Bears Go Unbeaten in Exhibitions

By TIM MORIARTY
United Press International
Keep your eye on the Chicago Bears when they start playing for real in the National Football League next Sunday.

The one-time monsters of the midway were the only team to come through the pre-season grind unbeaten, completing their exhibition schedule with an uphill 27-24 victory over the Washington Redskins Sunday in a nationally televised game.

Only one other club wound up with better than a .500 mark in the tuneups. The Los Angeles Rams finished with a 4-2 record, polishing off the Pittsburgh Steelers, 31-6, in their pre-season finale.

In the week-end's other final tuneups, the Browns rolled to a 41-7 victory over the Lions; Bobby Walston's field goal in the final minute earned the Eagles a 31-28 triumph over the Forty-Niners, the Cardinals turned back the Packers, 31-24; and the Colts whipped the Giants, 42-21.

The Bears needed a 13-point rally in the final period before pulling out their sixth straight victory at Washington. Willie Gallimore tied the score at 24-24 on a 70-yard touchdown gallop, then George Blanda booted a 10-yard field goal with 19 seconds to play.

Hoop Loop Suggested

Portland—(UPI)—The University of Washington, which has joined three California schools in a proposed "big four" football circuit, was named today as one of five northern Pacific Coast conference schools in a suggested basketball hoop.

Athletic directors of Oregon, Oregon State, Washington State, Idaho and Washington met here Sunday and issued a statement which said Washington desired to continue its relationship in basketball and other sports with its traditional northern rivals.

All the schools are members of the Pacific Coast conference which is folding up after the current school year. Washington joined Southern California, UCLA and California in a proposed football alliance.

In recent years the PCC has been playing a round-robin basketball scheduled but before that was divided into the Northern and Southern divisions. The five schools represented here Sunday were members of the old Northern division.

Rams Will Cut Three Rookies

Los Angeles—(UPI)—The Los Angeles Rams, their exhibition season ended with a 31-6 defeat of the Pittsburgh Steelers, today began on the problem of their National Football League opener with Cleveland next Sunday.

Among coach Gillman's problems were what rookies to cut from the squad, not to mention the vital question of how to whip the Browns, victors over the Rams this year in a pre-season contest.

The coach planned to view the films of Sunday's defeat of the Steelers before making his decision on which three to cut. Most of the rookies performed well against the Steelers.

McMullin Wins Hesperia Golf

Hesperia, Calif.—(UPI)—John McMullin, a gaunt-looking 23-year-old, today is beginning to pay off the Fair Oaks, Calif., backers who gave him a grubstake to try his hand on the professional golf circuit.

McMullin collected $2,000 Sunday when he won the second annual $17,000 Hesperia Open.

McMullin played the most consistent golf of the Hesperia Open. He had rounds of 69-68-67-67 for a 271 total, 17 under par.

Gene Littler was second with 272. Dow Finsterwald won third place with 274.

Moffett Fliers Subdue SOC Red Raider Gridders 40-25

Ashland-Moffett Naval Air Field Fliers fused the dipsoyod running of hula hooping halfback Calvin Campbell, the hard hoofing of fullback Dick Snyder, the charging of a bull-tough line and the generalship and aerial bombardment of quarterback Dick Olivas here Friday night.

Result was a 40 to 25 football victory over the Southern Oregon college Red Raiders of the Rogue.

Southern Oregon, commencing its 1958 slate with the non-league against the California-based armed services team, displayed bursts and surges of quality which could earn them another Oregon Collegiate conference mantle.

The Fliers fought with more precision, polish and consistency. They grabbed the upper hand in the second quarter and maintained their rule on the scoreboard the rest of the way.

Moffett banged to the first touchdown of the evening. The Raiders rose up to gain 13 to 7 first quarter edge. By halftime, however, the Fliers from below the Golden Gate were on top 20 to 13.

The Navy men made it 27 to 13 at the end of the third quarter and stretched to 33 to 13 before the Ashlanders reached pay soil again.

Snyder Scores
Navy ambled 55 yards in five plays for the first TD of the game. Snyder took a pitch busted over right tackle and galloped 16 yards to the goal. An 18-yard pass combination, Olivas to Lewis Granger, set up the scoring play. Ed White passed to Elton Francis ran back White's kick-off 29 yards to the SOC 43 to touch off a 57-yard Raider touchdown march.

Southern Oregon promenade in nine plays to the Flier 29. There Lance Locke hurled to Larry Maurer on the 10-yard line. A rousing Raider block cleared the path and Maurer scooted to the end zone. Locke's point after touchdown boot was blocked.

Next Raider score, the last for a considerable time, came two plays after Phil Sword kicked off. After one running play Moffett had the ball on its own 24-yard line. Olivas lashed out with an aerial. But it failed to connect with its intended receiver. Wayne Collum, who turned in a flashing defensive game, moved in to intercept the throw and packed the ball 33 yards over the pay-off stripe. Locke was wide on a PAT kick but a Flier infraction gave him second chance and he made it good. The score was 13 to 7.

Fliers Roar Back
Moffett roared right back after the SOC tabulation, without relinquishing the pigskin, caught up with the host Raiders. The Fliers moved 63 yards in 10 plays. Campbell, who swivel-hipped for 181 yards on 16 carries during the night, went over right guard for 10 yards and a TD on this particular march. Sword blocked White's conversion thump.

SOC took the ball for one series of downs and Tony Brauner punted to the Fliers. White grabbed the ball and got back 46 yards upfield to the Raider 33 before he was stopped. Olivas tossed a shortie pass to Campbell on the next play and the half-back zipped to the end zone without a hand laid on him. Olivas kicked the extra for 20 to 13.

