

STEPPING down as premier next month, U Nu announces he will be succeeded by General Ne Win in Burma.

Parents, Child Are Reunited

Lakeview, Ore.—UPI—Mr. and Mrs. Otis Williams of Slick Rock, Colo., were reunited with their two-month-old son Wednesday and the child was admitted to a hospital here shortly after 8 a.m. It was listed in serious condition.

The child, born prematurely was brought here by James Shelton, a bachelor, who also was traveling to Lakeview from Slick Rock. The child was riding in Shelton's car while the Williams and another child were in a second car.

The two motorists became separated at Eureka, Utah, and the Williams continued on to Oregon while bachelor Shelton was left with the care of the infant. He went on to Reno and finally to Lakeview trying to catch up with the parents of the child.

The baby needed a special formula and by the time it arrived here it was in need of hospital care. A doctor at the hospital here immediately placed it in an incubator and said constant care and feeding will probably restore its health. He said the tot showed improvement within an hour after it was admitted.

Chrysler, UAW Reach Agreement

Detroit—UPI—Chrysler Corp. and the United Auto Workers Union have announced they had reached agreement on basic contracts covering production and maintenance workers, cafeteria workers and parts depot employees. An agreement was delayed on salaried engineering and office workers.
