Gold Hill—The newly-organized Gold Hill Home Extension unit will hold its first meeting Friday, Sept. 26, at 10:30 a.m. in the home of temporary chairman, Mrs. Virgil M. Ladd on Second ave. in Gold Hill.

Those attending are requested to bring a sack lunch. Coffee will be furnished. All women in the Gold Hill community are invited to join the new unit. Those who wish to be charter members must register at this first meeting. The program for the year will be outlined at this time and by-laws for the group will be discussed.

Those interested may sign up for the pattern alternation workshop on that date. Separate groups of lessons on the topic will be given in private homes.

Mr. F. L. Wertz, well-known artist throughout the west, and a former resident of Gold Hill visited here recently, renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. Eroll E. Miller went to Portland recently, where they were guests in the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Miller, who were hosts for a family reunion. Attending besides the E. E. Millers of Gold Hill were two of his brothers and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Miller all of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Miller of Winterset, Iowa, Chauncey Miller is an uncle of the four Miller brothers.

While here they were the guests at the home of Mrs. Blanche Merriman, Second ave., Gold Hill, and visited in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. John Breeding in Rogue River and Mr. and Mrs. Eroll E. Miller in Gold Hill.

Mrs. Florence Piening, Mrs. Merriman, Mrs. Breeding and Mrs. Miller are sisters.

Michael Morris, a fourth grader at the Hanby school, has serious infection in his hand. His illness occurred five days after he was bitten on the thumb by a digger squirrel while playing with a group of neighborhood youngsters near his home. He and his dog chased the squirrel into a hole and when he reached in to pick up the animal, it nipped him.

Young Michael is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Morris, Galls Creek road.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Mack and son, Herchel, moved to Central Point recently. They had lived in Sams Valley for several years at the teacherage. Mack's father, Chester G. Mack, formerly of Oregon City, has moved to southern Oregon and will make his home with the Mack family in Central Point.

Mack said that he looked for a three bedroom home in Gold Hill but couldn't find one for sale or rent. He stated he regrets having to find a home outside the community since his work is here and Mrs. Mack is a teacher in the Sams Valley school.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brewster and family have moved from their home in Medford to the teacherage at Sams Valley. He is principal at the Sams Valley school and Mrs. Brewster teaches in Gold Hill and Sams Valley music departments.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Guidi of Second ave., Gold Hill, have had as their guests the past two weeks, his sister, Mrs. Pearl Dilling, from Meaford, Ontario, Canada, and her friend, Miss Louise Taylor, from Toronto, Canada.

The couple and their guests went to Gold Beach Tuesday, Sept. 16, where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Marteneau.

The Marteneaus are well known in Gold Hill, having been residents for many years.

Mrs. Thomas Gray of Sardinia creek received painful injuries to her leg while participating in the horseback square dancing of the Medford Trail Riders at Camp White Sept. 7. She has had to remain off her feet because of a large blood clot which developed.

Mrs. Ivan Smith returned to her home on Sardinia creek Thursday, Sept. 18, following a week spent in the Rogue Valley hospital in Medford where she had her leg in traction.

Mrs. Wilford Jones of First ave. was a patient in the Rogue Valley hospital two days recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Linsley Dotson and daughter, Pamela, of Montclair, Calif., arrived in Gold Hill Tuesday, Sept. 15, and will be guests in the home of his grandmother, Mrs. George Dorman on Second ave. while they are vacationing for two weeks in southern Oregon.

The Dotsons and their daughter accompanied his mother, Mrs. Maybelle Rains, Albert and Arthur Gaskin, all of Gold Hill, and Mrs. Robert Goodman and Debbie of Medford to the Oregon Caves Wednesday, Sept. 16.

The Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Dierdorff of 1133 Spring st., Medford, have purchased a home in Oakland, Calif., that is next door to their daughter, Mrs. Thelma Ray. He said they are moving because of Mrs. Dierdorff's failing health.

The Dierdorffs are well known in Gold Hill. They resided on the Upper River road while he was pastor of the Gold Hill Community Methodist church for six and one half years. Mrs. Ray visited here many times. She attended the golden wedding anniversary of her parents at the church in Gold Hill, August 21, 1952.

The Rev. and Mrs. Dierdorff plan to leave for their new home as soon as they have sold their home and furniture in Medford. One of his favorite hobbies has been to take care of his large garden lot, at his home in Medford, which he built new only two years ago.

Mrs. E. C. Hoffman was hostess at her home on highway 99 north for the last meeting of the Adair chapter social club of the order of the Eastern Star. Mrs. George Mero, worthy matron of the chapter, was co-hostess.

West Coast Phone Request Rejected

Salem—UPI—Public Utility Commissioner Howard Morgan Monday denied a request that telephone rates be based on local costs and revenues.

The request came from Gresham, Troutdale, Fairview and Wood Village which are served by West Coast Telephone company. The decision upholds the past system of basing rates on statewide costs of telephone companies.

Mary Roberts Rinehart Dies At Age of 82

New York—UPI—Mary Roberts Rinehart, 82, who averaged writing a mystery novel a year for 40 years, died Monday night in her sleep.

Mrs. Rinehart was a wealthy woman from the time she published her first book, "The Bat."

RED SHIPS GET PERMIT
Washington—UPI—The United States has authorized a Russian oceanographic survey vessel the Vityaz, to put in at San Francisco and Honolulu to refuel, take on food and water and give its crew shore leave.

Circular Staircase." That novel alone was believed to have earned her up to $9 million in stage, screen and television sales. It was dramatized under the title of "The Bat."

Used Medical Theme
Mrs. Rinehart was a prolific writer of not only mysteries but books with a medical theme. Her interest in that subject may be traced to the fact she married Stanley M. Rinehart, a doctor, after training as a nurse herself.

During World War I Mrs. Rinehart served as a correspondent. She interviewed Queen Mary of Great Britain and King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium.

Mrs. Rinehart once described writing as "the hardest work in the world" but she continued to turn out her novels as late as her 76th year when she published "The Swimming Pool," a mystery set in Bar Harbor, Maine, where she had a home.

10 Million Copies
Even before publication of that book, it was estimated her novels had sold more than 10 million copies in 13 languages. Most of the novels were serialized in magazines and many were made into movies and television productions.

Mrs. Rinehart, who died in her Park ave. apartment, was born into a modest Pittsburgh family in 1876. She is survived by three sons and six grandchildren. Her husband died in 1932.
