Asbland - A battered tribe of warriors just a week before, the Southern Oregon college Red Raiders had their football party back in order Saturday night and took a first successful stride in defense of their Oregon Collegiate conference crown.

Coach Al Atkins and field chiefs Jack Brown and Lance Locke deployed the Rogue Raiders to a 21 to 14 decision over the Vikings of Portland State on Fuller field here.

Southern Oregon warpathed to the victory on the running of Larry Maurer, Eldon Francis, Delmar Brood, Rick Herman and Locke, the passing of Brown and Locke and the aerial catching of Punk Biddington, Jim McAbee, Larry Yarnell and Wayne Collum. Dominating the first half, the Red Raiders had all their touchdowns before the Vikings crossed a goal and they hung on to hold their lead in the second half when the PSC eleven had the offensive edge in push-over surges up and down the field.

87-Yard Drive

The Raiders tabulated on an 87-yard promenade off the opening kick-off and turned two breaks into touchdowns. They held a 21 to 7 bulge at the midway gun, Portland State turned a fumble into a TD in the closing portion of the second quarter and scored off an 88-yard ramble in the dying moments of the game.

Larry Maurer slanted over the left side of the line for eight yards and the opening touchdown. A fourth-down swing pass for two yards, Locke to Biddington, gained the second marker. Brood took a pitch and romped the last five yards for the third. Locke booted all three extra points.

A sharp passing combination, Harvey Neffendorf to Sam Roberts, clicked for 17 yards and the Viking score. Gary Behncke chucked to Roberts for 10 yards and the other. Mac Wiebe toed the bonus counters.

Danger Over Route

The Vixs, with the lugging of George Kane, Bill Turner, Henry Malias and Ward Sayles, with the passing of Neffendorf and Sayles and with the receiving potential of ends Roberts and Willie Brown and the backs were a danger all the way to the Raider defense.

Portland State reached the SOC 12-yard line in the first quarter and the 15 at the end of the third stanza. Raider Phil Sword's interception nipped the early bid and the Vixs lost out on downs on the other. A Southern Oregon non-scoring drive fizzled on the PSC 12 in the wrap up chucker.

Southern Oregon began right from the opening kickoff the business of vindicating itself for the 60 to 13 thrashing at the hands of Lewis and Clark the Saturday previous. The Raiders, set back to the 13 yard line for clipping on the first quarter by holding on to the ball until they had their first TD against PSC, an eleven which bowed only 12 to 7 to Lewis and Clark's Pioneers.

Penalty Helps

SOC used 17 scrimmage plays to get to the goal with seven first downs along the way. The march was hampered by one offensive penalty but a pass interference ruling against the Vikings more than made up for it.

To set up the second marker, Jim McAbee recovered a fumble by PSC's John Eichorn. The Vikings lost the ball when tackled as he received a Tony Brauner punt. SOC got the ball on the Viking 36-yard line and had a touchdown in nine plays. Maurer ripped off a 17-yard romp but the rest of the way it was short gains.

A bad pass from center which Vik punter Al Parent couldn't handle next gave the Raiders the ball on the Portland 16. Herman got two yards and Collum five on a pass from Locke. Herman gained another four and Brood took a flip and crossed for the final five.

As the second quarter neared its end Brood took a PSC punt for SOC, Hemmed in, he tossed a lateral which went awry and Mickey Gray fell on the ball for the Portlanders. With the ball on the 34-yard line Neffendorf passed to Brown to the 17 and then chucked to Roberts for the touchdown.

Pass Not Held

Portland took over on its 12 for the last touchdown drive. It took 15 plays to get to the end zone. The Vixs were penalized twice for off-side but had the advantage of a pass interference penalty against Southern Oregon. The Raiders' Herman nabbed Neffendorf pass along the way but fumbled and Roberts recovered for a nine-yard advance for the visitors. PSC had six first down in the push.

