

PITCHING CONTEST FORECAST FOR WORLD SERIES

Best Southpaw Set For World Series Renewal Wednesday

Milwaukee —UPI—The two best lefthanded pitchers in baseball were matched for a World Series renewal Wednesday with the "country hick" Milwaukee Braves out to prove their victory over the "city slicker" New York Yankees last year was no one-shot wonder.

There was plenty of joy in "Bushville" when the word came from manager Fred Haney of the Braves that he would lead off with his 22-game winner, Warren Spahn, the only southpaw who has won 20 games nine seasons. He'll face the "coconut" of the Yankees, Whitey Ford, when the two major league pennant winners square up at 1 p.m. (CST) Wednesday in this baseball-mad metropolis.

That's the way it was last year, too, and although Ford won, 3-1, the Braves came back to win the series in seven games.

Laugh At Odds
This time the Braves and their fans, who don't regard the Yankees as highly as they did last year figure "Spahn" will do the trick. If he doesn't, there's always Lee Burdette, who beat the Yankees three times in 1957 and who was chosen by Haney to start the second game on Thursday.

There was ample evidence the "country boys" no longer feared the proud and mighty Yankees. The Braves and their followers laughed at the odds which made the New Yorkers 13-10 favorites to win the series.

But they weren't laughing at that "Bushville" label any more. They were sneering at it.

"We're on top now. Let them knock us down, if they can," was the way shortstop Johnny Logan summed up the sentiment.

Willie Mays Closes Sizzling Season

Cincinnati, Ohio—UPI—Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants opened and closed the 1958 season at about the same sizzling pace, and even though he didn't win the National league batting title he may wind up with the circuit's most valuable player award.

Willie banged away at a .402 clip during May and wound up in a tie with Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals for the first N. L. player-of-the-month award. After a summer-long slump, Mays rapped away at an even hotter .445 pace in September to win the season's last monthly award.

The closing burst gave the versatile Giants' center fielder a season batting mark of .347, but he lost out in the batting race to Philadelphia Phillies center fielder Richie Ashburn, who finished with a .350 average. However, Mays out-hit Ashburn by 59 points in September, collecting 43 hits in 99 at bats.

As a result he won the September award by a wide margin in the poll of 37 sports writers and broadcasters who cover the National league clubs regularly. Mays received 19 votes, while Bob Friend of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who won five games during the month without a loss, got six and Ashburn tied with Jerry Lynch of the Cincinnati Redlegs and Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs with three each.

Another winner, Iowa's Forest Evashevski, after a 17-0 triumph over Texas Christian, had many more problems than the score.

"Our tackling was sharp, but our blocking left a lot to be desired. Our kicking was terrible, I didn't like our punting, and I'm not too happy about failing on a place kick for an extra point."

"Nothing's wrong when you win," Purdue's Jack Mollenkopf gasped after the victory over Nebraska. But on sober thought he said "When we meet a team which can stop our ground game, we're in trouble. We completed one of seven pass attempts, so it's a good thing we stayed on the ground."

GIANTS' LINEMAN HURT
New York—UPI—Roosevelt Brown, powerful New York Giants' lineman, may miss next Sunday's game against the Philadelphia Eagles because of a leg injury suffered in Sunday's opening contest with the Chicago Cardinals.

RECALL PITCHER
Cincinnati, Ohio—UPI—Claude Osteen, a 19-year-old lefthanded pitcher, has been recalled from Seattle by the Cincinnati Redlegs. Veteran infielder-outfielder Dee Fondy was sent to Seattle.

WORK ON DEFENSE AGAINST PASSING
Berkeley, Calif.—UPI—The University of California Bears today began working on defensive formations aimed at stopping Washington States flashy passing attack when the team meet at Berkeley Saturday.

COACH PETE ELLIOTT MOVED
Sopromore fullback Walt Arnold to the first string for his showing against Michigan State. Arnold suffered a sprained ankle, but should be ready to go against the Cougars.

LIGHT DRILLS SET FOR USG GRIDDERS
Los Angeles—UPI—Prospects at the University of Southern California today were that Coach Don Clark would hold heavy contact work to a minimum to avoid injuries.

THE TROJANS, PAPER-THIN
In some spots, had a growing list of injured which included first-string quarterback Willie Wood, now definitely out of USC's game with North Carolina Friday night in the Coliseum.

