

Miss Bergliot Larsen (center), who is retiring as administrator of Rogue Valley Memorial hospital, was honored at a tea Thursday afternoon at the hospital. Miss Larsen's marriage to Walter G. Garner, Medford business man, is set for November 1.

Work of Medford Artists Selected for Annual Show

Two Medford artists have had pieces accepted for exhibit at the Artists of Oregon 1958 showing of the Portland Art Museum, the museum announced last week.

Warren Wolf, art instructor at Medford High school, will show a wood and steel sculpture entitled "Experience at Sea," and an oil painting entitled "Despair."

Betty M. Allen (Mrs. Eric Allen Jr.) will show two pieces of sculpture, "Paladin," in cast stone, and a wood and metal construction entitled "Proto."

Both Mr. Wolf and Mrs. Allen are artists in the contemporary genre. Mr. Wolf has exhibited in the Oregon Artists show before, but this is the first time for Mrs. Allen, who began sculpturing seriously less than two years ago.

A total of 134 pieces from 108 artists were admitted to the competitive exhibit, out of 348 pieces submitted by 190 artists.

The show was juried by a committee including Elmer Bischoff, San Francisco, Herman Cherry, New York, and Frederick Heidel, Portland. The rules limited entries to no more than three pieces from any artist, and no more than two in either sculpture or painting.

The show will be open to the public at the Portland Art Museum, S.W. Park and Madison, from October 18 to November 16.

The business meeting will be followed by an afternoon of cards. All Eastern Star members are welcome to attend.

Mrs. Frank W. Little is chairman of the luncheon committee.

Mrs. Fred Fick, 502 North Holy street, Medford, will leave for Portland and Pasco, Wash., where she will visit friends and relatives for two weeks. In Pasco she plans to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Miazga.

Mrs. G. O. Sanden, Old Stage road, will leave tomorrow for Portland to attend the state convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Mrs. Sanden is president of the Medford Union. The convention dates are October 14-17.

Speaker for the next meeting of Medford Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be the Rev. Escil Hiser whose topic will be "Temperance." Mrs. Hiser will give the devotions and Mrs. Louise McCoy will sing.

Time of the meeting is Thursday, October 16, at 2 p.m. at Girls Community club and the public is invited to attend.

A roll call will be held and members are asked to respond with a favorite verse of scripture.

Refreshments committee members are Mrs. Ina Renker, Mrs. Fred Reich and Mrs. Emma Perkins.

Royal Neighbors of America will hold their annual homecoming dinner Thursday, Oct. 16, at the Pythian hall. Serving will start at 6 p.m.

A program will follow. Those members who have not been contacted are requested to bring either a salad or vegetable and pie for the dinner.

Hospital Tea Thursday Honors Retiring Head

Miss Bergliot Larsen, retiring administrator of Rogue Valley Memorial hospital, was honored at a farewell tea given Thursday afternoon at the hospital. The event was planned by the staff, with Mrs. Thomas D. MacLeod, head dietitian, as chairman. Members of Rogue Valley Memorial Hospital auxiliary, of which Mrs. John Winton, Eagle Point, is president, assisted the staff.

More than 200 staff members, auxiliary members and others attended the tea. Miss Larsen was presented a silver tray from the hospital staff, with Mrs. Bernice Nims, directors of nurses, making the presentation. Mrs. Winton presented the honored guest a silver bowl on behalf of auxiliary members.

Among those pouring during the afternoon were Miss Mabel Coffeen, Mrs. Fred Williams, Mrs. Myrtle Marsters, Mrs. Katherine Long, Mrs. Margaret Jacobs and Mrs. Frances Stein, all registered nurses on the staff.

Flowers for the tea table and room bouquets were provided by Mrs. Winton, Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter and Mrs. Ralph Norris.

During the presentation of the gifts, appreciation for Miss Larsen's work at the hospital was expressed, and regret over her departure. Since announcement of Miss Larsen's resignation, those interested in the hospital have praised her for not only her administration of the institution but for her work in helping to plan and equip the new building.

Miss Larsen's marriage to Walter G. Garner, Medford business man, is set for November 1.

Chapter Holds Model Meeting

A model meeting for rushees was held by Beta Sigma Phi at the home of Mrs. Howard Blew October 7.

"Let's Bake a Cake" was the program theme presented by Mrs. Max Larson, vice-president of the chapter. Just as good ingredients are essential for a good cake, so are they for a good sorority, she said. It needs to be enriched with service and culture and gaily spiced with social activities to turn out well, the speaker declared.

Mrs. Larson was assisted in the program presentation by Mrs. Carl Christenson, Mrs. Joe Sayre and Mrs. Ray Bostwick.

