a pretty silly idea to have to go traveling around the globe to find a husband. That's what it all comes down to, no matter how Jane talks of adventure and fun.

I discussed it with my parents and they agree that it's a harebrained idea. I am certainly not interested in marrying a foreigner and I imagine we will meet fewer eligible American men overseas than we do at home.

The trouble with Jane is that she is hysterical about getting married because she has an old maid sister. She thinks that every day she lives her chances get smaller and smaller. I think she is too anxious and men sense that and don't like it. This would happen wherever we went.

The Council: We agree with Laura that one of the worst obstacles to making a match is hysteria on the subject of matrimony. Men sense that

Mr. and Mrs. Christine and small daughter have moved into a large trailer house on the Al Smith property on Cedar st.

Little Miss Sandra Brown of Grants Pass is spending this week as the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith.

Mrs. Herman Wicks of highway 99 north gave a luncheon last Wednesday, Sept. 10, for the teachers and former teachers of the primary building in Rogue River.

Attending were Mrs. Chester Jensen, Mrs. Mildred Marshall, Mrs. Vivian Miller, Mrs. Bessie Pollock and Mrs. James Beck and son Kenny.

Bill Weaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weaver, was home on a 24 hour leave Sept. 9 from the Navy. He was being transferred from Long Beach, Calif., where he was attached to the aircraft carrier Philippine Sea, to Bremerton, Wash., where his ship will be another carrier, the Hor-

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

HORNBROOK Funeral Services Held

By CATHERINE CHAPMAN

Hornbrook — William M. Hansen, 70, who died Thursday, Sept. 11, at his home in Brownsboro, Ore., was well known here, where he had visited many times over the years at the homes of his sister, Mrs. Minnie Bloomingcamp, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. O. G. Tyrer, who is a sister of his late wife, Mrs. Susie Hansen.

Here for the services at the family plot in the Henley-Hornbrook cemetery were Mr. Hansen's son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald W. Hansen and daughter, Gerilyn, his brother, George Hansen, all of Brownsboro, his sister, Mrs. Anna Rohrer, of Eagle Point, and several nieces and nephews from Eagle Point, Central Point and Hills, Calif.

Overnight visitors Monday at the home of Mrs. Minnie Bloomingcamp and son, Charles, were the Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Troutner. The Rev. Troutner was minister of the Methodist church here during the 1930's. He is now retired and living at Lodi, Calif. He and Mrs. Troutner were Tuesday for a short stop in Montague, from whence they were going to Mt. Shasta to attend a dinner and dedication services for the new Methodist church that evening.

A miscellaneous shower was held Tuesday evening at the Frank Cardoza home for Mrs. Cardoza's sister, Mrs. Hal Brayton, who was visiting here from Valljo, Calif.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bear, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Klinkhammer and daughter, Kathy, and Mrs. Jack Hanna and son, Jackie.

The Klinkhammers are Mrs. Brayton's parents, and Mrs. Hanna is a sister. All of them, including Mrs. Cardoza, left this week for a short stay in Valljo. From there the Klinkhammers will leave soon for their home in Cogswell, N.D., and Mrs. Hanna and her son for their home in Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Leoni have purchased the corner lot adjacent to Mrs. Mary Kurt's property and are in the process of erecting a building in which they will open a barber shop and a beauty parlor.

On the other hand, Laura is wrong to blow cold air on Jane's enthusiasm. It is merely necessary for her to say that she doesn't care for this plan for herself.

(Copyright 1958, General Features Corp.)

The trouble with Jane is that she is hysterical about getting married because she has an old maid sister. She thinks that every day she lives her chances get smaller and smaller. I think she is too anxious and men sense that and don't like it. This would happen wherever we went.

The Council: We agree with Laura that one of the worst obstacles to making a match is hysteria on the subject of matrimony. Men sense that

Mr. and Mrs. Christine and small daughter have moved into a large trailer house on the Al Smith property on Cedar st.

Little Miss Sandra Brown of Grants Pass is spending this week as the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith.

Mrs. Herman Wicks of highway 99 north gave a luncheon last Wednesday, Sept. 10, for the teachers and former teachers of the primary building in Rogue River.

Attending were Mrs. Chester Jensen, Mrs. Mildred Marshall, Mrs. Vivian Miller, Mrs. Bessie Pollock and Mrs. James Beck and son Kenny.