BRVES RETAIN HONOR
The Milwaukee Braves retained their "attendance championship" with a season total of 1,971,101—a drop of 244,303. The Cubs and Pirates were the other National league teams to show a rise. The Cubs went up 309,275 to 979,904 and the Pirates went up 461,256 to 1,311,988.

PERCENTAGEWISE, THE NATIONAL LEAGUE INCREASE WAS A WHOPPING 26.6 PER CENT.
American league attendance meanwhile, dropped 10.9 per cent from 8,196,218 in 1957 to 7,296,065 — a loss of 900,153. The total was the American league's lowest since 1945 when it drew 5,580,000.

THE KANSAS CITY ATHLETICS UP 24,023, AND THE WASHINGTON SENATORS UP 18,190, WERE THE ONLY AMERICAN LEAGUE CLUBS TO SHOW INCREASES.
The New York Yankees, with the biggest population city in the world to itself for the first time in history, fell 68,708 admissions to 1,428,428. The Chicago White Sox experienced the biggest drop — 338,177 from 1,135,668 in 1957 to 797,491 this year.

Facts And Figures Set On Series

Milwaukee, Wis.—UPI—Facts and figures on the 1958 World Series:

Opponents—Milwaukee Braves, National league champions, vs. New York Yankees, American league champions.

Winner—First team to win four games.

Games dates and sites—1st and 2nd games County Stadium, Milwaukee, Oct. 1, 2; 3rd, 4th, and 5th (if necessary) Yankee Stadium, New York, Oct. 4, 5, 6; 6th and 7th (if necessary) at County Stadium, Oct. 8, 9.

Starting times—Milwaukee games start 3 p.m. (e.d.t.); New York games start 1 p.m. (e.d.t.), except Oct. 5 game which starts 2 p.m. (e.d.t.).

Last year's winner—Milwaukee, 4 games to 3.

Series favorites—Yankees, 13-10.

First game odds—Even money.

First game pitchers—Braves: Warren Spahn (22-11); Yankees: Whitey Ford (14-7).

Rival managers—Braves: Fred Haney; Yankees: Casey Stengel.

Weather forecast—Fair, temperatures in low 60's.

Estimated winning player's share—$9,500.

Estimated losing player's share—$5,800.

Radio and television—Via NBC television announcers: Mel Allen, Curt Gowdy; radio announcers: Earl Gillespie, Bob Wolff.

Umpires—Al Barlick, Tom Gorman, and Bill Jackowski, National league; Charley Berry, John Flaherty, and Frank Umont, American league.

He predicted it will be "a tough Series," possibly going seven games. If the Series goes the limit, he said, he thinks Ford will get a chance to pitch three games.

Both Clubs Said Well-Balanced And Confident

Red Schoendienst, a star second baseman in the National league for 14 years, will play in his third World Series this week when the Milwaukee Braves meet the New York Yankees. Schoendienst played against the Yankees in 1946 for the St. Louis Cardinals, and this year he and the Braves take on the Yankees for the second straight year. In the following dispatch he presents his views on the 1958 classic.

I can't say that we are stronger in hitting, or they have the edge in reserves. Our club is well balanced, and they are too. I just feel our club is good enough to win again.

As for the Yankees being out to avenge their loss of last year, all I can say is they have a good ballclub and we know it. They also know how good we are. I know it will be a good Series because both clubs think they can win.

I don't think we played as good ball this year as we did last year. Last year the injuries didn't hurt us so much and we played better, at least in spurts.

PLAYERS HURT
This year the fellows were always getting hurt just as they began to help us. Wes Covington got hurt in the spring before the season even started. Mel Roach got hurt just when he was filling in so well for us. Last year and he was able to stay in there and get hot for us.

Those two good young pitchers, Carl Willey and Juan Pizarro, helped us a lot, but another one, Joey Jay, was hurt just when he got going good.

Right now we're in pretty good shape. Mickey Mantle and Bill Skowron will help the Yankees, too, this year. But I don't believe their absence last year was what caused us to win the Series. We just won it, that's all.

The fellows on this club know what they have to do and what they can do. We can't be worried about who the Yankees are going to use. We've got to worry about ourselves only.

I don't think it will make any difference in this Series if one club takes the first two games or any other kind of edge.