Pat Curtis provided the spectators with some amusement when he missed the ball trying for an onside kick after the TD. The Vixs were penalized for offside on the play and Curtis' next try went to the PSC 42 where SOC took over with 1:46 left on the clock. Southern Oregon trying to run out the clock was short of first down on its fourth scrimmage run and Portland got the ball with 10 seconds left. The game ended as a Behncke pass dropped incomplete.

The Raiders dominated first half scrimmage by wide yardage margin and PSC had the edge by a considerable spread in the second half.

Hard Road Ahead For Wisconsin

Chicago - (UP) - Wisconsin's up-and-coming Badgers today had the look of possible Big Ten football champs for the first time since 1952, but Coach Mil Bruhn would be the first to admit the worst was yet to come.

The Badgers upped their intra-conference prestige and probably their No. 6 national ranking by bouncing Purdue, 31-6, Saturday. It was the third straight success of the season for the Bruhn squad and the first setback for the Boilermakers, who had blanked their first two foes.

Buckeyes Scared

As the conference went into full steam, Ohio State had a last-minute scare, but beat Illinois, 19-13; Iowa bounced back from a humiliating tie by the Air Force to wallop Indiana, 34-13, and Northwestern made it three in a row with a thrilling 7-3 triumph over Minnesota.

The Navy tagged Michigan with a 20-14 upset, and Michigan State scored a 22-0 romp over Pittsburgh to complete the weekend action.

Bruhn's rampaging Badgers have a tough road ahead. Beginning with Iowa next week, they must face six conference foes on the next six Saturday's in order they are Ohio State, Michigan State, Northwestern, Illinois and Minnesota.

Oregon Webfoots Crush Southern California 25-0

Eugene - (UP) - Oregon's football team, which found a dependable place kicker in former Oregon State Rose Bowl player, came out of Saturday night's 25-0 victory over Southern California without injury.

Coach Len Casanova said he could point out no major mistakes the Webfoots made in handling Southern Cal its third straight defeat.

The Ducks meet Washington State in their homecoming game here Saturday. The Cougars probably will be without passer Bobby Newman who hurt his knee against Idaho.

John Clarke, who two seasons ago kicked 14 straight extra points for Oregon State before missing against Iowa in the Rose Bowl, scored five points with his toe for Oregon against the Trojans, Clarke, from Independence, Ore., transferred to Oregon last year. He is an art student.

West Gallops

The Ducks broke halfback Willie West loose on a 66-yard touchdown romp on the third play of the game to delight a crowd of 32,734 in Portland.

It was Oregon's biggest margin over the Trojans since 1915, when the Webfoots won 34-0 in the first game of a rivalry which has ended at least for now because of the impending breakup of the PCC. Southern California, which lost its last two games by only one point, fumbled away every chance it had to score.

The deepest Trojan penetration was to the Oregon 24 in the third period when workhorse halfback Rex Johnston fumbled. That was only one of four Southern California fumbles the alert Webfoots recovered.

Fraser Shines

Oregon, the nation's fourth-ranked defensive team, got another touchdown late in the game on a 34-yard pass from Sandy Fraser to halfback Len Read. Dave Gross, plunged two yards for the other Webfoot TD early in the fourth quarter after a 15-yard run by West set it up.

The rest of the Oregon scoring came mostly from Clarke. Clarke kicked a four-yard field goal with 23 seconds left in the first half and added two extra points. West ran for two points after his opening touchdown.

The victory put Oregon in first place in the PCC with two victories against two losses.

It was Oregon's third straight over the Trojans, but only its seventh against 15 losses and one tie in the 43-year-old rivalry.

ton State, according to preseason dopsters, had the inside track on the PCC crown. But lowly California rated second place today in the standings.

The Ducks take on third place Washington State Saturday with every intention of winning. If last Saturday's scores were any indication they will, since the Cougars barely eked out an 8-0 win over last place Idaho while Oregon clobbered Southern California, 25-0.

Oregon State, which suffered a humiliating 28-0 defeat at the hands of Wyoming's Cowboys Saturday, gets what it hopes is an easy day next weekend against Idaho.

