

Orchestra To Rehearse

Ashland-Rehearsals of the Southern Oregon Little Symphony orchestra for the opening concert of its second season will begin Monday, October 6, at 7:30 p.m. The rehearsals will be held in Room 207 in Churchill hall on the Southern Oregon college campus, it was announced by Dr. Herbert Cecil, orchestra conductor-director.

Membership is open to anyone in the area as well as students at SOC as the orchestra is of the college-community type of organization. There will be a strong need for players of string instruments and anyone who plays violin, viola, cello or string bass is especially invited to come to the first rehearsal, Dr. Cecil said.

Handel's "Messiah," the first concert presented by the organization, will be given on Sunday, December 14 with orchestra, chorus and soloists.

All interested persons who play orchestral instruments are invited to come to the first rehearsal Monday.

Charles Wilson and Bride Make Home in Grants Pass

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Wilson are making their home in Grants Pass following their return from a wedding trip to the California and Oregon coast. Mrs. Wilson is the former Sharon Ann Groat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyla Massey, 500 Ray lane, Ashland, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Tucker, 23 North Columbus avenue, Medford. Mr. Wilson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilson, Talent.

The couple were married in a double ring ceremony held Monday, September 15, at First Baptist church, Medford, with the Rev. Leonard Hanson, uncle of the bride, Ashland, officiating.

Orchid colored gladioli and ferns decorated the church for eight o'clock evening event. Mrs. Ted Graham played the traditional organ wedding music and Miss Nancy Wilson, sister of the bridegroom, was soloist.

The bride wore a white silk and net gown fashioned with fitted silk bodice accented with lace and net ballerina length skirt with silk petal overskirt. Her fingertip length veil was held by a band of pearls and she carried a lavender orchid on a white Bible.

Miss Ruth Ann Marshall, maid of honor, wore a satin brocade frock with net overskirt of lavender. Bridesmaids were Miss Roma Gilbert and Miss Helen DeCarlo who wore aquamarine frocks and they carried gardenias with ferns. Georgette Tucker, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore an apricot colored frock. Candelighters were Lyla and Charles Massey, sister and brother of the bride. Lyla wore a blue dress.

Jim Wilson, Grants Pass, served as best man for his nephew, Michael Fuhrer, Richard McQueen and H. Snodgrass seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Massey chose a moss green dress with white accessories. Mrs. Wilson wore a blue frock with white feather hat and white accessories. Mrs. Tucker, grandmother of the bride, wore a Delft blue dress with matching shoes and black accessories. They all wore carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Mrs. Carl Wilson, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Charles Carmichael cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Elvia Wood and Miss Martha Boshears poured the punch while Mrs. Fred Landers and Mrs. Wayne Wilson, aunt of the bridegroom, served coffee and tea. Mrs. Richard McQueen, aunt of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Sheila Tucker, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Jim Wilson, aunt of the bridegroom, were at the gift table.

For her traveling attire the bride wore a blue knit suit with white accessories and lavender orchid corsage. The bride is a graduate of Medford High school. Mr. Wilson attended Cumberland college, Williamsburg, Ky., and Southern Oregon college. He is employed by radio station KAJO, Grants Pass.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored by several bridal showers. One was held by the women of the First Baptist church at the home of

Annual Project To Be Planned By Lady Lions

Medford Lady Lions will hold the October meeting Wednesday, October 8, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Glenn L. Linn, 119 Washington street. Mrs. Thomas Eslinger and Mrs. Kenneth Natlander will assist the hostess.

Tea House Setting For Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eden on Genessee street was converted into an oriental tea house Tuesday night for a rushing party given by Alpha Beta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority. Mrs. Eden is the chapter's sponsor.

"Tea House of the Autumn Moon" was the theme of the party. An oriental atmosphere was created with colorful Japanese lanterns which lighted the garden and the entrance to the Eden home. In the living room, stripped of conventional furniture, brightly colored cushions on the floor substituted for chairs, and the walls and windows were covered with oriental-type hangings.