A preferential tea for rushees will be October 19 at the home of Mrs. Scott Davis.

The next regular meeting will be October 21 at the home of Mrs. DeVan Wray, 1908 Stratford way. The chapter will celebrate an anniversary by an exchange of gifts.

Rushes at the model meeting were Mrs. Del Berg, Mrs. D. T. Landing, Mrs. Howard Berg, Mrs. Wallace Long and Mrs. Richard Greer.

Refreshments were served by the co-hostess, Mrs. Larson and Mrs. Richard Knoll.

Queen Donna with her court, princesses Margo Hill and Carmel White, reigned over the triumphant homecoming dance held in the gayly decorated school gymnasium, immediately following the team's 27-21 victory over the Glendale Pirates.

The GAA served refreshments. A large cake was decorated as a miniature football field complete with goal posts representing both schools.

The senior class won the prize for its entry in the homecoming parade staged along Main street Friday afternoon. The winning float was a life size sail boat carrying several members of the Cougar squad forcing a Glendale Pirate to walk the plank. The parade was led by the Illinois Valley Rockettes.

High scores in the east-west position were won by Mrs. Ivan Harrington and Millard Allen, first, 176½; Mrs. Sam Van Dyke and Mrs. John Dougherty, second, 162½; Mr. and Mrs. Paul McDuffee, third, 156½; and Robert Dickey and Howard Boyd, fourth, 155.

Visitors attending were Mrs. A. H. Hughes, Mrs. B. Rogers, Mrs. A. R. Shoemaker and Mrs. R. W. Caughell, all Salem, and Millard Allen, Portland.

Mrs. Frank Baker was hostess.

Miss May Hostess For Xi Mu Chapter

Mrs. Nils Edin presented a program on the history of gloves at the October 8 meeting of Xi Mu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held at the home of Miss Anna May, 3444 Forest street.

Refreshments were served by Miss May and Mrs. W. H. Fisher.

Mr. Hayes will tell of the work being done at the school for retarded children of the valley, and will show slides picturing some of the activities in the school.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Bernice Kunzman, Mrs. Agnes Deaver, Mrs. Theone Taylor, Mrs. Agnes Evanson, all Medford, and Mrs. C. D. Bones, Central Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Dola G. Miller, formerly of Medford and now of Everett, Wash., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Ann to Darrel Wayne Lowe, son of Mrs. Arleta Lowe, 1327 Saling avenue, Medford. Miss Miller is a senior at Everett Senior High school and Mr. Lowe attended Medford schools. A December wedding is planned.

Valley School Chooses Queen

Cave Junction—Miss Donna Frost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Frost of Selma, was chosen the homecoming queen by the Illinois Valley High school football squad. She was crowned at the half time of the homecoming game by Captain Russell Beem.

Queen Donna with her court, princesses Margo Hill and Carmel White, reigned over the triumphant homecoming dance held in the gayly decorated school gymnasium, immediately following the team's 27-21 victory over the Glendale Pirates.

The GAA served refreshments. A large cake was decorated as a miniature football field complete with goal posts representing both schools.

Council Of PTAs To Meet

A program of interest to parent-teacher association members throughout the county has been planned by the Jackson County Council of PTAs Wednesday, October 15 in the YMCA. A coffee hour will be from 9:45 to 10 A.M., with the program from 10 A.M. to 12 noon, according to Mrs. Owen A. Kunkel, Medford, president.

Angus L. Bowmer, professor of English at Southern Oregon College, Ashland, will present a brief background on "Shakespeare in the Rogue Valley." Mr. Bowmer is founder and producing director of the Oregon Shakespearean festival. With the presentation of the 1958 plays, the entire canon of Shakespeare's plays has been produced in the Ashland theater.

Dr. Harry Danielson, psychiatrist for the Southern Oregon Child Guidance clinic, will present information concerning the marriage counseling service now being conducted on a six month demonstration basis in Jackson county. He will tell how the service came to be started, and how the service is determining whether there is a need for a permanent counseling service to be set up in the county.

There will be an opportunity for questions concerning problems in use of parliamentary procedure in the local PTA unit.

Two workshops have been held recently in the home of Mrs. Kunkel, 28 Highland drive. The first was for membership chairmen, and was conducted by Mrs. Lewis Dusenberry, Trail county membership chairman, Mrs. Kunkel and Mrs. William H. Seibert, Medford Coordinating Council president. The second was for the magazine chairmen and was conducted by Mrs. Walter Stroup, county magazine chairman, and Mrs. Kunkel.

These were the first of a series of workshops to be presented for local unit chairmen throughout this year.