Huskies Hosts

Washington won't have it so soft. After last weekend's 22-12 mauling by Stanford, the Huskies play most to UCLA which will be out for victory after the tough, 21-14 beating handed it Friday night by the Florida Gators.

Stanford, with its new-found confidence, meets coach Ben Martin's Air Force Academy Saturday, a scrappy team that smashed Colorado State 36-6 Saturday after tying powerhouse Iowa, 13-13, the previous week.

Two other interesting games Saturday will be the match between College of Pacific at Cincinnati and San Jose State at Arizona State (Tempe).

COP downed Brigham Young 26-8 over the weekend, but both San Jose and the Sun Devils lost their respective matches-San Jose to Cal Poly, 10-6, and Arizona to Hardin Simmons, 14-6.

United Press International The Oregon Ducks are again on the Pacific Coast conference glory road. Co-champions last year with Oregon State, the Webfoots have racked up a total of 52 points in two conference games this season, with none scored against them.

Birdie Tebbetts VP For Braves

Milwaukee - (UP) - Fred Haney got assurances before he signed his 1959 contract to manage the Milwaukee Braves that he will get "no interference" from George (Birdie) Tebbetts, the team's newly-named executive vice-president.

"I was assured that Tebbetts will work only in the front office and will not have anything to do with the way I run the ball team," said Haney, who agreed to a new one year contract Saturday at no increase in pay.

At the same time, it was announced that Tebbetts, a player and manager for 24 years—most recently of the Cincinnati Redlegs—will move into the Braves' front office to eventually take over the duties of President Joseph Cairnes.

Tech Tops EOC 27-6

United Press International Oregon Tech dumped Eastern Oregon at La Grande Saturday, 27-6, for its second Oregon College Conference football victory of the season against no losses.

In the other loop game, defending champion Southern Oregon opened its defense of the OCC crown with a 21-14 win over Portland State at Ashland.

Oregon College of Education was bounced by Whitman of the Northwest Conference, 19-12, in an inter-conference contest.

Casey Stengel Skipper of Year

New York—(UP)—Casey Stengel, who made 1958 a year of vindication for his New York Yankees, the American league and himself, was picked today as the United Press International's American league manager of the year.

The 68-year-old juggler of players and of words was chosen by a board of 24 baseball writers, three from each American league city. The vote was taken even before Stengel achieved his greatest 1958 accomplishment—bringing the Yankees from a 1-3 deficit in the World Series to a world championship.

Stengel has accomplished great things previously in his long career but the 1958 season was one of the most satisfying of his life.

Willamette Grips First Pin Star Due Here

United Press International Undefeated Willamette took an early but convincing grip on first place in the Northwest Conference Saturday night with a 33-0 thrashing of defending champion Linfield at McCulloch stadium in Salem, Ore.

The defeat was Linfield's first in conference play since 1956.

Stan Solomon and De nny Sarver both broke away for long touchdowns runs with Solomon scoring twice in the first half.

In the other conference game Saturday Lewis and Clark College of Idaho fought to a 19-19 tie at Caldwell, Idaho. The Pioneers scored touchdowns in the first, second and fourth periods and C of I racked up three TD's in the first half.

In inter-conference clashes, Pacific whipped Pacific Lutheran of the Evergreen Conference, 14-6 and Whitman visited Oregon College of Education of the Oregon Collegiate conference to record a 19-12 victory.

Bill Lillard, Chicago, one of the nation's best known kegglers will be at Medford Bowling lanes Thursday for an exhibition.

Tornado JV, Crater Vie

Junior varsity football contention between Medford and Crater High schools follows on the heels of the varsity tangle.

Jayvee clubs of the two A-1 schools mix it tonight. Game time will be 7 p.m. at Central Point.

Medford's junior Tornado is favorite in the hassle. It downed Grants Pass 18 to 0 after GP had nudged the Comet crew 6 to 0.