Chinese and Japanese art objects and arrangements of autumn leaves with an artificial moon completed the decor. At refreshment time "precious light pudding," an authentic Japanese rice pudding, was served with chop sticks.

Rushes present were Mrs. Paul Ward, Mrs. Merle McGraw, Mrs. Harold Colver, Mrs. Laurance Espey, Mrs. Robert Klumph, Mrs. John Watkins, Mrs. Harold Ames, Mrs. Richard Nelson, Mrs. Willard Mattson and Mrs. George Polski. Mrs. Thomas Cardona, chapter director, was also a guest.

Mrs. Robert Harland was rush chairman and Mrs. Irving Thompson, co-chairman. Decorations were the work of the Edens, Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Robert Vincent and the Japanese pudding was prepared by Mrs. Thompson.

The prizes which were won for games had been purchased in San Francisco's China town. Mrs. Howard Mitchell won a laquer bowl and Mrs. Floyd Eastwood a brocade cigarette case. Mrs. Thomas Cardona's prize was rice paper stationery and Mrs. Paul Ward won a silk scarf.

Mrs. Ernest Flakus won a prize which was a miniature ivory statue of a happiness god.

Mrs. Helmer Tinseth, 1300 Queen Anne avenue, and Miss Ruth Ann Marshall, Miss Roma Gilbert and Miss Helen DeCarlo were hostesses for another shower at the home of Miss Martha Boshears, 404 South Grape street.

Saturday evening before the wedding the bride and bridegroom were honored at a dinner prior to the wedding rehearsal at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, parents of the bridegroom, Talent. Attending were members of the wedding party.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. Iva Opdyke, aunt of the bride, Sacramento, and Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, grandparents of the bridegroom, Portland.

Couple Married In Reno

Gold Hill-Miss Anna Marie Maerz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert M. Maerz, 751 Fourth avenue, Gold Hill became the bride of Floyd C. Price, son of Floyd Price Sr., Coos Bay, in a ceremony held Saturday, September 20 at the Park Wedding chapel in Reno, Nev.

The Rev. Raymond Walters officiated at the double-ring afternoon ceremony, held at five o'clock.

The chapel was decorated with pink and white gladioli in white baskets and white candelabra held lighted white tapers. Bows of pink satin were the pew ends.

The bride wore a chemise suit of Kelly green wool. Her hat fashioned of white flowers was loaned for the occasion by Mrs. Rex Allison, Gold Hill. For something new she wore a string of pearls presented to her as a wedding gift from her only attendant, Miss Janice Henry, Medford, who served as maid-of-honor. Her corsage was a lavender orchid.

Miss Henry wore an afternoon frock of mauve pink taffeta with white accessories and a white gardenia corsage.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Maerz wore an afternoon dress of beige taffeta, with white accessories and white gardenia corsage.

The newlyweds are living at the Rogue Valley motel, Rogue River after a honeymoon spent in southern California. While in Huntington Park they were houseguests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Potter. Mrs. Potter is the former Miss Ladean Waterhouse, Gold Hill.

The bride attended Crater High school. The bridegroom attended schools in Coquille and Coos Bay and is employed by the K. Line Truck corporation.

The bride was honored at a shower given in the home of Mrs. Rex Allison, Gold Hill, September 26. Mrs. Leonard Andrews, Upper River road, Gold Hill was co-hostess for the affair.

Large double wedding rings, designed of white and gold crepe paper with the names of the bride and bridegroom, centered the gift table. Mrs. Clarence Freeman wrote the gift list for the honoree.

Guests included Mrs. Darel Ross, Rogue River; Mrs. Jess Baker, Athena, Ore.; Mrs. Bessie Henderson and Mrs. Jack Cline, both of Pacific highway 99 North of Gold Hill; Mrs. Donald Dusenberry, Lampman road; Mrs. Rolland Washburn, Miss Darlene Allison, Miss Pamela Freeman, and Mrs. Elbert M.
