This quiz prepared by a wife and mother may throw new light on your marriage.

Are You a Hit as a HUSBAND?

by Margaret M. Andrus

Margaret M. Andrus was educated at Radcliffe College, Cornell University, and three French schools, and has taught at Chicago Junior College, Tulane University, and Pensacola (Fla.) Junior College. She writes and paints, but prefers her role of homemaker for her husband and three children.

THIS QUIZ was not constructed by an expert sociologist. There is no score to rate you as good or poor. These are simple questions asked by a woman who has been married to the same man for nearly 25 years, but they are pertinent to every happy marriage.

1. Do you take time to give your wife a real kiss instead of a hasty peck when you leave in the morning?
  2. Do you let your children see that you love their mother?
  3. Do you cheerfully wash the car and mow the lawn, remembering that wives do not have eight-hour days either?
  4. Do you go to the grocery with your wife sometimes to see what she faces in planning meals and buying food?
  5. Do you compliment her cooking when you can and keep quiet when you can't?
  6. Do you make other plans for the children and take your wife out to dinner alone sometimes?
  7. Are there occasions when you take your children some place and give your wife the privilege of not going?
  8. Do you surprise her with unexpected little gifts instead of concentrating on Christmas and her birthday?
  9. Do you encourage her to have at least one outside activity in addition to church and the PTA?
  10. Do you try to make pleasant conversation during meals and at other times?
  11. When you have guests, are you a gracious host and a helpful husband?
  12. Have you planned your children's education and are you working constructively toward that end?
  13. Have you taken steps to protect your wife's security and property in case something happens to you?
  14. Do you remind her now and then that, of all the women you knew, you chose her to share your life?
- If you can answer "yes" to these questions, your wife probably wouldn't change you for any man in the world!
