

Yankees Given 13-10 Odds Over Milwaukee in Series

The Braves or the Yankees baseball question was opened in the 1958 World Series. The Yankees are favored to win the series by 13-10 odds. The Milwaukee Braves are the underdogs.

PASS PLAY FAILS—This third quarter pass from San Francisco Fortyniner quarterback John Brodie didn't connect, as Clyde Connor (88) clutches empty air, after going up for the ball. Pittsburgh Steeler defender Jack Butler (80) drives in for the tackle. The Fortyniners won the game at Kezar Stadium in San Francisco, Calif., 23-20, in their first league game of the season.

Oregon Deer Population Equal To Or Greater Than Last Year on Big Ranges

Portland—Oct. 4 marks the "red letter" day for more than 250,000 Oregon nimrods as they take to forest and desert lands for the opening of the 1958 general deer season. From all indications, hunters should enjoy another banner year as census figures show the deer population equal to or greater than last year throughout most of the big game ranges.

Oregon hunters will be able to hunt buck deer in any portion of the state throughout the general season which runs through October 26. Buck deer with visible antlers will be legal in that portion of the state east of the Cascade divide and bucks with at least forked antlers in that portion of the state west of the Cascade summit.

Hunters possessing an ungulate deer tag and having a deer management unit permit in their possession may take one deer of either sex within the unit for which the permit was issued from Oct. 18 through Oct. 26. Both the deer tag and the unit permit must be attached to any antlerless deer taken.

Field agents of the game commission report that deer numbers are high on nearly all eastern Oregon ranges but their distribution is much wider than normal since water and food on the summer range are abundant. Recent rains make stalking somewhat easier than that experienced last year, but if hot weather prevails, hunters may find some difficulty in flushing wary deer from dense cover.

Again as in past years, hunters will probably enjoy the highest success in north-east Oregon, especially in Baker and Wallowa counties. That doesn't mean that hunting pressures will be high. Far from it. Hunting pressures in this area have always been about average for the state. But success per hunter has always been notably higher than in other deer areas.

Other Hot Spots Other hot spots in far eastern Oregon will include the John Day drainage, the breaks of the Owyhee, the high sage lands in Malheur and Harney counties, and the Pueblo, Trout Creek and Whitehorse mountains in the far southeast. The Steens will also produce its share of fine fat bucks.

If past years are any indi-games away. They met today in the first of the games which will tell the story and the managers of the two clubs led with their lefthanded pitching best.

For the Braves it was Warren Spahn and for the Yanks it was Whitey Ford. They are about as good as they come. Pick 'Em Game And because these two southpaw aces were going against each other in the opening game of the World Series for the second time in a row, the professional odds makers made it a "pick 'em game." But over the long haul in this best-of-seven Series, the "city slickers" from the big town were 13-10 over the "country hicks" from Milwaukee who took them in seven games last year.

Both managers expressed confidence—Haney promising 50,000 parading fans in a Milwaukee civic welcome to the Braves Tuesday night that "we're going to give you another world's championship." But Stengel was just as sure the Yankees—who never have lost two World Series in a row—were not going to change their habits now.

Stengel had one thing to be hopeful for—healthy Mickey Mantle and Moose Skowron. Those two hitting bulwarks in the Yankee offensive array were not at their best in last year's Series.

Experience Should Help Tony Kubek Milwaukee—(UPI)—An experienced shortstop won't make the same mistakes that a rookie utility man made a year ago, so the New York Yankees' Tony Kubek, a Milwaukee boy, anticipated a World Series "comeback" today.

Kubek was the "goat" of the 1957 series, winning the role on a third inning wild throw of a potential double-play ball which put Milwaukee Braves runners on first and second base with one out. Both scored, the first runs of an eventual 5-0 Milwaukee win in the seventh game of the Series victory.

