Tin Can Craft Demonstrated For Local Unit

Mrs. Herbert A. Sims presented a demonstration on the making of Christmas decorations out of tin cans and lids at the Medford Home Extension unit meeting Wednesday at the courthouse auditorium. Her unusual collection of hand-made novelties was displayed and methods for making them explained.

Also on the afternoon workshop program was Mrs. Josiah Bartlett who gave a talk on the making of children's toys from common household materials. Mrs. Frank Armstrong briefed on the making of briefs.

During the morning business session, conducted by the chairman, Mrs. Ruth Hunter, plans were made for the pattern-making workshop. Mrs. C. C. Ferris and Mrs. D. K. Varner were appointed to be project leaders and they are to attend their first workshop October 21, and four consecutive weeks thereafter.

Two new members taken into the unit were Mrs. Ralph C. Jones and Mrs. Catherine E. Sowell. Mrs. I. D. Fitzgerald was appointed as secretary pro tem while Mrs. E. H. Trefren is absent until after Christmas.

Mrs. Hunter appointed on her telephone committee Mrs. Mary Payton, Mrs. S. Porter, Mrs. Clarence O. Lack and herself.

The annual Christmas turkey dinner and gift exchange party was planned for December. For the November meeting the luncheon chairman, Mrs. Armstrong, appointed Mrs. Ethel Haertle, Mrs. Harry Morrow, Mrs. E. F. Archer, Mrs. Carrie Milnes and Mrs. Charles Hobbs.

Any women in the Medford area who are interested in any of the Home Extension activities are invited to attend any of the meetings which are held on the second Wednesday of each month.

Fire Chief Warns About Leaving Children Alone

Medford Fire Chief Gordon Barker reminded residents today to never leave children constant sight and mind.

In a Fire Prevention Week message, Barker pointed out that one out of every three child fire victims was alone and helpless when home fires started. Children left home alone would be trapped and helpless if fire or some other emergency should arise.

Barker asked parents to take several precautions to protect their children from fire at home. They are:

1. Be sure baby sitters have specific instructions in case of fire; these include orders to get the children outside the instant smoke or gas is smelled, the location of at least two escape routes, and how to get in touch with the fire department, parents, doctor and police.
2. Keep young children, two years old and under, in
3. Teach older children how to use and respect fire.
4. Keep your home free of fire hazards by regular inspections; the fire department will help in this.
5. Train children of all ages how to get out of the house to safety in case of fire; have at least two escape routes from every room, and be sure
