

Lebanon Civil War Threat Eases

Beirut, Lebanon - (UP) - The Christian supporters of former President Camille Chamoun swung their support Wednesday to a new four-man emergency cabinet and the threat of open civil war receded sharply.

The four-man cabinet headed by Prime Minister Rashid Karami was announced to the public shortly after midnight. Many persons believed it could end the nation's five bloody months of civil strife.

The new government came just in time to avert a general strike by trade unionists which would have left the nation without electricity, water and transport. And it would be expected to expedite the withdrawal of American troops.

The new Karami cabinet was made up of Karami, moderate opposition leader Jan Busein Owini, and two Christians - Phalangist chief Pierre Gemayel and independent Christian political leader Raymond Eddor.

It had the support of all the nation's warring factions including the pre-Chamoun Phalangists who have battled government forces since President Faud Chehab named rebel-leader Karami to the premiership.

Economy-Sized Sub Completes Test

Honolulu - (UP) - The economy-sized nuclear submarine Sargo has arrived at Pearl Harbor after "an uneventful" shakedown and training cruise from Marie Island, Calif.

The Sargo, smaller and less expensive than the Nautilus, made the trip in just four hours short of six days.

The skipper, Cmdr. Daniel Brooks, of Orange, Calif., said the Sargo "performed beautifully in all respects" and made the trip underwater except for surfacing and diving six times for training.

The Sargo is the first nuclear-powered sub to be assigned to the Pacific fleet. She will remain in Hawaiian waters for two weeks and then return to California for a check by the ship builders.

ALL FOR ONE
Framingham, Mass. - (UP) - The nation's oldest triplet sisters have a new home. At the age of 90, Mrs. Anne Faith MacDonell, Mrs. Ellen Hope Daniels and Mrs. Nora Charity Murphy have moved from Marlboro to Cushing hospital, the state's institution for the aged here.
