Dellenback on State Bar Board

Salem —UPI— The State Supreme Court has approved the appointment of Howard A. Rankin, Portland, to serve as chairman of the Board of Governors of the Oregon State Bar for the ensuing year.

Rankin has been a member of the Board for the past two years.

The court also approved appointments of Bruce Spaulding and Watson D. Robertson, both of Portland, and of John R. Dellenback, Medford, to serve for three-year terms on the board.

They will succeed John J. Coughlin, Portland, the retiring chairman, Jack H. Dunn, Portland, and Edward H. Murphy, Roseburg, all of whom completed three-year terms on the board.

In addition to Rankin, carryover members of the board are William Ganong Jr., Klamath Falls; Reginald S. Williams, Salem; Samuel H. Boye, Grants Pass; and Harold E. Hutchinson and William J. Moshofsky, both of Portland.

House Damaged by Fire on Barnett Rd.

Fire caused minor damage to a house at 2467 Barnett rd. at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, according to Medford fire department officials. The building, owned by Lloyd Black, 2469 Barnett rd., was occupied by the Charles Chisum family.

According to department officials, the fire started in the fireplace and spread to an adjoining wall. Cause was reported due to inadequate air space between the fireplace brick and the wall.

Georgia Pacific Tax Appeal Rescheduled

Salem —UPI— A tax appeal by Georgia Pacific company originally scheduled to be heard before the State Tax commission here Tuesday, has been rescheduled for Coquille Dec. 16-18, tax commissioners have announced.

Georgia Pacific is appealing assessment of its Coos county lands both last year and this year.

WATCHDOG

Pittsfield, Vt. —UPI— A sleeping dog proved more dangerous than a barking one to Gardner Baker, 48. Aroused early one morning by a disturbance behind his farmhouse, Baker took a .22 caliber pistol to investigate. He tripped over his sleeping dog and the weapon discharged, sending a shell through the farmer's right thigh. He never did discover the cause of the noise.
