Miss Jean Malot Married To Robert Charles Colson

Miss Jean Malot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Malot, 3009 Table Rock road, became the bride of Robert Charles Colson, 716 West Main street, in a double ring ceremony held September 19 at First Methodist church in Medford. Mr. Colson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Charles Colson, Klamath Falls.

Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the eight o'clock evening ceremony attended by 75 relatives and friends. The date was the 22nd wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

Pale orchid and white gladiolus decorated the church for the event and ribbon marked the pew ends. Miss Kay Johnson was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length white slipper satin gown fashioned with short train and Chantilly lace jacket. Her fingertip length veil was held by a pill box hat of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis encircling a white orchid. Her only jewelry, a double strand of pearls, was a graduation gift from her aunt.

Miss Norma Kay Johnson, was honor attendant while Miss Lynn Malot and Miss Sandra Malot, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. Miss Johnson wore a ballerina length frock of blue brocade with a headpiece of white flowers and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Miss Lynn wore a beige frock and carried white carnations while Miss Sandra was in pink and carried white carnations with pink rosebuds.

Tom Malot, brother of the bride, served as best man while Richard Purdy and Carl Dusenberry seated the guests. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Malot wore a pink and silver brocade satin frock with white and pink accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. Mrs. Colson chose a two piece rose linen dress with black accessories and her corsage was of white rosebuds.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Peggy Hagen cut and served the tiered wedding cake which she had made and decorated. Mrs. Loy Andrews Klamath Falls, aunt of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Harvey Nickols poured the coffee. Mrs. Richard Purdy was in

Ashland Church Setting For Monroe-McNeil Rites

Phoenix — An event of September 20 was the wedding of Miss Alma Carol McNeil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McNeil, Phoenix, to Wesley Gregg Monroe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Monroe, Ashland. About 240 guests attended the ceremony, held in First Methodist church, Ashland. The Rev. Herschel Hall officiated for the rites, read at eight o'clock in the evening.

Mr. McNeil gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of white chiffon with fitted shirred bodice, sweetheart neckline with panels floating from the back and gathered floor-length skirt. Her fingertip length veil was held by a headdress of seed pearls and she carried white sweetheart roses on a white ribbon. Her pearl necklace was the bridegroom's gift and she carried a handkerchief which her great-grandmother had carried on her wedding day.

Miss JoAnn McNeil, the bride's sister was maid-of-honor. She wore a frock of beige nylon over brown taffeta with matching headpiece of ribbon and net and carried apricot colored gladiolus.

Bridesmaids were Miss Marlene Powell, Ashland, and Miss Frances Newman, Tillamook, Ore. Miss Powell wore a frock of yellow nylon and taffeta and Miss Newman's gown was salmon colored nylon and taffeta. Their headpieces of ribbon and net matched their frocks and they carried apricot colored gladiolus.

Robert Messenger, Talent, was best man and ushers were Dale Monroe and Victor York, Ashland.

Miss Marilyn Howell, Tillamook, and Miss Linda Weber, Ashland, cousin of the bridegroom, lighted the candles. Miss Howell wore a yellow frock and Miss Weber's gown was aquamarine color.

Mrs. Wallace Sousa, Medford, was organist and Jerry Holloway, Rogue River, sang. Setting for the wedding party was an archway covered with ivy and gold colored gladiolus and white candelabra held yellow candles.

The reception, attended by 125 guests, was held in Wesley house, decorated with flowers in autumn colors and autumn leaves. The bride's table was decorated with low bouquets of asters.

Mrs. Barbara March cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Lloyd Ellison poured coffee and Mrs. Mona Brock the punch. All three women are aunts of the bride.

The bride's traveling attire was a light pink wool suit worn with the corsage from her bridal bouquet. Mr. Monroe and his bride are living at 916 Iowa street, Ashland, and he is attending Southern Oregon college for his freshman year. He is a graduate of Ashland High school and Mrs. Monroe, a graduate of Day's Creek High school, attended SOC last year.

Among the wedding guests were Mrs. Dessie Ellison, Goshen, Ore., grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. James Kunkle and family, Goshen, Mr. and Mrs. Arlene Tucker, Veneta, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ellison, Roseburg, all uncles and aunts of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hale, Eagle Point, great uncle and aunt of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Monroe, Medford, grandparents of the bridegroom.

Others from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. William Howell and son, Davis, the Rev. and Mrs. Homer Wolfington, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Newman and Doris, Robin Klap, E. J. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Giles, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Earlyback and Edward Lowery, all Tillamook; Mrs. Rosie Young, Milo, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Holloway, Rogue River and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harrison, Glendale.

Colorado Resident Is Lady Locksmith

Colorado Springs, Colo. — (UPI) — The banker who lost the combination to the safe and the mother whose tot locked himself in the bathroom have turned time and again in Colorado Springs to Helen L. Jacobson, lady locksmith.

Miss Jacobson went to work 35 years ago for a local lock company, as a clerk and receptionist.

"But," she recalls, "I got tinkering with locks wondering how they worked. Before I knew it I was learning the trade."

She learned it so well that six years ago, with Katherine Huyser as a partner, she bought the business.

Sorority Holds Model Meeting; Party Scheduled

Alpha Lambda chapter, Epison Sigma Alpha International sorority, held a model meeting September 22 at the home of Mrs. Howard Phillips, 228 Sunrise avenue. Mrs. Robert Hays and Mrs. Theodore Zahnow were cohostesses.

A panel discussion on ESA was held for the rushees present. Mrs. Thomas Makris gave a short history of the sorority. She stated that the first chapter was formed in 1929, making ESA the oldest non-academic sorority. It is an educational, philanthropic and social group.

The nationwide project is aid to handicapped. In Oregon this means giving financial assistance to Children's Hospital school in Eugene, sending handicapped youngsters to Camp Easter Seal, and all phases of Easter seal work.

Mrs. C. C. Peterson, district council president, stated there are nearly 1500 ESA chapters now; 90 being organized this past year. Chapters are located in all except 9 of the 48 states, as well as in Alaska, Denmark, Germany, Hawaii and Holland. Several of the Oregon chapters are 12 years old and Oregon has the honor of being hostess for the international convention for the second year next year. Oregon has also had the outstanding ESA girl both years the contest has been held. Many other awards have been received by the Oregon chapters each year.

Mrs. Lyman Smith state parliamentarian, told about the district and state council meetings and the state convention. She is cochairman of the 1959 state convention here in Medford. Mrs. Smith and several other members are attending the state council meeting in The Dalles this weekend.

A question and answer period followed the panel so guests could further acquaint themselves with the sorority. Guests present were Mrs. Al Allen, Mrs. Robert Blass, Mrs. L. A. Carpenter, Mrs. Wylie Macpherson, Mrs. Gerald McGraw, and Mrs. Donald Mullin.

A preferential party will be held September 29, at 8 p. m. at which time the pledge ceremony will be held. It will be at the home of Mrs. Russell Roseborough, 357 Lindero avenue.