"More experience would have helped me," Kubek said. "I thought those runners were slower than they were, and I threw too fast. This year I'm not so apt to do that. Homers in Debut

"It helped me to play the same position all season, too, and it's the same one I'm playing today."

Kubek, who last year played left field, center field and third base for the Yankees in the seven game series, made a brilliant debut in his first appearance before his hometown friends in County stadium, hitting two home runs and driving in four runs in a 12-3 Yankee win.

In his second show in Milwaukee he collected two hits in five times at bat. But after apparently winning the hero's role with this performance, he lost the honor in the seventh game.

"I felt pretty low after it was all over last year, I'll tell you," Kubek said. "It was quite a comedown. People were nice about it, but it's hard to wipe it out of your mind."

Outstanding Athletes on UO Roster Eugene—(UPI)—Several outstanding prospects are included among freshman athletes enrolling at the University of Oregon.

Among the football stars are Dick Manilla of Springfield, Jim Sandness of Grant, Rick Lamb of North Marion and Gary Albright of Milwaukee.

Basketball prospects include Charlie Warren of Eugene, Glenn Moore and Dave Robinson of Klamath Falls, Wally Knecht of Springfield, and Bill Wallen of Grant.

The Frosh track prospects include Dyrrol Burlison of Cottage Grove, the national prep mile king, and Jim Puckett, star sprinter from Cove.

Vic Damone, Wife Work on Problems Hollywood—(UPI)—Pier Angeli and Vic Damone have separated but the actress says they are attempting to work out their marital problems to avoid a divorce.

"If people don't push us, we'll work it out as two intelligent people should instead of having 50,000 advisors on both sides," the pretty Italian-born star said Tuesday night.

The actress said she had not seen her singer-husband for several weeks because he had been living on the couple's ranch in Tulare, Calif., at Lake Tahoe, and in Las Vegas. "He'll be away for another six weeks, at least, and that will give us time to think out our problems," she said.

Norman, Newman Share Passing Honors in PCC

Los Angeles—(UPI)—Stanford's sophomore quarterback Dick Norman and Washington State's Bob Newman share the lead in Pacific Coast conference passing statistics.

Los Angeles—(UPI)—The Milwaukee Braves pick themselves to win in five. That was the consensus of Milwaukee players today shortly before they went out to meet the American league champion Yankees in the opening game of the 1958 World Series.

First baseman Frank Torre put it this way: "Most of us think we'll win it in five because we're a much stronger ball club than we had last year."

"You can say that again," piped up shortstop Johnny Logan, dressing in the next locker, "and you can put me down for five games, too."

Torre let Logan have his say and then continued. "I've never played with a club that has so much confidence as this one," he said. "They're real loose and relaxed. We're not cocky or anything like that, but we feel we're the boss this time, not the Yankees."

"Look around this clubhouse. Do you see one guy with a worried look?" There wasn't one. Most of them were bantering lightly, and by their casualness one might get the idea they were going out to meet the Yankees in a spring exhibition game at Bradenton, Fla., rather than in a series for baseball's richest prize of all.

"Why should we be the ones to worry?" asked Lew Burdette. "We proved we could lick 'em last year and now it's up to them to try and catch us. If there's any pressure, it certainly is on them."

Logan offered the thought the Yankees might be pressing a bit in an all-out effort to get out in front fast.

Ex-Mates Compete in NL Race United Press International Mayo Smith and infielder Solly Henus, teammates at Philadelphia this year, will be directing squads from opposite dugouts in the 1959 National league race.

Smith, fired as manager of the Phillies in July, regained his major league membership late Monday when he signed a one-year contract as bossman of the Cincinnati Redlegs.

Henus, who played under Smith during the first half of the 1958 season, accepted the stewardship of the St. Louis Cardinals hours earlier and will launch the 1959 season as the majors' only player-manager.

In another major league development, the Kansas City Athletics re-signed manager Harry Craft for the 1959 season at a "sizeable" increase in salary.

