

NEWS CONFERENCE—At his latest news conference in Washington, President Eisenhower sharply criticized the involvement of American foreign policy in the current political campaign. The President also said the U. S. is not going to try to coerce Chiang Kai-shek into reducing his Chinese Nationalist forces on Quemoy and the other off-shore islands.

HORNBROOK Handbooks Distributed

By CATHERINE CHAPMAN
Hornbrook — Members of the local Boy Scout troop distributed the "Handbook for Emergencies" last Saturday, leaving one at every home and place of business in the community.

The booklet, put out by the office of defense and civilian mobilization deals with preparedness in the face of such natural disaster as accidents, fires, floods and storms, and such man-made disasters as enemy attack with nuclear weapons. It is being distributed throughout the country by the Boy Scouts of America as part of a nation-wide "Safety Good Turn" service program.

Anyone in the community not having one of the informative booklets may obtain one by contacting Scoutmaster Harley Baker, or any member of the Boy Scout troop.
