

Forty Members Attend Session Of Honor Group

Forty members of Delta Kappa Gamma, national honor society for women teachers, met at Girls' Community Saturday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock, for a dessert luncheon. Hostesses were Miss Gladys Owen and Mrs. Marie Bjorlie, Ashland; Mrs. Alice Ottis, Mrs. Merle Woodward, and Miss Dorothy Dymock, Grants Pass.

The president, Miss Anna Laura Honts, Medford, appointed her committees for the year, and members discussed plans for the year's work. Two new members were accepted by transfer, Mrs. Edwin Gebhard, Central Point, from St. Louis, Mo., and Miss Ruth Esther Hill, grade school librarian in Ashland, from Anna, Ill.

Miss Hill gave interesting highlights of the international convention of Delta Kappa Gamma held at the Leanington Hotel, Minneapolis, August 11-17, which she and Miss Mary Andrews, also of Ashland, attended as representatives of Epsilon Chapter. She reported on the phenomenal growth of the society since its organization in Austin, Texas, in 1929. From a group of 12, three of whom were at the convention, the membership has grown to more than 63,000; from one chapter, to 1411.

She also told of the success of the student exchange movement that has brought more than 43,000 students to American colleges. This society is a participating agency. The convention theme was "So Many Worlds—So Much To Do."

Women's Classes To Open at 'Y'

Women of the valley were given a preview of the YMCA's "slim and trim" program during open house this week, and enrollment in classes is scheduled for next week. The slim and trim classes will be held Tuesday and Thursday mornings at 10 a.m. and a Tuesday evening class is planned for employed women.

A mother and tot swimming class is also planned, this type of class having proven efficient in the past. These are to be held Tuesdays and Thursdays at 1 p.m. A class for women alone will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays. Women in this class must be "Y" members and enrollment is limited.

A volleyball team will be organized, and a health instruction class will meet at 10 a.m. Fridays. Mrs. Lanell Wilkes, Mrs. Ruth Adams and Mrs. Billie Schott are to instruct classes, and Mrs. Curtis Butterfield will take charge of children.

Shady Cove Unit Outlines Program

Shady Cove - Projects for the coming club year were outlined at a meeting of Shady Cove Home Extension unit held at the home of Mrs. John Lowery, chairman.

The program includes demonstrations on Christmas crafts, improvement as a hostess, posture and exercise, nutrition and food values, care and pruning of shrubbery, and distinctive foods. Meetings will be held the third Tuesday of the month, and any woman interested is invited to attend.

Mrs. Travis Littlefield was installed vice-chairman. Other officers are Mrs. Frank Linden, secretary, and Mrs. John Loper, treasurer.

Carnival Slated By Kerby PTA

Cave Junction—Plans for a carnival October 25 were discussed at the first meeting of the new year held by Kerby Parent-Teacher association. Mrs. Ronald Prather, president, conducted the meeting and the Rev. LeRoy Nidever gave the invocation.

The group voted to purchase penmanship awards and certificates for the upper and lower divisions. The PTA school of instruction held in Grants Pass September 24 was announced.

Arch Johnson, principal, introduced the teaching staff and Mrs. Prather presented them with corsages and bouquets.

Mrs. Melvin Starks, Cub Scout leader, invited the PTA activity chairman to attend the first meeting of the scouts planning committee Tuesday, October 7.

The PTA executive board will meet at 3:15 p.m. in the school cafeteria September 29. The next general meeting will be October 9.

Chairman Named For Annual Sale

Mrs. W. H. Fisher was named chairman of the annual Christmas Seal sale when the Medford committee, Jackson County Tuberculosis and Health association, met recently at the home of Mrs. Charles Barnes.

The group is beginning its Christmas seal work and will meet each Tuesday morning in the association's office, 407 Leverette building. Mrs. Edward Knapp, county chairman for the annual sale, states that anyone wishing to help in their local communities may call Mrs. Helen Tweedy at the association office.