It's the best four out of seven, whether it's the first four or the last four.

Ford Said Key Player

New York—UPI—Jackie Robinson said today pitcher Whitey Ford is "the key" to the outcome of the World Series.

"It all depends on Ford, whom I consider the best pitcher in baseball," Robinson declared.

"If Ford is right, the Yankees have a fine chance to win the Series. If he is not right, I give it to Milwaukee."

The former National league and World Series veteran admitted he is "pulling for the Braves."

He predicted it will be "a tough Series," possibly going seven games. If the Series goes the limit, he said, he thinks Ford will get a chance to pitch three games.

Both Clubs Said Well-Balanced And Confident

Red Schoendienst, a star second baseman in the National league for 14 years, will play in his third World Series this week when the Milwaukee Braves meet the New York Yankees. Schoendienst played against the Yankees in 1946 for the St. Louis Cardinals, and this year he and the Braves take on the Yankees for the second straight year. In the following dispatch he presents his views on the 1958 classic.

I can't say that we are stronger in hitting, or they have the edge in reserves. Our club is well balanced, and they are too. I just feel our club is good enough to win again.

As for the Yankees being out to avenge their loss of last year, all I can say is they have a good ballclub and we know it. They also know how good we are. I know it will be a good Series because both clubs think they can win.

I don't think we played as good ball this year as we did last year. Last year the injuries didn't hurt us so much and we played better, at least in spurts.

PLAYERS HURT
This year the fellows were always getting hurt just as they began to help us. Wes Covington got hurt in the spring before the season even started. Mel Roach got hurt just when he was filling in so well for us. Last year and he was able to stay in there and get hot for us.

Those two good young pitchers, Carl Willey and Juan Pizarro, helped us a lot, but another one, Joey Jay, was hurt just when he got going good.

Right now we're in pretty good shape. Mickey Mantle and Bill Skowron will help the Yankees, too, this year. But I don't believe their absence last year was what caused us to win the Series. We just won it, that's all.

The fellows on this club know what they have to do and what they can do. We can't be worried about who the Yankees are going to use. We've got to worry about ourselves only.

I don't think it will make any difference in this Series if one club takes the first two games or any other kind of edge.

It's the best four out of seven, whether it's the first four or the last four.

Coaches Cry Over Big 10 Grid Games

Chicago—UPI—Even the eight victors in the Big Ten inter-sectional football games on opening day had nothing but tears for the coaches' "wailing wall" today.

The only bright spot was Northwestern's Ara Parseghian. "Our linemen came through in a way that even surprised themselves," he said. "We were starved for a win and the one we got I feel will prove a real shot in the arm."

Northwestern won by 20-0, and 27-0. Dean Lamp scored on a 30-yard run, Jim Eldred on a 30-yard run and a 45-yard pass interception return, Rick Burns on a two yard plunge and Don Gillaspay on a 80-yard pass interception run.

Two touchdown runs were called back for the Comets both on pass interceptions. One was a 45-yard return by Jim Eldred and another by Jim Eldred and another by a 50-yard return by Gillaspay.

Another winner, Iowa's Forest Evashevski, after a 17-0 triumph over Texas Christian, had many more problems than the score.

"Our tackling was sharp, but our blocking left a lot to be desired. Our kicking was terrible, I didn't like our punting, and I'm not too happy about failing on a place kick for an extra point."

"Nothing's wrong when you win," Purdue's Jack Mollenkopf gasped after the victory over Nebraska. But on sober thought he said "When we meet a team which can stop our ground game, we're in trouble. We completed one of seven pass attempts, so it's a good thing we stayed on the ground."

Sooner Offense Up Against Oregon

Oklahoma City—UPI—Oklahoma's use of a "new look" offense, which helped elevate the three-time national champions into the No. 1 spot they know so well, won't click against Oregon's rugged defense next Saturday, Coach Bud Wilkinson predicted today.

The Sooners gave their coach his 100th regular season victory by trouncing West Virginia 47-14, with a multi-offense that spawned a variety of descriptions. But Wilkinson told the Oklahoma City Quarterback club Oklahoma won't be able to count on the surprise factor when it meets Oregon at Norman Saturday.

Wilkinson rated Oregon's defense as one to be feared and said he doesn't expect his team to get inside its 30-yard line, "scoring territory" in his book, often. He cited Oregon's feat of holding Idaho to 54 yards in its opening game two weeks ago.

