WILLING TO MEET CHOU

—John Foster Dulles, at a news conference in Washington, said he would be willing to meet with Chinese Communist Premier Chou En-lai if there is hope of resolving the Formosa crisis. Meanwhile, at the United Nations, Nationalist China's ambassador is expected, in a speech to the General Assembly, to assure the UN that Nationalist China would not involve the U. S. in a war with Red China.

The Dalles Hotel Guffed by Flames

The Dalles —UPI— The Washington hotel, one of the older buildings in downtown The Dalles, was gutted by fire of unknown origin Wednesday. Three guests escaped uninjured.

The fire, first reported at about 7 a.m., also destroyed the Model Laundry and its contents on the first floor of the two-story brick building. There were no immediate damage estimates.

Owners of both the hotel and the laundry said the loss would be partially covered by insurance.

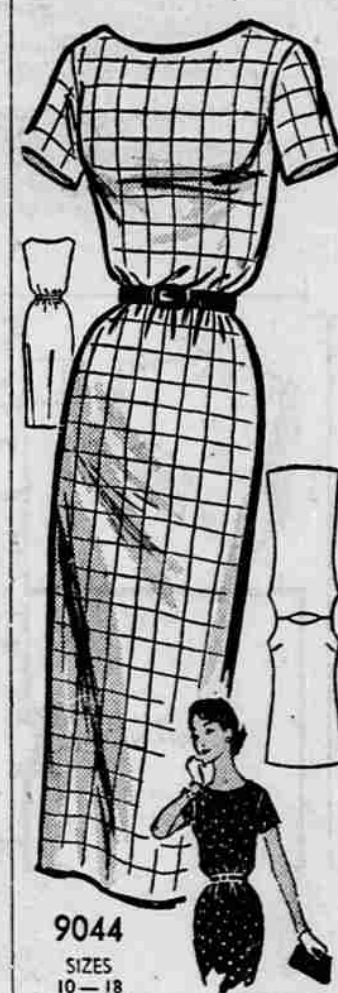

Curry County Closed To Logging

Salem —UPI— Curry county in southwest Oregon was closed to all logging operations at noon Wednesday because of high fire danger.

The State Forestry Department said that the southern part of the state has experienced hot, dry weather in recent days because of heat waves coming into the area from California. It was 99 at Brookings Tuesday.

Washington —UPI— Dana Latham, a Los Angeles attorney, will be appointed next commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service, informed sources said Wednesday.