Lost in the shuffle were Jimmy Dykes and Stan Hack. Dykes succeeded Birdie Tebbets as the Redlegs' pilot in early August and hustled them from last to fourth place. Hack replaced Fred Hutchinson as manager of the Cardinals with less than two weeks of the season remaining.

OSC Perfecting Center Passes Corvallis, Ore.—(UPI)—The Oregon State Beavers worked for two hours behind locked gates Tuesday in preparation for Saturday's game with UCLA.

Coach Tommy Prothro said he worked the team in an effort to eliminate the bad passes from center. He pointed out that the three players rotating at center snapped 17 bad passes last week against Kansas.

STAR MAY YIMSS Berkeley, Calif.—(UPI)—First string right guard Charlie Johnson of the University of California may miss the Bears' game against Washington State Saturday because of a leg injury, according to Coach Pete Elliott. The Bears held a short workout under the lights Tuesday night, concentrating on pass defense. They also worked on offensive patterns and held a brisk tackling drill.

FORMER MAYOR DIES Indianapolis—(UPI)—Former Mayor George L. Denny, 80, died Monday.

About half the population of the U.S. brushes its teeth twice a day, according to a recent survey, and 15 per cent three times a day.

The leading edges are so sharp on the wings of a U.S. supersonic jet fighter plane that they must be covered with rubber "gloves" to prevent ground crews from cutting themselves.

Crater Host To GP For League Scrape

Grants Pass—Return of three-year letterman halfback for full time service and the full recovery of all-conference tackle Jerry Putnam should fortify the Grants Pass Cavemen for the Southern Oregon conference football opener against Crater high at Central Point on Friday night.

It will be the first league game of the circuit this season. Other conference members, Medford, Klamath Falls and Ashland continue in non-league contention.

Dean, who sprained an ankle in practice and saw his first action of the season last week end against Roseburg, is a probable starter against the Comets. Putnam was hurt in the first game of the season against Albany, suffering a wrenched back. He played some against North Bend but missed the Roseburg mix.

Speedsters in the backfield are Dean, Marv Terry, Oscar Nealy and Ray Meek while power is supplied by Larry Drake and Jere Patterson.

Dick Hayes, understudy to Jim Smith last year, is top quarterback and the offensive ends bidding strongest are John Fox and Rex Benner, both non-lettermen.

Line stalwarts include Reed Daugherty at center, Wendell Winterbottom and Ollie Woolsey at guards and Roger Hoatson at tackle. Among defensive standouts are Lyle Miller, transfer from Crater, end and back, and Bill Dohm, back and Bill Cole, guard.

Crater hopes of giving Grants Pass a rugged battle and possibly coming up with an upset suffered a jolt on Monday when quarterback Wayne Allen and Gary Johnson and defensive lineman Bryson LaCasse suffered injuries. Allen and LaCasse received banged up knees and Johnson a charley horse. Allen is a key man in a well-rounded Comet offense and is a top man on defense.

Grants Pass beat Albany 19 to 0, lost to North Bend 7 to 0 and tied Roseburg 0 to 0 in tussles to date while Crater trimmed Cottage Grove 19 to 0 and Eagle Point 47 to 13 and fell 27 to 6 to Redmond.

LC Pioneers Tough Foes For Raiders Ashland—One of the biggest hurdles of the year is on tap for the Red Raiders of Southern Oregon college when they meet the Pioneers of Lewis and Clark in Fortland next Saturday afternoon, Oct. 4.

Lewis and Clark has one of the strongest teams in small college competition in the state in addition to one of the biggest lines led by a 259-pound tackle who runs the 50-yard dash in .05.9.

The Raiders, too, can counter with a big front wall to push forward with their offense which strives for the balance between passing and rushing.

Jack Brown may well be at the helm of the Raider attack due to his fine passing and signal calling in the first two games this year. Brown has completed 12 of 18 passes for a total of 312 yards or an average of 26 yards per pass.