Sunday breakfast treat: Combine 1 cup cream and 1/2 cup honey; warm gently, stirring. Add 1/2 cup chopped walnuts just before serving over hot waffles.

National Session Set for Oregon

Redmond—National Press Women will hold the 1939 convention in Portland next summer and Oregon Press Women, meeting last week end in Redmond, concentrated on plans for the meeting. The visitors also attended Redmond's Potato Festival and toured the Northwest Telephone company's direct toll-dialing facilities.

Miss Rebecca Tarshis, Portland, a past president of Oregon Press Women, is general chairman of convention plans and she estimates that about 300 women from all parts of the nation will attend. Tentative dates are August 13-15. Oregon Press Women planned the convention to coincide with the state's centennial celebration, and the meeting will be followed by a post-convention tour of Oregon.

Miss Maggie Magee, Salem, was appointed to submit a plan to the national organization under which working press women would go abroad on an exchange basis.

The state group also decided to take steps to implement the Oregon resolution adopted at this year's national convention that in educating students, emphasis be placed on fundamentals of the English language from first grade through high school.

Blue Star Mothers Discuss Convention; To Give Camp Party

Medford Blue Star Mothers met recently at the home of Mrs. Rex Note on Hamilton street. Following a desert luncheon served by the hostesses, the business session was conducted by the vice president, Mrs. Helen Watson.

Plans were discussed for attending the 16th annual national convention of the Blue Star Mothers which is to convene at the Hotel Deauville in Miami, Fla., in the near future. The afternoon hours was spent in making out reports of the activities and accomplishments of the local group by all of the committee chairmen, to send to the national convention. Plans were also made for the monthly party which the group sponsors for the wheel chair patients at the Camp White Domiciliary Friday.

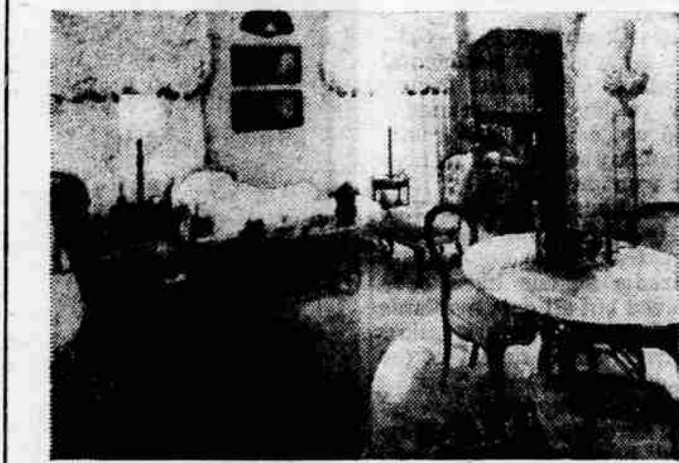

The next meeting of the Blue Star Mothers will be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence O. Lack, 246 Beatty street, October 15, at 1 p.m.

Visitors Here

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Forbes and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lieb, El Monte, Calif., were guests earlier this week of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gottfried, 620 Franquette street. The Liebs are cousins of Mr. Gottfried. While here, the Gottfrieds took their guests to view the antiques, rock collections and flowers at Daley's Flower garden, 343 North Grape street.

THE BOY, THE ROOM—Taking her cue from this lad's sturdy blue jeans, decorator Mary T. Luscher has created a room where a boy can feel at home. The sofa beds are covered in blue denim and trimmed in white. And his name is white on each bedspread brands the room his very own.

THE TWAIN MEET—The Victorian and Louis XV periods meet happily in this one-room apartment by Geraldine Nicolson, NSID. Shows here are the living and dining areas in shades of white, shocking pink and green. The Victorian chairs in pink striped cotton contrast brilliantly with the dining chairs and Louis XV chaise in white cotton.

Bridge Players To Enter Match

A group of Medford duplicate bridge players plan to go to Grants Pass Sunday to play in an individual tournament sponsored by Grants Pass Duplicate Bridge club.

