

Auburn Places Win String in Jeopardy

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
Auburn puts its 17-game winning streak in jeopardy and Wisconsin places its Big Ten title hopes on the line Saturday in the top games of a college football schedule "loaded" with conference battles and potential upsets.

Army's top-rated Cadets, 14-2 conquerors of Notre Dame, are a 27-point choice over Virginia in what appears to be a "breather" but most of the other top 10 teams face formidable opposition.

Auburn, considered the country's No. 1 defensive team, goes for its 18th consecutive victory against a Georgia Tech team which has beaten Florida State, Tulane and Tennessee after an opening 13-0 loss to Kentucky. Auburn is rated a seven-point pick but the game is expected to be a hard-fought defensive battle which could be decided by a break.

Badgers Slight Favorite

Wisconsin, the nation's third-ranked team, has piled up 101 points against a combined total of six for three opponents but is picked by only seven points over Iowa.

Notre Dame is expected to rebound from the loss to Army by beating Duke handily in the day's top intersectional contest. In other intersections, sixth-ranked Navy plays Tulane, North Texas State is at Brigham Young, the Air Force Academy plays Stanford, Nebraska is at Syracuse, and Pitt is favored over West Virginia.

Ninth-ranked Louisiana State, with a surprising 4-0 record, has an important Saturday night date with Kentucky. Vanderbilt is at Florida and Alabama at Tennessee in other Southeastern Conference games.

Buckeyes Over Indiana
Ohio State, ranked fourth, is a heavy choice over Indiana, fifth-ranked Michigan plays tough Purdue, Minnesota meets Illinois and Michigan opposes Northwestern in the other Big 10 games.

Oklahoma, which fell from the top 10 for the first time since 1953 after last Saturday's defeat, figures to get back on the winning trail against Big Eight opponent Kansas. Colorado is at Iowa State and Missouri at Kansas State in other Big Eight games.

McMurtry Underdog To Chualvo

New York — (UP) — Heavyweight contender George Chualvo, who once knocked out four men in 90 minutes, is favored at 7-5 to beat classically trained Pat McMurtry tonight in their twin TV and New York debuts at Madison Square Garden.

Fresh from winning the Canadian title on a first-round kayo, dark-haired, bull-shouldered Chualvo of Toronto, Ont., will square off against Irish Pat, the clever, hard-hitting ex-Marine sergeant from Tacoma, Wash., at 6 p.m. (P.S.T.).

Their 10-rounder will be televised and broadcast nationally. From their battle of attractive "new faces" may emerge a winner who can help restore the waning prestige of heavyweights on this side of the Atlantic as a result of upset victories by Europeans over our Zora Folley, Eddie Machen, Willie Pastrano and Argentina's Alex Miteff. Neither George nor Pat has been stopped or even felled.

Pepsi Drive Gains $1,600 For Crater High Stadium

Central Point — Approximately $1,600 was raised last week in the first of a series of projects in District 6C to provide funds for completion of a stadium at Crater High school here.

The money represents the proceeds from sales of large bottles of Pepsi-Cola throughout the district plus other contributions. The soft drink sold for $1 per bottle. Dr. Bruce Turner, chairman of the special committee coordinating the stadium fund campaign, said that about 1,400 bottles of Pepsi-Cola were sold.

Stuhldreher Gains Grid Fame Hall

New Brunswick, N.J.—(UP) — Harry Stuhldreher today joined Elmer Layden as the second of the legendary four horsemen of Notre Dame to be elected to the football Hall of Fame.

Stuhldreher, quarterback of the Notre Dame 1922-24 backfield that included Layden, Jim Crowley and Rip Miller, was one of nine new members named to the hall.

The six living selectees will be honored at the first award dinner of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame at the Hotel Astor in New York, Oct. 28.

President Eisenhower plans to be on hand to greet the newcomers. The President also will be honored with the foundation's first Gold Medal award for his contributions to amateur football.

Named to the hall in a poll of the nation's football writers, broadcasters, sports information directors and fans were:

Stuhldreher, Marshall Goldberg, halfback and fullback at Pittsburgh (1936-38); Francis (Pug) Lund, Minnesota's All-America halfback (1933-34); Harry Kipke, Michigan halfback (1922) and Wolverine coach for 10 years; Frank John (Dutch) Schwab, guard at Lafayette (1921-22); Harry Killinger (Cy) Young, halfback and quarterback Washington and Lee (1913-15); Charles Barnett (deceased), quarterback at Cornell (1913-15); David C. Campbell (deceased), end at Harvard (1899-1901); and Thomas Albert Dwight (Tad) Jones (deceased), halfback at Yale and Coach at Yale and Syracuse.

MEDFORD TRIBUNE SPORTS

Wisconsin, Iowans In Big 10 Spotlight

Chicago — (UP) — The Big Ten football turns to Madison, Wis., Saturday where the "big game" pits Coach Milt Bruhn's Wisconsin Badgers against Iowa.