Bill Weaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weaver, was home on a 24 hour leave Sept. 9 from the Navy. He was being transferred from Long Beach, Calif., where he was attached to the aircraft carrier Philippine Sea, to Bremerton, Wash., where his ship will be another carrier, the Hor-

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

NEW YORK—(UPI)—Frederick T. Bonham, 76, former personnel director of the New York Times, died Sunday of a stroke in Doctors Hospital.

Leoni is a retired Navy man, and he and Mrs. Leoni moved here recently from Oxnard, Calif., to make their home.

A few miles north of town on Highway 99, near the Sulphur Springs service station, work is progressing on a new home being built by Louis Alphonse of the Fruit Growers Supply company of Hills.

Work has also begun on the new home being built by Mr. and Mrs. Ivon Howard about one-quarter mile up the road from the home of the Howard's daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Cummins and two children.

Mr. Ruth's new home, around the corner from Oscar Barnum's, is near completion, and recently Ray Blankenship moved from his location in the old garage building into the new commercial garage he built on old highway 99 across from Mrs. Kurt's.

With the new grammar school, progress seems evident on every hand in Hornbrook now.

TEN PER CENT HAVE TV Frankfurt, Germany—(UPI)—Four out of five West German households own radios and one out of 10 have television sets, the Institute of Germany Industry said today.

Las Vegas—(UPI)—The Atomic Energy Commission Sunday permitted newsmen to witness for the first time one of its experiments to assure the safety of nuclear weapons from accidental detonation.

An atomic device was detonated at the bottom of a 500-foot shaft at the Nevada test site, 75 miles north of here at Yucca Flats, in the third safety experiment conducted in conjunction with the current series of A-tests. Scientists and newsmen results.

Smoke erupted from the blast site followed by a tongue of flame which showed through the sides of a three-story aluminum tower covering the shaft.

A B57 flew through the cloud of smoke, reporting minutes later that it was slightly radioactive. Two previous tests produced the same

MAIL TRIBUNE, Medford, Ore., Monday, September 22, 1958 13

Newsman Witness Nuclear Test

Las Vegas—(UPI)—The Atomic Energy Commission Sunday permitted newsmen to witness for the first time one of its experiments to assure the safety of nuclear weapons from accidental detonation.

An atomic device was detonated at the bottom of a 500-foot shaft at the Nevada test site, 75 miles north of here at Yucca Flats, in the third safety experiment conducted in conjunction with the current series of A-tests. Scientists and newsmen results.

Smoke erupted from the blast site followed by a tongue of flame which showed through the sides of a three-story aluminum tower covering the shaft.

A B57 flew through the cloud of smoke, reporting minutes later that it was slightly radioactive. Two previous tests produced the same

Automatic refill!

your neighborhood Mobilheat dealer

S & H GREEN STAMPS TOO MEDFORD FUEL CO. Tel. SP 2-2111

ALL POPULAR MODELS—New or Used

• Adding Machines Friden, Victor, Sundstrand, Remington, Odhner

• Typewriters Portable or Standard

• Calculators Most Popular Makes & Models

RATES to Students and Teachers

FOR RENT OR SALE

See Clifford C. Voight for "A Better Deal"

Medford Office Equipment

FRIDEN AGENCY 41 South Grape Phone SP 2-4100

In Today's Battle For Men's Minds... Our Greatest Weapon Is Truth

Your Dollars Bring Truth and Hope Behind the Iron Curtain

In a scant few years, the spirit of these Czech children may be broken... crushed by the never-ending avalanche of Red lies, restrictions and distortions. A great hope remains for them and for the free world: the 29 powerful truth transmitters of Radio Free Europe. They broadcast the news as it really happens, destroy Red distortions, renew hope that freedom will one day return. But freedom is not free. Your dollars are needed to help operate Radio Free Europe, pay for its supplies, announcers, political analysts... keep its transmitters on the air. Freedom is not free! Send your truth dollars today to Crusade for Freedom, care of your local Postmaster.

FREEDOM IS NOT FREE!

Your dollars are needed to keep RADIO FREE EUROPE on the air!

Send your truth dollars to CRUSADE for FREEDOM care of local Postmaster

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE