More Men Take Interest In Parent-Teacher Units

More men are taking an interest in the parent-teacher association movement. As proof of this Jackson county points to the fact that one unit, Sams Valley Parent-Teacher association, has men holding all four top offices, and that throughout Oregon, 181 men as serving as unit presidents this year. Others are holding lesser offices, or serving as committee chairmen.

Both parents are inclined to take an active interest in school affairs when their children are elementary grade ages. Victor H. Croxton, president of the Sams Valley unit, has two sons, Michael and Ronnie, attending the Sams Valley school and a daughter, Alice, at Crater High school. C. W. McDonough, the vice-president, has a son, John, in the fifth grade at Sams Valley and a daughter, Connie, at Crater High school.

Samples of the 1958-59 programs for Jackson county elementary school PTAs show a wide range of variety: Teaching method demonstrations, legislation study reports, child growth and development discussions, films of life in other nations and commentary on their social customs and education programs, talks by foreign students from Southern Oregon college, and by foreign exchange students from high schools, discussion of recreation programs are examples.

Scholarships Given One of the major projects of parent-teacher associations in Jackson county is the tuition scholarship program of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers. This program grants a full four year tuition cost scholarship to qualified students in elementary teacher training. The scholarship is renewed each year at the specified level and if the request of its extension is filed. Students who are graduating from high school are eligible to apply before March 31 each year, as are those returning to college to complete their bachelor degree requirements for elementary teaching. The Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers hopes that the scholarship recipients will enter the teaching profession in Oregon on a career basis.

In recent years, the Misses Sally Harris, Medford, Judith Farrar, Rogue River, Donna

Eskew, Central Point, Isobel Carr, Medford, Barbara Ellen Johnson, Ashland, Sharon Whitlock, Medford, and Mrs. Rosemary Doolen, Medford have received scholarships. Several teachers are currently teaching in Jackson County classrooms, who received the benefit of the scholarship program.

There are 28 elementary PTAs in Jackson county, and requests have been made for two more to be organized in the new Hoover and Wilson schools in the Medford 549-C district is being carried on during this month. All parents of elementary school age children are invited to join this nationwide program of work.

Filled Hamburgers Provide Menu Change

Rochester, N.Y. (UPI)—When hamburger is on the menu, try filling it with cheese and relish spreads.

Test kitchens of the R. T. French Co. prepared recipes which may be used by indoor or outdoor chefs.

Allow 1/4 pound ground beef for each hamburger. Press gently into 2 thin patties, about 4 inches across. Spread or arrange one of the following fillings on one patty, leaving 1/2 inch around the edge for sealing. Top with second patty, pressing edges together. Broil on each side. Sprinkle lightly with salt and pepper and serve on toasted buns.

To make the fillings: Spread patty with mustard, place a thin slice of onion in the center and top with spoonful of pickle relish. Or cream 1/4 pound butter, 1/4 pound Roquefort or blue cheese and 3 tablespoons mustard. Another filling combines a thin layer of mustard, two cubes processed cheese and a spoonful of pickle relish.

When the label, "do not wring" appears on a garment, follow its advice. This also means do not spin in an automatic washer.
