

Inspired Wyoming Grid Team Stuns OSC Powerhouse 28-0

Laramie, Wyo. — (UPI) — An inspired University of Wyoming football team Saturday scored a stunning 28 to 0 win over Pacific Coast conference powerhouse Oregon State.

The Wyoming Cowboys, playing almost flawless ball and taking advantage of Oregon State mistakes, punched over two touchdowns in the second period and one each in the third and fourth, to walk away from the injury-weakened but highly touted Beavers.

Wyoming's line, outweighted by 12 pounds per man, was the big difference. They charged hard on both offense and defense to break Oregon's passing game and to break loose their own runners.

The Wyoming moved into scoring position the first time when Quarterback Jerry Wilkinson tossed to End Dale Memmelar for 37 yards to Oregon State's 11 yard line. Halfback Bud Snyder carried to the six and then Halfback Gary Jozwiak ran wide around left end to score with three minutes gone in the second period. Snyder paved the way with a key block.

Quarterback Joe Dempsey kicked the extra point.

The second TD came after the teams had traded the ball twice. On the third down on the Oregon 40 yard line, Quarterback Jim Walden passed to End Neal Curtis who carried the ball from the 11 to score.

Mike McGill, a 150-pound halfback, kicked the extra point.

Oregon managed its deepest penetration of the day in the third period when Halfback John Herrillo, Tailback Paul Lowe and Fullback Leo Criner led the attack to the Wyoming eight to lose the ball on downs.

A few minutes later Wyoming scored its third touchdown when Walden intercepted a pass by Lowe at the middle strip and ran 50 yards down the right sideline. Dempsey kicked the extra point.

The last score of the game came with six minutes and 52 seconds remaining in the final period when Fullback Mark Smolinski bowled his way through the right side of the Oregon State line from the 26 yard line.

WSC Nabs Idaho Pass; Wins 8-0

Moscow, Idaho — (UPI) — Washington State cashed an intercepted pass for a last period touchdown and then held off a determined rally to defeat Idaho 8-0 in a Pacific Coast conference football game Saturday.

The break came late in the third period when fullback Laroy Rath intercepted quarterback Gary Farnsworth's pass and returned 37 yards to the Idaho six. Then sub-quarterback Dave Wilson passed to Don Ellingsen for the winning tally.

Fullback Chuck Morrell plunged for the extra two points, and that was the ball game.

Idaho Stopped

Idaho moved to the Washington State 20 but was stopped there with seconds remaining in the game.

The victory for WSC was forged from a decisive battle featured mostly by long, quick kicks by both teams. And it was even tougher for the winners because quarterback Bob Newman, the nation's top passer, was sidelined after only four minutes when he was hit while punting.

Newman's injury was the first incident in this 59th "battle of the palouse" between the two neighboring rivals. Before it was over, WSC had set a new conference penalty record by being assessed 145 yards, 60 of them for personal fouls.

The winning touchdown was the only scoring threat of the second half. WSC boot-ed a chance in the second period when halfback Carl Ketchie fumbled on the Idaho one yard line. The ball rolled out of the end zone and Idaho took over.

Aside from those drives, however, Idaho kept WSC bottled up by superior punting and line play. Fullback Ken Hall quick-kicked 76 yards in the first period. Halfback Keith Lincoln of WSC answered with a 72 yard boot in the third.

Iowa Blasts 34-13 in Opener

Iowa City, Iowa — (UPI) — Iowa's resurging Hawkeyes, using a two platoon attack for the first time this year, completely reversed form Saturday to blast Indiana, 34-13, in the big ten opener for both clubs.

The victory, sparked by the equally effective play of star quarterback Randy Duncan and unsung Mitchell Ogiego, was the sixth straight for Iowa over Indiana. A dad's day crowd of 50,700 could hardly tell the Hawkeyes were the same club which staggered to a 13-13 tie against upstart Air Force last week.

Halfback Ray Jauch started the fast-charging Iowa squad on the runaway with just 1:24 gone in the first period when he dashed off tackle on Iowa's third play from scrimmage for 64 yards and a touchdown.

Ogiego, an ex-serviceman playing in his first college game, then took over direction of the Iowa attack. Directing traffic with Duncan's poise and passing with the same skill, Ogiego led the second unit 67 yards in 14 plays for the second touchdown.

GP Knots Marshfield

Coos Bay — Marshfield and Grants Pass high schools, two powers in southwestern and southern Oregon fought to a 6 to 6 deadlock here on Friday.

Grants Pass missed a victory chance with 38 seconds left to play. The Cavemen had reached the Marshfield 10. From that point a field goal attempt by Ollie Woolsey was wide to the left by just two feet.

GP hit pay soil first in the game with Jack Dean going over from the two-yard line on a crossback in the third quarter. Jim Purkett had set up the opportunity with a pass interception.

Rossi Scores

Woolsey for GP and Jerry Larsen for the Pirates missed point after touchdown kicks.

The game was evenly fought although Marshfield had a slim edge in yardage and an 18 in nine spread in first downs. Grants Pass employed quick kicks to advantage.

Eagle Point — Eagle Point high strengthened its unblemished position at the front of the Rogue league football race by swamping Glendale 58 to 7 at Glendale on Friday.