Medford Duplicate club held the weekly session Tuesday night at Girls Community club. Winners for the north-south position were Fred W. Stevens and J. C. Harris, first, 148; Roy Pruitt and George Rode, second, 134 1/2; Mrs. Sam Richardson and Mrs. Paul Hatton, third, 122 1/2; Mrs. Frank R. Baker and Robert Dickey, fourth, 119 points.

Lodge Luncheon To Honor Winner

Jacksonville - Biss Jane Yapple will speak at a luncheon to be served at noon Saturday, September 27, in Jacksonville IOOF hall. Miss Yapple won fourth place in the 1938 United Nations Pilgrimage sponsored by the Odd Fellows lodge in the United States and Canada. Jacksonville Parent-Teacher association will assist the lodge with the event. All Jacksonville residents are welcome to attend.

Dance Scheduled By Promenaders

The Star Promenaders Square Dance club will hold a dance at Kershaw Square on Cory road starting at 8:30 p.m. Saturday. Theme for the dance will be Hawaiian, and Hawaiian dances will be demonstrated during the evening. Kenneth Hood, Medford, will call, and all square dancers have been invited. Potluck refreshments will be served.

Grange Sponsors Series of Dances

Applegate - The Applegate Grange will sponsor a square dance Saturday, September 27, at 8:30 p.m. This is the second of a series of square dances planned to continue throughout the winter providing enough interest is shown. Anyone interested is invited. A class of instruction will be planned for those who do not know how to dance. Admission will be charged, and women attending are asked to take cake, sandwiches or cookies.

Dinner Party Honors Two Club Members

Mrs. Homer Bringle and Mrs. John Russell were hostesses for a dinner recently which honored Mrs. Harry Bryant and Mrs. Don Robins. The party was given at the Bringle home on South Orange street. Guests were members of the Jolly Stitches' club, and Mrs. Donald Anderson was a guest.

Cards followed dinner, and gifts were presented to the honored guests. Mrs. Ralph Atwood will be hostess for a meeting of the club October 3 at her home, 126 Cottage street.

Campers' Kit Compact, Light

United Press International - Outdoor cooks can pack up a new campers' kit. Compact, light, and easy to clean, the kit includes a pail with cover, fry pan, dish, and heat-resistant plastic cup.

The largest set is an 18-piece service for six, consisting of three kettles, two fry pans, six plates, a coffee pot and six heat-resistant plastic cups. Similar sets are available will 12 and 14 pieces, designed to serve four persons. The kits are made of aluminum and are nested for easy carrying or storage.

New for the green-thumb set: Protective wrapping for rose bushes developed by the Agriculture Department in co-operation with the University of California. The wrap is a lightweight paper coated with polyethylene. It keeps rose plants moist without rotting.

For home cooks in a hurry, old-fashioned oatmeal bread now comes in an easy-mix package. Add 1 egg and 2/3 cup milk to the mix in its own plastic bag, squeeze with fingers to mix, pour into the aluminum foil pan enclosed, and bake.

Committee Chairmen Announced for Unit

Committee chairmen were named and project leaders appointed at the first meeting of the fall of Rogue-Elk Extension unit. It was held at the home of Mrs. Ronald Axtell, Laurelhurst road.

Mrs. Axtell and Mrs. Albert Esten served luncheon to members and a guest, Mrs. Nancy Felker of Pacoima, Calif.

Festive Dessert
Here's a festive dessert you can prepare in a jiffy. Dip drained canned cling peach halves in fresh lemon juice, roll in graham cracker crumbs, and arrange them—cut side up—in a dessert dish. Top with a scoop of vanilla ice cream.

Fruited Slaw
For children who don't like salads, try serving a fruited coles law. Combine shredded cabbage with drained canned fruit cocktail and enough mayonnaise to moisten. For extra flavor and nutrition, add a handful of raisins.
