Jim Stinnette Suffers Injury
Corvallis is (UPI) — The condition of ace fullback Jim Stinnette who played a key role in Oregon State's 20-6 victory over Idaho Saturday, remained a question mark today while team physicians looked over an ankle he injured in the game.

Stinnette, along with fullback Nub Beamer and Dainard Paulson, sparked a ground-eating attack which pulled Oregon State into the lead moments before halftime.

The injury occurred during a 52-yard rambles which set up one of the Oregon State touchdowns and he was forced to leave the game. He picked up 103 yards rushing in all, Paulson 102 and Beamer 61.

Forty Niner Crew Tips Eagle Pros

San Francisco (UPI) — Coach Frankie Albert had nothing but kind words for his San Francisco Forty Niners today following their 30-24 defeat of the Philadelphia Eagles before 33,110 fans in Philadelphia.

The scene was quite a contrast to the atmosphere after last week's loss to the Chicago Bears when Albert and owner Vic Morabito administered a violent tongue-lashing to the team within earshot of reporters.

The Bears seemed to crumble shortly after Wade threw his touchdown pass in the first period. Paige Cothren attempted a field goal from the 48-yard line which was blocked by the Bears' Erich Barnes who picked it up and dashed 41 yards for the tying touchdown.

Before the period was closed George Bolanda kicked a field goal from the 24 yard line to give the Bears a 10-7 edge.

The Bears increased their lead in the second period when Willie Galimore capped a 47-yard push with a touchdown plunge from the one to bring the first half to an end with the Bears leading 17-7.

The third quarter was scoreless except for a 22-yard field goal by Cothren which left the Rams trailing by only 7 points going into the fourth and final period.

Bears Hand Rams 31-10 Plastering

Los Angeles (UPI) — The Los Angeles Rams, starting from Sunday's 31-10 defeat at the hands of the Chicago Bears, were back home today sharpening their horns for next Sunday's game with the Detroit Lions.

The Rams were overpowered by a combination of the Bears' strong defense and a string of telling penalties which never let them really get going after the first period.

Rams' quarterback Billy Wade connected with a 92-yard scoring pass to Del Shofner in the fourth scrimmage play of the game and his second throw to give the 48,326 fans a hint that more was to come.

Fist Fight In La Grande

United Press International
Oregon Tech routed Oregon College Conference defending champion Southern Oregon Saturday at Klamath Falls, 40-0, to record its third OCC football victory this season. The Owls allowed Southern Oregon to penetrate only twice into Oregon Tech territory, and then not beyond the 46-yard line.

Oregon College of Education kept on its winning pace with a 22-7 decision over Portland State. The victory was OEC's second straight in conference play and for the Vikings it was the third loss against no wins.

Kirkos Booted
In a non-conference contest Eastern Oregon was defeated by the Westminster Parsons of Salt Lake at La Grande 20-12, in a game that erupted in a fist fight between the teams in the second period which resulted in small college All-American candidate Larry Kirkos being kicked out of the game.

The fight broke out on the Westminster 31-yard line. Game officials ejected Kirkos, 220-pound Westminster tackle. The incident sent the entire Eastern Oregon and Westminster teams to the field where punches were thrown for several minutes before game officials restored order. No one was seriously hurt.

Injured Gridder Now at Home

Mike Hood, Medford high school football player who suffered a concussion Friday in the football game with Klamath Falls, is now at home and "up and around a bit."

He is to remain at home until Thursday or Friday and will be out of football action for at least a couple of weeks when another thorough check-up is planned.

His mother, Mrs. Kenneth Hood, said that Mike "has quite a bump on his head."

The gridder suffered his injury when he stopped a Klamath ball carrier with a headon tackle. He was taken to Sacred Heart hospital by Medford Ambulance service.

Webfoots Look At Game Films

Eugene (UPI) — The Oregon Webfoots planned to watch films today of their 6-0 loss at the hands of the Cougars of Washington State and Coach Len Casanova predicted there would "be some changes made" before the Ducks tangle with California next week end.

Casanova said at least two Webfoots came out of the Washington State fracas with minor injuries. Team captain Ron Stover was sidelined in the third period with a bruised left leg and guard Joe Schaffel hurt a knee but neither injury was expected to keep the first stringers out of the game at Berkeley. Casanova praised the work of Wildard Reeve, second unit guard from North Bend.
