Whiteside Enters Innocent Plea To Conspiracy

Washington - (UPI) - Lawyer Thurman A. Whiteside pleaded innocent today to charges he conspired with former Federal Communications Commissioner Richard A. Mack to influence the FCC award of television channel 10 at Miami, Fla.

Mack also was scheduled for arraignment today but won a delay of at least one week after his lawyer, Nicholas J. Chase, told the court that Mack was too ill to appear.

Confined To Hospital
Chase, appearing before U.S. District Judge Burnita S. Matthews, said Mack was confined to a hospital in Miami. He said he had affidavits from two doctors indicating Mack would be unavailable for arraignment for at least 30 days.

Robert J. Rosthal, representing the Justice Department, said the department had no intention of "harrasing a man if he is ill." He suggested that the department be permitted to check on Mack's condition through the U.S. attorney's office at Miami and report back to the court.

The judge continued Mack's case for one week pending such a report.

Hearing Outgrowth
Whiteside entered a not guilty plea to the conspiracy charge, an outgrowth of the explosive hearings on the Miami TV award held earlier this year by the House influence investigating subcommittee.

At Rosthal's suggestion, Judge Matthews fixed Whiteside's bond at $1,000.

Mack and Whiteside were indicted by a federal Grand Jury here Sept. 25 on charges of defrauding the U.S. by conspiring to influence the award to channel 10 to Public Service Television Inc., a subsidiary of National Airlines.
