In Korea Conflict

Hong Kong—UPI—Communist Chinese leader Mao Tse-tung lost a son in the Korean war, a Hong Kong Communist newspaper reported Sunday.

The Communist newspaper Ta Kung Pao reported that Mao Anyin was among the first batch of "Chinese people volunteers who crossed the Yalu river of North Korea to participate in the Korean war."

The newspaper added that on Nov. 25, 1950, the son of the Chinese Communist leader was killed in action against the Americans.
