It was the unbeaten Colts' third straight victory and enabled them to remain one game ahead of the Chicago Bears and the Los Angeles Rams in the Western race. The Rams also staged a thrilling rally, scoring twice in the final minute to down the winless Detroit Lions, 42-28, while the Bears rolled to a 28-6 triumph over the San Francisco Forty-Niners.

Browns Whip Cards
The Cleveland Browns remained unbeaten in the Eastern division by whipping the Chicago Cardinals, 35-28; the New York Giants took over undisputed possession of second place by edging the Washington Redskins, 21-14, and the Pittsburgh Steelers walloped the Philadelphia Eagles, 24-3, for their first victory of the season.

The Colts climaxed their thrilling comeback against the Packers in Milwaukee when Nelson intercepted a pass by Bart Starr on the Baltimore 48 and went all the way behind a mountain of blockers. Johnny Unitas also had a big hand in the triumph plunging over for the Colts' first touchdown and tossing a 54-yard scoring pass to Jim Mutscheller.

A crowd of 65,503, the largest turnout for a Cleveland home opener in history, watched Jim Brown blast the Cardinals' line for three touchdowns. M. C. Reynolds, the Cardinals' brilliant rookie passed a pair of touchdowns to All-America John Crowe and another to Gern Nagler. The awesome Browns totaled 332 yards rushing and 122 yards passing.

The Steelers looked like a new club with newly-acquired Bobby Layne at the controls. They turned three Philadelphia fumbles into touchdowns and held the Eagles to 72 yards rushing. Tom Tracy, one of Layne's teammates at Detroit earlier this season, scored twice for the Steelers.

Giant Pass Wins
A 10-yard touchdown pass from Charley Conerly to Ken MacAfee early in the fourth period provided the Giants with their winning margin at Washington. New York scored twice in the opening quarter, on a six-yard run by Frank Gifford and a 41-yard pass from Don Heinrich to Bob Schmelker. However, the "Bskins" tied the score in the second period on a 39-yard aerial from Eddie LeBaron to Jim Podoley and Ed Sutton's end run.

The Colts run into the defending champion Lions next Sunday at Detroit, while the Bears entertain the Rams. San Francisco will visit Philadelphia, Pittsburgh is at Cleveland, New York entertains the Cardinals, and Washington hosts Green Bay in other games.

Paolo Rosi Foe Of Bob Scanlon
San Francisco - (UPI) - Another test between the cautious boxer and the hammer-punch throwing windmill takes place tonight when lightweight Bobby Scanlon meets Paolo Rosi, the balding brawler from Rieti, Italy. Though ranked only 10th, Scanlon is rated from even to 7-5 to add Rosi's scalp to his collection of wins.

SF Owner Hits Roof Over Loss

Chicago - (UPI) - The San Francisco Forty Niners' football fortunes have hit the skids and owner Vic Morabito and head coach Frankie Albert have hit the roof.

"You guys are the worst football players in the world," Morabito roared after his club dropped a 28-6 decision to the Chicago Bears yesterday before a packed house in Wrigley field. It was the Forty-Niners' second league loss. They have won one.

"It's about time you got your rear ends and started playing football," Morabito added. "We haven't got an offense," Albert lamented. "Our defense played 80 plays and our offense only 40 today, and what are nine points in two games worth?"

Omaha Youth To Face Murder Charge
Omaha, Neb. - (UPI) - Authorities today prepared to file charges against a "high strung" Omaha youth who they said signed a statement admitting he killed his parents in an argument over a car.

William Leslie Arnold, 16, took police to his backyard Saturday and showed them where he had buried the bodies of his parents two weeks ago in a shallow grave in a flower bed. An autopsy on the decomposed bodies of his father, William, 42, and mother, Opel, 40, showed he had pumped six bullets into each of his parents from a .22 caliber rifle.

Police said the Arnold youth, a student at Omaha's Central High school, admitted shooting his parents on Sept. 27 when his mother forbade him to use one of the family's two cars for a Saturday night date.

The young coach turned some of this fire on his two quarterbacks, Y. A. Tittle and John Brodie, who had a tough afternoon in the face of a hard-charging Bear line. "Sure there was good pressure on Tittle and Brodie, but they didn't throw the way they're paid to. Sometimes you have to throw from the seat of your pants."

The Forty-Niners drove 53 yards for a score in the first quarter, but were unable to mount a sustained drive after that. Hugh McElhenny spurted 18 yards and 8 yards for the touchdown to highlight the drive.

The San Francisco defense checked the Bears through the first quarter but wilted when the Bears unleashed their will-of-the-wisp speedster Willie Gallimore. Gallimore picked up 74 yards on 14 carries and saw a 46 yard scoring burst called back. Another 23 yard touchdown gallop through the entire Forty-Niner team stayed on the books.

The Bears' great end, Harlon Hill, also sparkled. He caught five passes, including two for touchdowns. Rookie John Morris tallied the other Bear touchdown late in the contest from seven yards out.

Supreme Court To Review Conviction In Spy Conspiracy

The three Virginia laws which the high court agreed to examine were declared unconstitutional last April by a special three-judge federal court in Richmond. Directed against the NAACP, they were passed at a special session of the Virginia Legislature in 1956. Two of them would require the NAACP to file the names and addresses of its members and contributors, as well as complete financial statements. The third involves a redefinition of "barratry," a statute which, the NAACP contends, denies Negroes financial assistance in school segregation suits.

The high court, which will not start handing down written opinions until later, acted in a number of other cases. Among them, it: -Dismissed an appeal by author John Steinbeck, who challenged the constitutionality of New York's gross receipts tax on writers. The action means that Steinbeck is liable for the tax.

Today's session marked the farewell appearance on the bench of Justice Harold H. Burton, who is retiring Tuesday, 6th Circuit Judge Potter Stewart, Cincinnati, Ohio, will be sworn in to take Burton's place.

Appeal by Master Spy
-Agree to review the conviction of Russian master spy Rudolf Ivanovich Abel for conspiring to give U. S. defense secrets to Russia. Abel, convicted a year ago, is now serving a 30-year sentence in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga. He contended in his appeal that he did not get a fair trial. The Supreme Court limited its review to two specific questions dealing with the constitutional ban against illegal searches and seizures.

-Refused to reconsider its June 30 action rejecting a third appeal by New York gambling kingpin Frank Costello from an income tax evasion conviction.

-Refused to review a denaturalization order against Paul DeLucia, better known as Paul (The Waiter) Ricca, Chicago underworld figure. The action leaves standing a lower court ruling upholding the order against Ricca.

-Dismissed an appeal by author John Steinbeck, who challenged the constitutionality of New York's gross receipts tax on writers. The action means that Steinbeck is liable for the tax.

Today's session marked the farewell appearance on the bench of Justice Harold H. Burton, who is retiring Tuesday, 6th Circuit Judge Potter Stewart, Cincinnati, Ohio, will be sworn in to take Burton's place.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibbs, parents of Don Gibbs, left on Friday for their home in Prescott, Ariz., after being guests for a week at the home of their son and family.
