Two Seek Flight Endurance Record

Las Vegas, Nev. – (UPI) –A Las Vegas businessman and a Hughes Aircraft company executive from Anaheim, Calif., will take off today in a second attempt to break the world's light plane endurance flight record.

Businessman Robert Timm, 33, and his co-pilot, Charles Kaskela, 32, were forced to set down on a dry lake in the desert near here Sunday because of carburetor trouble after staying aloft less than 24 hours on their first attempt.

They said they expected to take off at about noon in their single-engine Cessna 172 to better the 50-day record set last month by Bill Hurkhart and Jim Heath, Dallas, Tex.

During the flight, which they hope will last for 60 days, the plane and its occupants will take on fuel and supplies while in the air.

Body of Woman Found in Trunk

Denver – (UPI) – A woman whose body was found stuffed in a steamer trunk may have been the victim of a strangulation killer, Coroner C. Douglas Andrews said today.

An autopsy by the country coroner's office indicated the unidentified woman may have died by strangulation. Andrews said further tests were necessary before this could be established definitely, however.

The woman had been dead three or four days when her body was found Saturday.

Robert Helfrick, Littleton, Colo., said he was out rabbit hunting near Castle Rock, using two beagle hounds. He said as soon as he let the dogs out of his car they dashed straight to an old uprooted tree trunk.

Behind the tree trunk was the steamer trunk. Helfrick got in touch with police, who had to pry the trunk open.

Jack Benny to Head Heart Sunday

Los Angeles –(UPI)– Veteran comedian Jack Benny has been named national chairman of the American Heart Association's "Heart Sunday" drive to collect funds for medical research, it was announced today.

Benny, who has worked with the association since 1949, will direct some 1,500,000 volunteer workers who will solicit contributions in their communities throughout the nation during February, 1959. Heart Sunday has been set for Feb. 22.

On Oct. 26 the comedian will be presented with the "Heart and Torch" award in San Francisco for his efforts in previous fund drives.

Auto Dealers Seek Removal of Tax

Washington– –(UPI) — Dean Chaffin, president of the National Automobile Dealers association, described the federal excise tax on new automobiles as 10 per cent luxury tax "for a human necessity preceded only by food, clothing and shelter."

Chaffin urged auto dealers and motorists to campaign for removal of the tax as the "quickest and most direct method of reducing the cost of a new car." He said the tax was imposed to discourage auto buying during wartime and "these conditions do not apply now."

The Minute Men of Lexington waited in Buckman Tavern for the British to show up after Paul Revere's warning that the Redcoats were coming. The tavern, built in 1690, is now a tourist attraction.

Dearborn Retiring From Safety Council

Chicago – (UPI) – Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, bid farewell to delegates attending the 46th National Safety Congress today by warning that the safety movement still has a long way to go.

Dearborn, who is retiring, spoke at the opening session of the week-long congress which is being attended by about 12,500 persons.

"This talk is given with the conviction that the seriousness of accident prevent deserves the most vigorous emphasis and reemphasis of which we are capable."

He said the "most effective instrument in the prevention of accidents" is the doctrine of moral responsibility, and he urged delegates to preach and practice the doctrine.

Film Stars Face Income Tax Quiz

Los Angeles – (UPI) – Several top Hollywood stars including Gordon Macrae and Van Johnson, along with Del Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees, were slated to appear in federal tax court today to contest the government's claim that they are behind in income tax payments.

Melvin Sears, regional counsel for the Bureau of Internal Revenue, said tax records show Van Johnson owes $117,497; Macrae, $139,938, and Webb, $15,260. The hearing involves government claims totaling more than $100 million.

Other defendants included Alexander Carson, husband of actress Carol Channing, on a claim of $40,609; Mrs. Charlotte M. Douglas, wife of aircraft tycoon Donald Douglas Sr., $7,997, and the estate of the late actor Louis Calhern on a claim of $24,658.

VERY USED CARS

Sarsota, Fla. – (UPI) – The country's largest display of old automobiles is located here—75 ancient machines which have been fully restored. The shiney display includes models dating from the 1897 Duryea Buggaut to sports models of the roaring 20's.
