

Turley, Malzone Top Choices On American League All-Star

New York—(UPI)—Pitcher Bob Turley of the world champion New York Yankees and third-baseman Frank Malzone of the Boston Red Sox top the United Press International's 1958 American league all-star team.

Turley, a 21-game winner, was the only unanimous choice of the 24 baseball writers, three from each city in the league, while Malzone, who hit .295 and played his position brilliantly, received all but one vote.

Elmer Valo Sent Down By Dodgers

United Press International

Elmer Valo, who broke into the majors under the late Connie Mack at Philadelphia 18 years ago, apparently has reached the end of the big league trail.

The 37-year-old, Czech-born outfielder was farmed out to Montreal of the International league Tuesday by the Los Angeles Dodgers. He saw only limited service with the Dodgers during the past season, batting .248 in 65 games.

Valo made his major league debut with the old Philadelphia Athletics near the tail end of the 1940 season, hitting .348 in six games. He remained with the A's until 1956 when he was released but later hooked on with the Phillies.

The Phillies traded Elmer to the Dodgers last year in a multi-player deal for shortstop Chico Fernandez.

Best Season 1955

Valo enjoyed his greatest season near the tail end of his career when he batted .364 in 112 games with the A's in 1956.

The Dodgers also sent pitcher Babe Birrer to Montreal in exchange for first baseman Jim Koranda and outfielder Solly Drake. They shipped outfielder Bob Wilson back to St. Paul, brought up shortstop Harry Wallace from the same American association club, and purchased catcher Norm Sherry from Spokane of the Pacific Coast league.

Other major league roster changes:

Detroit Tigers: Purchased infielder Maury Willis from Spokane, promoted infielder Steve Demeter and pitcher Joe Grzenda from Birmingham, purchased infielder Bob Johnson from Charleston.

Chicago White Sox: Acquired pitcher Rodolfo Arias and outfielder Joe Hicks from Indianapolis in exchange for outfielders Ted Beard and Dick Di Tusa.

San Francisco Giants: Promoted first baseman Willie McCovey, catcher Albert Stigliitz and infielder Jose Pagan from Phoenix.

The 10-man team, eight regulars and two pitchers, was comprised of two Yankees, two Red Sox, four Chicago White Sox and one player each from the Cleveland Indians and Kansas City Athletics. Four of the players are ex-Yankees or ex-Yankee farm-hands.

Lollar Catcher

The infield is composed of catcher Sherman Lollar of the White Sox, first-baseman Vic Power of the Indians, the White Sox' double play combination of second-baseman Nelson Fox and Luis Aparicio, and Boston's Malzone. The outfield is made up of Kansas City's Bob Cerv, New York's Mickey Mantle and Boston's Jackie Jensen.

Billy Pierce, the White Sox' little but hard-throwing left-hander, was picked as the team's second pitcher in a close race with Cleveland's Cal McLish and Washington's Dick Hyde.

The team's strength may be judged by the fact that neither American League batting champion Ted Williams nor earned-run leader Whitey Ford made it.

Chieftains Looking to Hoop Slate

By DICK ANDERSON

Seattle—(UPI)—Acting for all the world as if the NCAA and its "black list" never existed, Seattle university, last season's runner-up in the national basketball playoffs, is preparing for the 1958-59 season as if a return trip to Louisville, Ky., was inevitable.

Elgin Baylor-less, banned from NCAA tournament action for two years and with a new head coach, one might expect a so-so attitude around the Chieftain campus. Not so.

There's "Sweet" Charlie Brown, who played brilliantly in the shadow of the fabulous Elgin last season and who may now come into his great, following Baylor and the O'Brien twins, all-American Johnny and Eddie.

Heavy Schedule

The Chieftains have their toughest schedule in history, with more name schools than ever before, including San Francisco, Loyola of Chicago, Bradley, Miami of Ohio, College of Pacific, Portland, Gonzaga, Marshall College at Huntington, W. Va., and Xavier, last season's National Invitational tournament champ.

Coach Vince Cazzetta, who took over the reins from John Castellani when he resigned after the NCAA charges that Castellani offered excessive aid to two prospective athletes, will have virtually the same team intact, less Baylor, of course, and guard Jim Harney.

Baylor had another year of eligibility left, but chose to join the professional ranks with the Minneapolis Lakers.

Cazzetta has returning with Brown, veterans Jerry Frizzell, 6-4 forward; Francis Ogorek, 6-5 forward; and Don Piasecki, 6-2 guard. Oreok has been tabbed as a real "comer" by numerous pro scouts.

Leading the sophomore contingent is Johnny O'Brien (no relation) 6-3½ guard who led the tough Northwest AAU league in scoring during his first year of play.

Casey Signs New Pact

New York—(UPI)—Casey Stengel signed a new contract today to manage the world champion New York Yankees for the next two seasons at a salary that could exceed $100,000 a year.

Stengel was rehired today at his estimated $80,000 annual salary plus a bonus arrangement. For several seasons he has been the highest paid manager in baseball history.

This was the sixth two-year contract given Stengel by General Manager George Weiss since Stengel joined the Yankees in 1949. Weiss and co-owner Dan Topping, with whom Stengel was reported to have had friction lately, both expressed themselves as "mighty happy" that Stengel had decided to return.

Stengel will fly to his home at Glendale, Calif., Thursday.

Giants Call Up Willie McCovey

San Francisco—(UPI)—Willie McCovey, star first baseman for the Phoenix Giants of the Pacific Coast League, has been called up by the San Francisco Giants.