Only TD of the third quarter was tallied the first time the Fliers got their hands on the ball. They took possession on their own 23 where a Brauner punt had rolled dead. Campbell squirmed for 12 yards. Then Olivas cast to John Mullen for a 50-yard gain to the Raider 15. Southern Oregon was offside on the next play and the ball was moved to the 10. An Olivas to Granger pass put the Fliers on the two and on the next play Campbell swept right end on a pitch out. Olivas toed another PAT.

73-Yard Pass Play
To get the fourth period scoring underway Olivas and the speedy Campbell teamed on a 73-yard pass play.

SOC got its offense going again. Francis ran John Thompson's kick-off 23 yards to the SOC 40. The Raiders were momentarily stymied when Jack Brown lost six yards trying to pass. Then, after one incomplete toss, Brown found Jim McAbee who was finally brought down 60 yards down the field on the Moffett 16.

Maurer made four yards, Francis five and another four and Maurer went through the middle for the last three to the goal. Locke's conversion kick was wide and the count stood at 33 to 19.

Navy went 75 yards for its last touchdown. Campbell started it by dancing 32 yards to the Raider 43.

Six line smacks later Snyder went three yards to the goal. Snyder had one gain of 12 yards and Campbell runs of 10 and 14 in the drive. Olivas kicked the PAT.

Maurer fell on a Moffett fumble in the waning moments to set up the last SOC TD. With the ball on the 14-yard line, Brown heaved to Francis for 10 yards. Maurer hit the middle for the final four yards. Locke's kick on the conversion play was wide.

Passing games gained best for each club. Moffett completed nine of 19 aerials for 261 yards and SOC 10 of 17 for 190. Had the Raiders given their passers Locke and Brown protection, the Ashlanders might have made a closer game of it.

In addition to Campbell 181 yards in 16 packs, Snyder had 68 for 10 for the Fliers. Maurer carried 19 times for 50 for SOC. Francis nine for 25 and Laval Meunier one for 32 from scrimmage. Locke and Meunier each had 21 yard kick-off returns for SOC and Meunier a 27-yarder. A Brown to Meunier pass was the big gainer as the Raiders got to the Moffett nine yard line just as the first half ended.

SOC had 15 first downs to the Fliers' 12.

Jacksonville—Jacksonville high scored on its second scrimmage play of the game Saturday and went on to defeat the Chiloquin football team 19 to 6 in District 5B.

A 61-yard pass play, Ron Davis to Wayne Cabler, set up the opening TD. Davis went the last four yards. Doyle Bransom passed to Ken Perreard to convert.

In the second quarter Jacksonville made it 13 to 0 with Davis going the last three yards of a long drive. Chiloquin then moved 60 yards on a series of off-tackle plays and tallied for 13 to 6 at halftime.

The Redskins went over the goal in the third quarter on a 75-yard charge. Bransom drove the last seven.

Merrill defeated Malin 14 to 13 in another Saturday District 5B fray. On Friday St. Mary's won 31 to 6 from Sacred Heart and Bonanza beat Talent 37 to 0.

Teams Go For 2-Point Conversions

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
The first results are in on college football's new optional extra point play and they indicate a surprising trend to gamble for two points instead of playing it safe for one.

A United Press International survey of 20 major games Saturday showed the coaches tried the two-point pass-run conversion 58.2 per cent of the time with a 52.4 percentage of success. The "safe" one-point kick proved successful 61.3 per cent of the time.

There were a total of 103 touchdowns scored in the 20 games surveyed. The teams tried pass-run conversions 59 times and were successful 31 times, and tried conventional kicks 44 times and were successful 27 times. The trend indicates the controversial new two-point play will become increasingly popular because there is almost as good a chance to get the two points as there is to score one.

Many Upsets
There were five major upsets on the first big week end of the season but not one could be traced to the new rule. In fact, the only major game decided by an extra point was Texas Tech's 15-14 upset of Texas A&M, which was won by Floyd Dellinger's "old-fashioned" placement.

The final play was set up, however, because Texas Tech gambled and made a two-point conversion earlier.

Nebraska engineered the top upset of the day when it scored a 14-7 victory over Penn State.

Pittsburgh, another highly-rated eastern independent, whipped UCLA, 27-6, North Carolina State beat North Carolina, 21-14, and Wake Forest routed Maryland, 34-0, in the other top upsets.

Debris Sighted; Search for Plane Off Oahu Spurred

Honolulu—(UPI)—A search for a small plane with four persons aboard missing since Saturday centered off Oahu today after a report that wreckage had been sighted in the area.

Aircraft and boats searched the waters between Kauai and Honolulu Sunday for the missing plane and its crew of four. Late in the afternoon, one search plane spotted wreckage, but a patrol boat sent to the area was unable to find the debris before darkness fell.

Looking for Lehi
A party of two men and two women had rented the plane in order to fly to Kauai. The Honolulu airport said they took off apparently intending to see the arrival of the raft Lehi which was completing its historic voyage from California.

A call for help was received Saturday from the single-engine tri-pacer and a radar unit picked up the plane and tried to direct it to land. Final Distress Call
The plane flew on a circular course and then disappeared from sight on the radar screens. A final distress call was heard when it ran out of fuel at 10:28 p.m. p.d.t.

The Honolulu airport identified those aboard as Thomas F. Sharpnack, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Finch, and Elizabeth Morrison. Miss Morrison is the daughter of Charles Morrison, Kimberly, B.C. No address was available for the others.

SAY NO MORE
Danville, Ill.—(UPI)—Carol Ann Kieser, 11, had a logical comment Sunday after twirling her hula hoop eight hours and two minutes, for an estimated 25,000 revolutions, in a city-wide contest.

"I'm tired," said Carol.
