

Drummond - van Berkhoust Wedding Held in Gresham

News of the wedding of Miss Margaret Teding van Berkhoust to David Malcolm Drummond is of interest here. The wedding took place Saturday, September 13, in St. Luke's Episcopal church, Gresham, Ore., with about 150 guests attending.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Teding van Berkhoust, Corbett, Ore., and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. C. I. Drummond, 2909 East Fairview place, this city.

Church Ceremony Weds Pair

Eagle Point — The New Age church, Eagle Point, was the setting September 21 for the two o'clock afternoon wedding of Mrs. Nellie Aldine Culp, Fairfax, Calif., and Claus Clay Charley, Little Butte Star route, box 160, Eagle Point.

The Rev. D. E. Millard officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 45 relatives and friends.

The bride wore a Chantilly lace frock of cream and brown shades over satin with beige accessories and a corsage of baby talisman roses. She was given in marriage by Leland Charley, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. William Jennings, niece of the bridegroom, served as matron of honor, and Hurst Charley, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man. Mrs. Jennings wore a forest green dress with black accessories with a corsage of baby talisman roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard sang. The couple traveled along the Oregon coast and to points in Washington state on their wedding trip. They will reside on the bridegroom's ranch near Eagle Point on their return.

The bride lived in Oregon prior to moving to the Bay area where she was an artist and held several clerical positions. Mr. Charley has lived his entire life in Jackson county near Eagle Point.

Noted Collector Is Visitor Here

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bryant Hobart, Cambridge, Mass., have been visiting this past fortnight in Medford with their son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Eric Wentworth, 217 Windsor ave. Mr. Hobart, a noted collector of Chinese paintings and porcelains, flew with his wife and daughter to San Francisco Wednesday to visit shops and museums there. The Hobarts plan stops at Kansas City, Chicago and Cleveland on their way home to see collections in those cities.

The Rev. Rene Bozarth read the wedding ceremony at seven o'clock in the evening, and Mr. van Berkhoust gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with long sleeves and close-fitting bodice and skirt. Her veil was of hand-made Venetian lace and she carried white roses.

Miss Linda Lee Hall, Portland, and Miss Francis Forney, Eugene, attended the bride. They wore frocks of champagne colored linen and carried orange and yellow gladiolus.

Albert Boardman, Medford, was best man for Mr. Drummond and ushers were Leroy Walland and David Bosworth, Medford.

Robert McDonald was soloist.

The reception which followed was in the church and Mrs. George Grigich, Santa Barbara, Calif., sister of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a blue lace gown with corsage of talisman roses and Mrs. Drummond wore a navy blue crepe dress with talisman rosebud corsage. For traveling the bride wore a brown sheath frock and yellow rosebud corsage.

Mr. Drummond and his bride are making their home in Eugene where both are students at the University of Oregon. The bridegroom is a graduate of Medford High school and was a member of the football team.

Among the wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Walland, Medford.
