

Marriage Announced

Of interest here is news of the wedding of Miss Chloe Fairweather to Joseph Erkenbrecher September 24 in Charlottesville, Va. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fairweather, 3013 Dark Hollow road, and the bridegroom is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Moon, Modesto, Calif.

The couple was unattended for the ceremony; the bride's mother was present.

The newlyweds are living in Norfolk, Va., where the bridegroom is serving with the United States Marine corps. He will be released from service in December, and the couple will return to the west coast at that time.

The bride is a graduate of the Katharine Branson school, Ross, Calif., and attended the University of Oregon where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, national social sorority. During her junior year she was enrolled at the University for Foreigners in Perugia, Italy, and the University of Rome.

Mr. Erkenbrecher is a graduate of Menlo Boys' school, Menlo Park, Calif., and the University of Oregon. His fraternity is Phi Kappa Psi.

Mrs. Robert Blaess, Mrs. Leland A. Carpenter, Mrs. David Hendrix and Mrs. Wylie Macpherson received their pledge pins.

The candlelight ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Robert Shangle and Mrs. Thomas Makris. Members also heard a report of the state council meeting held September 27 and 28 in The Dalles. Mrs. Willie Fischer, Mrs. B. H. Gilbert, Mrs. Makris and Mrs. Lyman Smith attended the meeting.

Parties Honor Medford Woman; Leaving Today

Mrs. Mary T. Simonds, long-time Medford resident, has been honored at many parties recently. Mrs. Simonds was to leave this morning for Phoenix, Ariz., where she has purchased a home and will spend the winter months in the future.

Mrs. Simonds' daughter, Mrs. John Stewart of Phoenix, has been in Medford with her mother for the past two weeks and the two are traveling south together.

Mrs. Simonds has sold her home on Richmond avenue, and for the past several days has been a guest in the home of Mrs. Grace Collins on East Main street. Mrs. Collins and Mrs. J. A. Cunningham were hostesses for a tea honoring Mrs. Simonds, the event having been held September 22 at Mrs. Collins' home. Mrs. Collins also gave a dinner for her guests.

Mrs. Leo Josephine Haupt and Mrs. Lora Rowan were hostesses for a breakfast last Sunday morning at Rogue Valley Country club, honoring Mrs. Simonds. Seventeen guests attended.

September 27 Mrs. Lewis Ulrich gave a luncheon at her home on Minnesota avenue for Mrs. Simonds. Another farewell event for Mrs. Simonds was a coffee given by Mrs. Fred Rankin. This was a neighborhood party for friends of Mrs. Simonds living on Richmond avenue.

Friends of Mrs. Stewart also entertained in her honor. Mrs. Charles Barnes, 2895 Hillcrest road, Mrs. Harvey Robertson, Gregory road, and Mrs. Charles Walker, 401 road, were hostesses for luncheons which complimented the visitor.

Portland Woman Guest in Medford

Mrs. A. J. Eckelson, Portland, has been a guest in Medford of her cousin, Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, 839 Minnesota avenue.

Mrs. Eckelson and Mrs. Ulrich were both born and reared in Jacksonville and both are granddaughters of Jayne P. Prim, an early supreme court judge of this state. The two women visited the Jacksonville museum where a number of family heirlooms are exhibited, including the wedding gown of Mrs. Eckelson's mother, who was Effie Bybee before her wedding to Charles Prim. Mrs. Eckelson is the former Bertha Prim.

This was Mrs. Eckelson's first visit to the museum, and she expressed pleasure in and approval of the institution.