The surprising Badger powerhouse, winner of three straight while yielding only a single touchdown, will be out for its second conference victory.

The Badgers defeated Purdue last week for their first conference success. Iowa, which bounced back to beat Indiana after being held to a tie by the underdog Air Force Academy, needs a victory to stay in the race and live up to its role as a potential champ for 1958. The Badgers are seven-point favorites.

Ohio State, Michigan, Michigan State and Illinois also were favored to win Saturday.

The Buckeyes, who have produced three squeaky victories to drop down into the No. 4 national rating, were seen as 20 points better than Indiana. Coach Woody Hayes needs an impressive win after narrowly getting by Illinois last week.

Michigan, which held arch-rival Michigan State to a tie in its only conference encounter, was a tight four-point choice over Coach Ara Parseghian's Wildcats from Northwestern. Northwestern, conqueror of Minnesota last week, seeks its fourth straight of the season, and will be the underdog for the third time.

Michigan State was a one-touchdown pick over Purdue in a bid to enter the Big Ten's first division and hand the Boilermakers their second setback.

Illinois, loser of three straight, plays Minnesota at Minneapolis as a three-point favorite.

GAMBEE SCORES
Alton, Ill.—(UP)—Rookie Dave Gambee from Oregon State scored 11 points for the St. Louis Hawks Wednesday night as they defeated Minneapolis 107-91 in an exhibition pro basketball game. Elgin Baylor, formerly of Seattle, hit 10 points for the losers.

Poll Called On District Alignment

Roseburg — (UP) — A poll is planned in class A-1 high schools in districts 5, 6 and 8 to see if they favor a re-districting asked by three schools in the Eugene area.

South Eugene, North Eugene and Springfield submitted the request and a five-man committee drafted a questionnaire calling for a yes or no answer.

The questionnaire said that under the suggested change the new districts would be as follows:

- DISTRICT 5—Willamette, Cottage Grove, Ashland, Crater and North Bend.
- DISTRICT 6—Klamath Falls, Grants Pass, Medford, Marshfield and Roseburg.
- DISTRICT 8—Springfield, North and South Eugene, Corvallis, Lebanon, Sweet Home, South Salem, North Salem and Albany.

Layne Denies Rote Dispute

Pittsburg — (UP) — Bobby Layne, newly acquired Pittsburgh Steeler quarterback, emphasized today "once and for all" that he never had a dispute with Detroit Lion star Tobin Rote.

"That's a lot of bunk that 'Tobe and I didn't get along," said Layne, who came here from the Lions last week in a trade for quarterback Earl Morrall. "Tobe and I never had a cross word. Sure, I know some of the newspapers play it up that way. But it's simply not true."

Rumors persist that Layne and Rote had been cool to each other because they shared the quarterback duties with the Lions. But Layne wanted to go on record that he bore no ill will towards his former teammate.

Hornet Eleven Tops Ashlanders

Hedrick Junior high gridmen topped Ashland 19 to 6 yesterday in eighth grade action.

The Hornets crossed the goal on a reverse with Roy Ross going 40 yards, a pass-lateral, Gib Mitchell to Roy Shaw to Dan Miles, for 35 yards and four-yard boom by Jim Bandy.

Ashland's TD was on a 55-yard pass play and the score was 6-each at halftime.

Lincoln, Grove Grid Winners

Lincoln scored its second victory and Oak Grove its first yesterday in American league games in city grade school football.

Oak Grove defeated Wilson 2 to 0 and Lincoln turned back Hoover 7 to 0.

For Oak Grove Phil Rupp tallied on a quarterback sneak. He passed to Wade Thomas for 15 yards and a touchdown after a 30-yard airial gain with the same combination set it up.

Lincoln with a strong line marched to a first half TD in a tight game.

Stan Solomon Pacing Rushers

Portland — (UP) — Stan Solomon of Willamette has once again taken over first place in the Northwest conference in rushing with 505 yards in four games for a 7.8 average.

Jack Nehring of Pacific is second with 470 yards and a 4.9 average while Gary Grill of Lewis and Clark is third with 441 although having the best average at 8.6.

Charlie Alvaro of College of Idaho tops the passers with 465 yards with 31 completions in 81 attempts. Hank Crawford of Linfield has caught 17 passes for 186 yards. Keith Driver of Willamette holds the punting lead with a 38.8 average.

Willamette leads in total offense with 1497, or a 376.3 per game average.

Bill Wall, Willamette end, was named "lineman of the week" and Ken Brocke, College of Idaho, was named "back of the week."

League Votes Team Ineligible

Hillsboro — (UP) — Vernonia High school, which got into the class B Sunset Football league this fall because of an expected enrollment drop to 135 students, found itself out of playoffs today.

League principals decided unanimously to make Vernonia ineligible for state playoffs because attendance passed 150 students, the limit for B schools. The Oregon School Activities association told the league to make its own decision. Other loop members include Gaston, Corbett, Tillamook Catholic, Knappa, Nehalem and Star of the Sea.
