President Summons Top Republicans For Election Talks

By MERRIMAN SMITH
United Press International

Washington – (UPI)– President Eisenhower called the Republican high command together today in a White House conference designed to inject a massive shot of enthusiasm into the GOP congressional campaign.

The Republican effort to recapture Congress from the Democrats was proceeding in far too listless a fashion to suit Eisenhower so he took steps to do something about it.

Key Republicans Invited

He scheduled his biggest political conference in months, inviting to lunch the key Republicans from Capitol Hill, the Republican National Committee and the White House staff – men whose job is to supply GOP congressional and gubernatorial campaigns with the necessary transfusions of personnel, ideas and money.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon was prepared to give the President and his advisers a detailed report on Nixon's recent speech-making trip to the Pacific Coast. The vice president was in Washington for a few days before undertaking another campaign swing.

Before the luncheon the President arranged a separate conference with Rep. Kenneth B. Keating, Republican candidate for U. S. Senator from New York.

Items on Agenda

Three main items topped the White House agenda: (1) Apathy and lack of sufficiently energetic effort within the party; (2) the President's own campaign plans and possible additions; and (3) strategy for the period remaining before the Nov. 4 elections.

Inherent in each was the need, as the President saw it, to overcome a widespread defeatist attitude and belief that a big Democratic victory this fall is inevitable.

The Chief Executive himself was ready to devote virtually the entire remainder of this month to the campaign. He was also able to do so, since his physical condition was tip-top for a man of nearly 68 with a background of three serious illnesses in three years.

Airline Completes Boeing 707 Tests

Renton, Wash. –(UPI)– American Airlines completed initial tests Sunday on its new Boeing 707 jet airliner, company officials announced.

The 707, the first of 50 to be delivered to American Airlines, Sunday soared into the sky here after undergoing extensive high speed taxi tests.

On Jan. 11, 1959, the airline plans to install service between New York and Los Angeles with the new plane and two sister ships. The same month, San Francisco and Chicago are slated to get 707 service. By June, 1959, American plans to extend service to Washington, Baltimore, Dallas and Boston.

Mrs. FDR Raps Stand by Actress

Washington –(UPI)– Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt said Sunday that actress Irene Dunne "perhaps unwittingly has allied herself with those who seek to enslave the American worker" by supporting the Right-to-Work proposal on the California ballot.

Mrs. Roosevelt said it appeared Miss Dunne's "championship of human rights" had been "betrayed by the fraudulent arguments of the promoters of the so-called Right-to-Work laws."
