

SHADY COVE-TRAIL Ex-Resident Killed

By EVALYN P. WATSON

Shady Cove-Trail-Darlene Helen Sheriff, the 12-year-old Portland girl who was killed in a freak accident Sept. 7, being found in her parents' barn with her head in a noose, was a former resident of Shady Cove. She lived in Shady Cove with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morris Sheriff, and sister, Colleen, during 1953 and 1954. She attended the Shady Cove school in the first grade.

The Sheriff family lived on Foeller rd. in the home now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Buttram. Darlene's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sheriff, were also residents of Shady Cove at that time. Both families moved from Shady Cove to Portland.

Shirley Abernathy, niece of Mrs. Theron Mason of Shady Cove has returned to her home in Downey, Calif., where she attends high school. Mrs. Ima Abernathy, Mrs. Mason's sister is still in the area but expects to leave in a short time.

Mrs. Adeline Carl is living at her home in Shady Cove again after a long absence. Most of her time away was spent in Jensen Beach and St. Petersburg, Fla., and then she also visited in Calgary, and Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.