McCovey batted .319 with the PCL pennant-winners the past season.

The Giants also brought up catcher Albert Stigliitz and infielder Jose Pagan. Stigliitz was voted the player most likely to crash the major leagues while with Corpus Christi of the Texas League this season.

Pagan played with Springfield of the Eastern League in his fourth year of professional baseball.

Pel Fans Hope For Upset To Spark Up Grid Season

Can the Klamath Union Pelicans pick themselves up off the gridiron, ruffle up their feathers and luster up a presently gloomy and depressing season by pulling off a stunning upset?

That's a question Whitebird followers are asking as the Klamath Falls club looks to its Southern Oregon conference football scramble with Medford on Friday night. The tussle is set for 8 p.m. at the Medford stadium.

The host Black Tornado is heavy favorite to write up its second District 6 A-1 victory. The record — Well, season records speak for themselves.

There is one direct comparison between the two clubs. In its season opener Klamath Falls lost 47 to 0 to the Marshfield Pirates. Three weeks later Medford nipped the Buccaneers 3 to 0. Klamath shows only one win in five games this fall while the Tornado has been victor in all four it's played.

Beat South Eugene

The Pelicans downed South Eugene 12 to 7 and fell 33 to 6 to Shasta of Redding, Calif., 14 to 7 to Orland, Calif., and 12 to 0 to Springfield. Last week end the Tornado won 26 to 0 over Crater. The Comets at the start of the season were winners, 19 to 0, over Cottage Grove which later tipped the Eugene club 25 to 0. Other Medford verdicts have been 21 to 7 over North Salem and 19 to 0 over David Douglas.

Klamath began this season with 16 letters but has lost two or three of those. It has a young squad with just 10 seniors. Among the returnees, quarterback Blake Griggs, halfback Don Story, end Gary Kranenburg and guard Ron Weber saw quite a bit of duty.

Among the mainstays this season have been ends Kranenburg and Larry Bunyard, tackle Ron Ybarra, guard Gary Hancock, guard and fullback John Hancock, Griggs, halfback Ron Olvera, fullback Ron House.

Take Up Slack

A couple of players, who had quite a bit of service in the line, were dismissed from the crew last week. If they are still missing, Bert Frewing and Ron Weber, both who have played a lot, may take up the slack.

Story and Olvera are the break-away runners in the slot T offense of Coach Andy Knudsen's Pelicans. Story is a sprinter and is shifty. Olvera is not so speedy but his quickness gives him the ability to get loose. House at 180 pounds and John Hancock at 200 are the plungers. Griggs is a good passer and a threat if he has protection and has running ability as well.

At the center spot Charlton Curran is reported out for the season because of torn ligament.

HALL OF FAME

Baltimore, Md.—(UPI)—Jimmy McLaughlin and Edward Snapper Garrison, saddle stars of the 1880's, and Laverne Fator, a contemporary of Earl Sande in the Roaring Twenties, today were elected to the National Jockeys Hall of Fame at Pimlico. More than 1,000 sports writers and broadcasters throughout the nation gave McLaughlin 275 votes with Fator getting 258 and Garrison 250.

HILL AT FULLBACK

Los Angeles—(UPI)—Former end Hillard Hill was working today on his new role as the University of Southern California's fullback. Hill, named to the spot Monday by Coach Don Clark, put in a good performance Tuesday during a workout session in which he broke loose several times for good gains and received a couple of passes from Quarterback Tom Maudlin.

MEMO TO ADVERTISERS

The Hallmark of Circulation Value

In the same way that STERLING on silver signifies a standard of known value, so is the A.B.C. emblem a symbol of integrity for the circulation of newspapers and periodicals. It means that circulation so identified is measured according to the rules and standards of the AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS.

The A.B.C. is a cooperative and non-profit association of 3,450 publishers, advertisers and advertising agencies. Organized in 1914, these buyers and sellers of advertising brought order out of advertising chaos by setting up standards for paid circulation and establishing rules and methods for measuring, auditing and reporting circulations.

Therefore, the work of the A.B.C., of which this newspaper is proud to be a member, provides you with a direct and valuable service. You can buy advertising as you would make any other sound business investment — on the basis of well known standards, known values.

At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors makes a thorough audit of our circulation records. The results of this exacting audit show: How much circulation we have; where our circulation goes; how it was obtained; and many other FACTS that you need in order to know just what you get for your advertising dollars. This audited information is published by the Bureau in easy-to-read A.B.C. reports which are available to our advertisers on request. Ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.

Gil Turner Has Weight Margin

Montreal—(UPI)—Gil Turner, fourth-ranked welterweight, will enjoy a distinct weight advantage tonight when he meets speedy Ralph Dupas of New Orleans in a 10-round bout.

Turner, 27, of Philadelphia, has been more active lately in the middleweight division. He is expected to just get under the 152-pound contract limit tonight while the sixth-rated Dupas will come in around 144 or 145.

U.S. Runs 3rd In Pentathlon

Aldershot, England—(UPI)—The United States team held down third place behind Russia and Hungary today at the start of the third round of competition in the world modern pentathlon championships.

Ivan Novkov, a 29-year-old Russian teacher, won the individual fencing title Tuesday to retain his overall lead and move the Soviets farther ahead in the race for the team title.

With three events remaining, Russia topped the 12 competing nations with 5,440 points. Hungary held second with 4,568 and the U.S. was third with 4,531.
