ILLINOIS VALLEY Panel Discussion Set

By RUTH RAUSCH
Cave Junction — A panel discussion on teenage problems will be conducted by Judge Orval J. Millard, Dr. William J. Moore, John Waterau, Grants Pass juvenile officer and the Rev. Gene Denning at the Illinois Valley High school PTA meeting Thursday, Oct. 23, at the high school.

A progress report will also be given on the PTA minstrel show, "Georgia Jubilee," which will be presented this year as the organizations one money making project, which is used for the PTA scholarship fund. It is hoped the show will net enough to meet the scholarship requirements and provide enough more to furnish a curtain for the new high school stage.

Mrs. Clyde Connors of McClary, Wash., mother of James Cooke, has been visiting friends and relatives in the valley for the past two weeks. Mrs. Connors is the former Lela Parsons of O'Brien.

The Illinois Valley Chamber of Commerce has named Mrs. Valeria Rauber as representative to the public hearing and discussion on the routing of the re-location of highway 199 from Gasquet, which will be the first step in the improvement program for Route 199. The meeting will be in Crescent City on Monday, Oct. 20.

Mrs. Rauber will report the results of the meeting to the chamber. Being an out of state resident, she will have no voice in the hearing.

Two engagements have been announced this week. Lorna Jeanne Tyler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Tyler of Donald D. Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Warren of Selma. Both are graduates of Illinois Valley high school. The bride-elect graduated with the class of 1958 and is now employed at the Valley Drug. Warren was of the class of 1954 and is now serving with the U. S. Air Force. The

Alabama Negroes Test Driver Option

Birmingham, Ala. —UP— Charges filed Monday against 13 Negroes set the stage for a legal test of Birmingham's "driver option" policy on bus seating.

The Negroes, nine men and four women, were lodged in city jail Monday on charges of disorderly conduct, conspiracy to commit a breach of the peace and conspiracy to cause a breach of the peace. They were placed under bond of $900 each.

The Negroes boarded two buses and took front seats Monday after a meeting with integration leader Rev. F. L. Shuttlesworth. The action followed the city commission's recent repeal of bus segregation laws and adoption of a substitute ordinance leaving the seating of passengers up to the Birmingham Transit Co.

The seating laws had been under attack in the courts.

Polio Vaccination Lack Risks Health

Washington—UP—Arthur S. Flemming, secretary of Health Education and Welfare, warned Monday that lack of polio vaccinations is "needlessly risking the health and happiness of thousands of our children and young people."

Flemming said the number of paralytic polio cases increased this year for the first time since the Salk vaccine became available. He blamed "indifference" on the part of parents for a lag in vaccinations.

He told a news conference that there were 1,815 cases of paralytic polio during the first nine months of this year, 238 more than in the same period of 1957.

Property Tax Bill Jolts Householders

Portland—UP—Many householders in Multnomah county got a jolt Monday when their property tax notices arrived in the mail. Taxes have gone up.

The county assessor and tax collection department said property taxation is up an average of about 13 per cent over last year. Listing some of the factors involved, Assessor Wiley Smith said in some cases residential land was reappraised and at 100 per cent of true cash value which shifted part of the tax burden paid by commercial property to residential property.

Also, last year's state Legislature revised a law so that taxpayers in Portland are paying a rural school tax for the first time. In addition, taxpayers approved bond issues last spring calling for new tax levies this fall.
