

News About Books From the Library

One of the special aims of the Jackson county library is to build up its service to businessmen. For their convenience all of its community branch agencies are now open one evening each week.

The professional services of a reference librarian are available at the Medford Public Library headquarters on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday evening; and telephone inquiries may be made by any resident of the Jackson county library district at any time the library is open.

Among the past fortnight's new books are the following books for businessmen, any of which may be borrowed upon request through any Jackson county branch library.

Business: The Handbook of Advanced Time — Motion Study, Sylvester; Successful Industrial Selling, Seitz; The Businessman's Book of Quotations, Woods; Labor and the Law, Gregory; Bargaining with Organized Labor, Smyth; The Man in Management, Steekle; How to Supervise People, Cooper.

Other new books are: Biography: Friend of Life, Gray; Mr. Churchill's Secretary, Nel; Ann Frank, Schnabel; Norman Vincent Peale, Gordon; Anatomy of Me, Hurst.

Travel and Adventure: But I Wouldn't Want to Live There, Jimenez; Challenge of the Unknown, Hillary; Kings Without Castles, Crockett; Japan, the Official Guide, Tourist Industry Bureau; Reveille for a Persian Village, Najafi; New Song in a Strange Land, Warner; Our Vanishing Landscape, Sloane; Arctic World, Euller; War Fish, Gridler; Thunderbolt, Johnson.

Officers Recover

Body From Klamath
Klamath Falls—(UPI)—State police and sheriff's deputies recovered the body of Hal Furman, 45, Klamath Falls, from the water of Klamath lake about 3 p.m. Thursday.

Furman, with his son, Hal Jr., and James Cline, 44, set out in a 14-foot boat Tuesday to cross the lake and hunt deer. The boat was found Wednesday swamped at the south end of the lake. The body of Cline was recovered just off the west shore. The boy's body has not been found.

Gallowglass, Breslin: The Day on Fire, Ullman; Don Juan, Toman; The Burning Man, Longstreet; The Joyful Beggar, Del Wohl; Warlock, Hall; The Takers of the City, Hays.

Western Stories: The Arizona Stirrup, Prebble; The Arizona Clan, Grey; Brand of a Man, Thompson.

Mysteries: The Eighth Circle, Ellin; Many Brave Hearts, Douglass; You've Got Him Cold, Dewey; . . . Or Be He Dead, Carmichael; Madam, Will You Talk? Stewart; The New York Murders, Queen; Tether's End, Allingham.

Teen-age: More New Games for Tween-agers, MacFarlan; Dead Man's Gold, Stackpole; Borrowed Brother, Means; Moog, Marsh; The Hollow, Liggett.