MATERNAL INSTINCT

Australians Nudge Yanks in Links Tilt

St. Andrews, Scotland—(UP)—Australia broke a deadlock with the United States on the last three holes of an 18-hole play round today and won the first World Amateur Golf Team championship with 222 strokes. The Yanks finished with 224.

Australia and the U. S. forced the playoff when they led for first at the end of the regulation 72 holes Saturday with 918.

The Aussies held a two-stroke margin after the first nine as they battled the Yanks in brilliant sunshine on the famed St. Andrews Old Course. Then the Americans, led by Charley Coe, Oklahoma City, rallied to tie the match after 12 holes. It was all-square until the commonwealth team took charge in the last three holes.

Aussies Predicted

The cocky Aussies predicted they would win and did it by taming the back nine on this rugged course. Bruce Devlin and Bob Stevens fired a one-under-par 35 coming in. Peter Toogood, the other member of the four-man Australian team whose score counted, fired a par 36 coming in.

Among the losers, only Coe, who came back in 35, could match the pressure shooting of the Australians on the back nine. Coe, the U.S. amateur champion, wound up with a 73. Dr. Frank Taylor, Pomona, Calif., had a 76, and Billy Joe Patton, Morgantown, N.C., a 75. Bill Hyndman, Philadelphia, whose sparkling round Saturday enabled the U.S. to force the playoff, shot a 78 today.

In the competition, each country counts the best three scores produced by its four players. Devlin had a 72 and Toogood and Stevens 75s to make the winners' total. Doug Bachli, the fourth Aussie, fired a 78 against Coe.

GP, Medford Bowlers Clash

A Medford men's team took two games and total pins and a women's quintet nabbed one game and total pins in matches at Medford Bowling lanes yesterday with Grants Pass opponents.

Other Medford players were Jim Morgan, Francis Kirk and Les Schneider. Also rolling for GP were Gene Chapman, Harold Bell and Jim McClellan.

The local women had a 2429 to 2417 pin edge. Lillian Honeyball had a 183 game and 541 series for the visiting delegation. Helen Clark had a 516 series for Medford while Thelma Tolles had a 183 game and Maxine McCall 182.

Mary Langston and Vivian Knox were other Medford bowlers. Edith Tuttle, Louise Hupy, Kay Winslow and Al Rieand completed the GP line-up.

Walton Group Meets Tonight

The meeting will be at 8 p.m. at Medford Gun club.

Showing of a one-hour sound color movie, "Chesapeake," will be a highlight. The movie shows the adventures of a greenhorn on his first Alaskan fishing trip. The public is invited and refreshments will be served.

Final action will be taken on resolutions the chapter will sponsor at the Oregon division convention.

Prothro Has No Excuse

Corvallis - (UP) - Oregon State Coach Tommy Prothro came home without an alibi Sunday. Instead, he heaped praise on the Wyoming Cowboys for playing "awfully good ball" when they humiliated the Beavers 28-0 Saturday at Laramie.

Oregon State had to leave two of its best backs, tailback Grimm Mason and fullback Nub Beamer, in Corvallis with injuries. Also, tackle Ted Bates could not play because of a shoulder injury suffered last week. He watched the game from the bench.

"The injuries to these boys hurt us some," Prothro said, "but every team has injuries and that's no excuse for our losing like we did."

Outweighed Line Good

The Cowboys, playing almost flawless ball and taking advantage of Oregon State mistakes, punched over two touchdowns in the second period and one each in the third and fourth.

Malin Raps Talent 20-0

Malin pulled into a three-way tie for second place with Jacksonville and Bonanza in District 5B football Saturday by trimming Talent 20 to 0.

Talent made a game of it for the first half, holding the Mustangs scoreless. The Bulldogs from Jackson county got inside the Malin five yard line five times in the first two quarters but could not muster a scoring punch.

Malin tallied twice in the third quarter and once in the third. A swing pass got one TD, a pass set up another and a drive produced the third.

The Mustangs gained consistently through the line in the second half.

Merrill remains the only unbeaten crew in the circuit.
