Taxpayer Saving Cited by Holmes

Salem - (UP) - Reduced state government expenditures this biennium will save Oregon taxpayers some $3 million, Gov. Robert D. Holmes announced Wednesday.

The report was based on estimates by the State Finance Department of amounts various state agencies will turn back to the general fund at the end of the biennium as unspent appropriations.

"This represents a substantial reduction, a large part of which is the result of tighter budget and administrative controls put into effect last year by the finance department," Holmes said.

Biggest turnback to the general fund is expected from basic school support appropriations where payments were considerably below what was anticipated by the Legislature. This is estimated at $764,000.

The $3 million will be returned to the general fund and added to the surplus which had previously been estimated to be $30 million at the end of the biennium, June 30, 1959.

Salem Said Not Off Limits To Russians

Salem - (UP) - Salem isn't off limits to Russians after all. Gov. Robert D. Holmes has been advised that Igor Berodni, Russian concert violinist, will be permitted to keep his appearance here March 11, and that rulings that he could not were all a mistake.

The word came from the State Department through the Washington, D. C., office of Sen. Wayne Morse, who had been asked to check on the situation after Wilamette University's capitol city was off limits to Russians.

The State Department said Salem was listed as a closed area through inadvertence.

South Los Angeles Area Feels Quakes

Norwalk, Calif. - (UP) - Two sharp shocks believed to have been earthquakes rattled dishes and windows Wednesday in a large area of south Los Angeles county.

The sheriff's office reported about 80 persons called to inquire about the jolts which came within seconds of each other shortly after 2:30 a.m. (p.s.t.)

The shocks were felt mostly in the suburban areas of Paramount, Bellflower and South Gate.

No damage was reported.