Taking early command, the Eagles led 28 to 0 at the quarter. Halftime bulge was 34 to 0 and the count stood 40 to 7 after three cantos.

Bill Turner touchdown on 40, 45 and 50-yard runs. Bill Skeeters went 47 and 18

Blocking Sharp

Dave Huffman and Skeeters each ran two extra points.

Glendale got its TD on a 38-yard pass play.

Sharp offensive blocking and tough defense paid off for the Eagle Pointers. Dale Casey and Roger Hooper paced the offensive line play and Bill McClure and Bill Hubbard were standouts on defense.

EP's No. 2 unit played much of the second half and all 35 Eagle squad members got into the game.

Eagle Point is host to Illinois Valley here next Friday in the skirmish which may determine the Rogue titlist.

Army Scores 14-2 Victory Over Irish

South Bend, Ind. — (UPI) — Army's speedy halfbacks, Pete Dawkins and Bob Anderson, overran Notre Dame's shaky defense with ease Saturday to lead the Black Knights to their first win over the Irish in 13 years, 14-2, before a record crowd of 60,564.

The victory was hardly an upset, even though Army was a one point underdog, since the winners had been rated fourth nationally and Notre Dame third.

Dawkins, who scored Army's second touchdown on a seven yard run with seven seconds to play, and Anderson were the big ground gainers for the victory, but had plenty of help from a fast and rugged line, headed by a 210-pound tackle, Bob Novogratz.

The Army forwards contained the Irish offense so well that Notre Dame couldn't cross the Army 20 until less than eight minutes remained and, the march was halted on the 19. Meanwhile, even though outweighed, the faster Army linemen cleared holes constantly for Dawkins and Anderson and gave 160-pound quarterback Joe Caldwell plenty of protection on passes.

Army, outgained on the ground by the Irish with only 176 yards compared to 203, picked up 100 yards in the air compared to 11 for Notre Dame. Irish thrower Bob Williams completed four of eight pitches for only 11 yards.

Walter Camp, who is credited with picking the first All-American football team, played the game at Yale for seven years, from 1876 to 1882. In those days, graduate students were allowed to play too.

GP Knots Marshfield

Indians Upset U.W. By 22-12

Stanford, Calif. — (UPI) — Quarterback Bob Nicolet, generally regarded as too eccentric to play full-time varsity football, turned in a steady game Saturday while leading victory starved Stanford to a 22-12 upset of Washington.

It was the first win of the season for the Indians who had lost their previous three games by lopsided scores, while the huskies had come to town fresh from making Ohio State fight for a one-touchdown triumph.

But after taking a 12-7 halftime lead, Washington folded before a hard-charging Stanford line and tremendous teamwork between Nicolet and halfback Rick McMullen who murdered the huskies with their pitchout plays.

Indians Forge Ahead

Stanford went ahead for keeps in the third period, 44-12, when Nicolet intercepted a pass by quarterback Bob Hivner and raced it back 15 yards to Washington's 20.

From there, McMullen scooted past left end and down the sidelines for his second touchdown of the day.

The deft Stanford halfback had scored earlier in the first quarter from five yards out to cap a 65 yard drive in which he had whizzed for 28 of them on one of Nicolet's pitchouts.

The third Stanford score came in the fourth period after quarterback Phil Borders, veteran Washington halfback fumbled the ball on his own 20 and center Roch Conklin recovered it for the Indians.

Bears Roll Over Utah By 36-21

Berkeley, Calif. — (UPI) — California added the dippy-do, featuring pitchouts and three-way laterals, to the split-T Saturday and rolled to a ridiculously easy 36-21 victory over outmanned University of Utah.

With quarterback Joe Kapp running the show, California romped to a 36-0 lead midway in the third quarter before Utah could threaten against the second-stringers. It was the second consecutive victory for the Golden Bears and was accomplished before a slim crowd of 28,000 in Memorial stadium.

Ball Handling Befuddles

Kapp's ball-handling so befuddled the Utes' defense that many times the redskins were tackling three men before coming down with the ball carrier. A standard play was for Kapp to pitch out to an end, who would lateral to a halfback. Utah liked the play so well it used it itself with considerable success in the second half. At times the battle resembled a basketball game.

Utah picked a lot of yardage in the middle field, but it could not make a sustained drive until midway in the third period. A 43-yard pass from Lee Grosscup to end Larry Wilson set up the first touchdown, with Grosscup going over from the one. In the fourth stanza, Utah scored again as Bob Mastelotto, went 32 yards around end and the final Utah counter came with four minutes to play after a Cal fumble was recovered on the Cal 11 yard line.

Monk Bailey scored from two plays later.

Hedrick 8th 20-6 Victor

Hedrick Junior high eighth grade recorded its second grid decision over a Grants Pass club by defeating its counterpart from the GP South school 20 to 6 on Friday.

Jim Bandy ran 45 and 60 yards and Roy Ross 50 yards for the Medford team's goals. Hornet extra points were on a kick by Dan Miles and pass Miles to Roy Shaw.

Grants Pass found the end zone on a 35-yard play.

The week before Hedrick downed North Grants Pass 21 to 6.