"We won't play anybody any better," he said.

Although Oklahoma took over the top position in the United Press International major college football ratings and Oregon was tied for 19th Wilkinson was not impressed. He takes little stock in polls or ratings.

"I don't know if we're good enough to beat them or not," he said. "We're going to try awfully hard."

Pastrano Favored

London—UPI—Heavyweight contender Willie Pastrano of Miami Beach is favored at 3-2 to win again tonight over British Empire champion Brian London, who gave Pastrano an uncomfortably close fight in February.

Their 10-round bout at Haringay Arena is expected to draw a sellout crowd of 10,000 because of the unpopularity of the referee's decision in February and because of London's apparent improvement since then.

New York—UPI—Jim Cunningham of Fordham and Connie Dierking of Cincinnati have agreed to play for the College All-Stars against the New York Knickerbockers Oct. 18.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Washington was tied with Baylor and College of Pacific for 21st place. No other West Coast teams got votes.

Oregon and USC Top Coast Teams

New York—UPI—Oregon and Southern California were the top-ranked West Coast football teams in this week's United Press International coaches' poll. The two Pacific Coast Conference schools were tied with Wake Forest for 19th place.

Oregon, which meets top-ranked Oklahoma at Norman Saturday got one first place vote.

Oregon, which meets top-ranked Oklahoma at Norman Saturday got one first place vote.

Oregon, which meets top-ranked Oklahoma at Norman Saturday got one first place vote.

Oregon, which meets top-ranked Oklahoma at Norman Saturday got one first place vote.

Oregon, which meets top-ranked Oklahoma at Norman Saturday got one first place vote.

Oregon, which meets top-ranked Oklahoma at Norman Saturday got one first place vote.

Oregon, which meets top-ranked Oklahoma at Norman Saturday got one first place vote.

Oregon, which meets top-ranked Oklahoma at Norman Saturday got one first place vote.

Oregon, which meets top-ranked Oklahoma at Norman Saturday got one first place vote.

Oregon, which meets top-ranked Oklahoma at Norman Saturday got one first place vote.

Oregon, which meets top-ranked Oklahoma at Norman Saturday got one first place vote.

Oregon, which meets top-ranked Oklahoma at Norman Saturday got one first place vote.

Oregon, which meets top-ranked Oklahoma at Norman Saturday got one first place vote.

Oregon, which meets top-ranked Oklahoma at Norman Saturday got one first place vote.

Buy Builders Supply

QUALITY BLOCKS
Bricks, Flues, Drain Tile
727
W. McAndrew
Ph. 57-24107

BIRD HUNTERS ATTENTION!

A few memberships are still available in Frankie Brah's
SHASTA HUNT CLUB

This is a fabulous private duck and goose hunting club situated on 1,500 acres of grain, ponds and ground located at Grenada, California, just 60 miles south of Medford. The club lakes do not freeze. Members furnished keys to locked and fenced club grounds — if you love to shoot birds call Yreka, California Victor 2-3501 days or Victor 2-2000 evenings for more details.

Strictly limited membership... Reasonable fee... ACT QUICKLY! Call for full details.

WARDS
MONTGOMERY WARD
117 S. CENTRAL
PHONE 5P 3-7301
Open 9:30 to 5:30
Mondays 'til 9
FREE PARKING IN REAR OF STORE

IT'S TOUGH for a woman to have a battery fail at night!

why gamble? have a new RIVERSIDE battery installed today... before your old one konks out—you'll feel more secure

RIVERSIDE WITH POWER-GARD PROTECTION HAS MORE START POWER... FOR LESS MONEY

2 year guarantee, 6-volt
similar quality national brands sell for 19.95 12.45

2 year guarantee, 12-volt
similar quality national brands sell for 24.95 15.95

Power-Gard is a protective material that prevents the deterioration of battery plates, the power producer of all batteries. This feature, along with more plate area, means you get more starting power... 3 times more resistance to overcharge, no. 1 battery killer... and, lasting dependable power

Other batteries and types also low priced
*Installed, with your old battery in trade

No money down—use your Time Payment Account

2x4-8'

SPECIAL PRICE
$10.00 PER M
Bargain Grade
at
CHENEY STUD MILL
Central Point