Maurer Heads Rushing Larry Maurer leads the rushing with a net gain of 119 yards on 31 carries for a 3.84 average per carry. Laval Meunier has carried only four times while playing most of the games and has totaled 67 yards for a 16.75 per carry mark.

End Jim McAbee leads the pass receptions with six and a total of 119 yards. Meunier is second with 117 yards on three receptions while Eldon Francis has engulfed six aerials for 57 yards.

Maurer also scoring with three touchdowns for 18 points while Lance Locke has one TD and two conversions for eight counters.

Medford's Tony Brauner has been doing the punting and thus far has a 34.95 average on six boots.

Wayne Collum has the only interception to his credit which he converted into a 33-yard touchdown run in the first game against Moffett Air Base.

The raiders will leave for Portland Friday at noon and return Saturday night.

Iowa's Mentor Coach of Week Iowa City, Iowa—(UPI)—He lost not one but three All-America linemen and four other line veterans from last year's team and with them the No. 5 national ranking—but he coached his rookies so well they outplayed the new No. 5 team in their first game.

That's rugged Forest Evashevski of Iowa, named United Press International football "coach of the week" today as a result of Iowa's 17-0 romp over Texas Christian on Saturday.

FIGHTS United Press International Charlotte, N.C.—Bob Baker, 220, Pittsburgh, Pa., knocked out Warren Thomas, 195, Charlotte, N.C. (4). Oakland, Calif.—Johnny Gonzalez, 136, Oakland, defeated Cisco Andrade, 135, Whittier, Calif. (10).

Friday Parade To Keynote Crater Stadium Campaign

Central Point—A student parade here Friday afternoon, Oct. 3, and activities that evening between halves of the Comet-Grants Pass football game will keynote a campaign for funds to complete a stadium at Crater High school.

First project in the drive will be door to door sale of large bottles of Pepsi-Cola for $1 each. This project will begin at 6:30 p.m., Monday, Oct. 6. Central Point Junior Chamber of Commerce and Crater high students will make up the crews which will call at homes throughout School District 6C to sell the soft drink. They plan to cover 300 miles of the district in three hours.

Plans for the campaign were discussed Monday evening by members of the Crater Stadium Promotion Fund committee and the Crater student council. Both the Pepsi-Cola sale and future fund activities were discussed at the meeting.

Grandstand, Lights Crater football teams are playing their games now on the old gridiron at Central Point Junior high. Because of poor lighting, damage to turf from the heavy use by both high school and junior high teams and inadequate seating, the old field is considered inadequate. The newly developed stadium would be used for a variety of activities.

Committeemen said they feel that stadium promotion is a tremendous project. They emphasized that it can be a success only through the response and assistance of residents of the district.

Junior High Tiffs Set Four Medford junior high football elevens have games this week end.

McLoughlin eighth opens its season with a 7 p.m. Thursday game at Ashland. Hedrick eighth starts off as host at 3:30 p.m. Friday to North Grants Pass.

Ninth grade crews have their second tussles. Hedrick will be at South Grants Pass at 2:30 p.m. and McLoughlin will entertain Ashland at 3:30, both on Friday.

HILL FUND TO ROBBINS Eugene, Ore.—(UPI)—The $600 Ralph Hill alumni scholarship has been awarded to Mark Robbins, ace distance runner at the University of Oregon for two seasons.

Two Men Appear in Circuit Court Two men appeared in circuit court Tuesday afternoon before Judge Edward C. Kelley.

Given a one-year suspended sentence was John Albert Parrack, 19, formerly of South Holly st., on a charge of tampering with railroad property. He was placed on probation and required to make restitution of $18.45.

Charlie Owen Cox, 37, of 310 Elm st., Medford, who also appeared in circuit court, had sentencing postponed pending receipt of presentence reports. Cox, who is charged with rape, is being held in Jackson county jail.
