

Portland Wins 'Battle of Fairs'

Portland—(UPI)—Portland won the "battle of the fairs" Tuesday. The competition, the city of San Francisco, dropped out.

The U. S. Chamber of Commerce reported the San Francisco decision to the Portland Chamber of Commerce.

What happened was this: First, Oregon announced it would have an International Trade Fair as a feature of the state's 1959 Centennial celebration. The Portland fair was to run from June 10 to June 24.

Then fair promoters announced in San Francisco that the Bay city was planning a fair too, from June 4 to the 14.

Mayor Terry D. Schunk protested to San Francisco's mayor. Letters were exchanged between officials of the two cities.

The Portland Chamber said that the San Francisco fair has now been postponed until 1960, the year after the trade fair here.

Edith Green Cites Congress Failures

Portland—(UPI)—Rep. Edith Green, Democratic candidate for Congress, told the Multnomah County Labor Council here that Republicans voted against the Kennedy-Ives bill to regulate labor unions in order to have a campaign issue.

Mrs. Green termed defeat of the Kennedy-Ives bill and the school construction measure as the two major failures of the last Congress. In the House, she said, 137 Republicans voted against the labor measure and 61 for it. One hundred and forty-nine Democrats voted for the bill and 61 were opposed, she said.

Homecoming Activities Planned at SOC Campus

Ashland—(UPI)—Oregon: A Century of Progress is the theme of this year's Homecoming celebration at Southern Oregon college Nov. 7-8. Dick Clark, student body president, has announced.

Included in the activities will be the all-campus variety show, a parade, a rally and bonfire, a lawn decoration in keeping with the Centennial theme, the Homecoming game with Eastern Oregon college and an alumni dance.

Crowning of the Homecoming queen will be at the Homecoming assembly, which will be held Nov. 5. Queen candidates are Honor Stansbury, Jan Burkhardt, Carrol Furre, Sue Burke, Lorna Vance, and Sonja Smith.

Parade Saturday

The parade will be held on Saturday, Nov. 8, through downtown Ashland. It will consist of floats and high school bands from Ashland, Phoenix, Talent, Crater, Jack-

CENTRAL POINT FFA to Print Booklet

By DORIS HUGHES

Central Point—As a service to farmers in the area, the Crater Future Farmers of America chapter will edit a monthly news booklet.

The publication, which will be about 15 pages in length, will contain articles ranging from farm buildings to veterinary medicines. Farmers interested in receiving the free booklet, but who are not on the regular mailing list, are asked to call Normandy 4-1103. The first issue will be published in November and it will be printed monthly thereafter until November, 1959.

Boys who have expressed interest in the editing of the booklet are Nate Banery, Larry Ryerson, Dave Foote, and Howard Misner. They are to be interviewed by the executive council.

Don Denning, Crater FFA Chapter reporter, announced that Dave Foote has been interviewed by the executive council for chairmanship of the Crater FFA chapter radio program. The boys plan for the program to be on the air by November. It will consist of the market report and several items of news of interest to farmers in this area.

Last year the program was sponsored by radio station KMED, Medford. Chairman of the program last year was

Prince Philip Due For Canadian Visit

Ottawa—(UPI)—Prince Philip returns here next week for one of his increasingly frequent Canadian visits.

This time he is not coming as the husband of the queen but rather as the president of the English-speaking Union of the Commonwealth, which with its American counterpart, holds a conference here Oct. 26-31.

Mike Redmond, who is chapter treasurer this year. Other boys interested in the radio program are Nate Banery and Tom Wilson.

Jim Frink, a Crater High school sophomore, was recently elected septennial of the Crater FFA chapter. Frink has been enrolled in vocational agriculture for two years. During that time he has been outstanding both scholastically and socially. He was on the chapter parliamentary team last year and has participated in many television programs.

Last Thursday the Crater FFA chapter presented a program on KBES-TV. The purpose was to announce the adult agriculture classes at Crater High school and to review past events which have taken place at the Crater chapter. Speakers were Gary Dusenberry, Mike Redland, Nate Barney, Pete Melstedt, Dave Pratt, Calvin Rhodes, Don Denning and Dave Foote.

The Central Point Parent Teachers association will hold a rummage sale from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 at the Gleason building in Central Point.

The PTA has asked members to supply outgrown or unused clothing. The prices will be reasonable and there will be plenty of good warm clothing for children and adults. The racks will be restocked for the second day of the sale. Money from the sale will be used for the school. Those having articles to donate may take them to room 1 at the Central Point Junior High school or they may call Mrs. Eloy Sutton at NORmandy 4-2795.

Den 11, Pack 40, Cub Scouts, made a trip to the Medford airport last week. The Cubs toured a Pacific Air Lines plane, the tower and the weather bureau.

Boys on the tour were Johnny Wilson, Jim Wilson, Rex Johnson, Hugh Hunter, Donald Davis, Roger Hyland and Ronald Larson. Accompanying the boys were Connie Wilson, Mrs. Curtis Johnson and Mrs. Harold Wilson, Den Mother. The boys of Den 11 now plan to make a model airport to show at the November Pack meeting.

Pack 40, Cub Scouts, will meet Oct. 27 at 7:30 p.m. in the library of the Central Point Junior High school. More Den Mothers are needed.

Recent guests at the Harold R. Hughes home in Central Point were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Olson of Forest Grove and Mrs. Robert Klingsporn and Linda, Bobby and Scott, of Aloha, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. Olson are Mrs. Hughes' parents, and Mrs. Klingsporn is her sister.

A guest Thursday night and Friday at the home of Charles L. and Harold R. Hughes was their brother Sfc. Lloyd E. Hughes of Ft Ord, Calif.

California Man Cited by Police

Edward C. Burkhardt, Porterville, Calif., was cited by Medford police Monday afternoon for driving the wrong way on a one way street.

But he may have something to say about it to a certain member of his family. Burkhardt was not in the car at the time, Pauline Theras Burkhardt, was.

The police report stated that the Burkhardt car was parked facing the wrong way on Main st. between Front st. and Central ave. The motor was running. Burkhardt had gone into a store.

Pauline Burkhardt said she reached over to switch off the ignition, and the car jumped forward and ran into a second, properly parked, car.

A policeman arrived to investigate the collision, and Burkhardt, on returning to his car, was issued the citation.

Police later explained that the fact a car is parked facing the wrong way is prima facie evidence it was driven the wrong way in order to get there in the first place. And Burkhardt, reportedly, had driven it.

Gordon MacRae Due To Contest Charges

Los Angeles—(UPI)—Singer Gordon MacRae was scheduled to appear in federal Tax Court today to contest the government's claim that he owes nearly $140,000 in back income taxes.

MacRae and his wife, Sheila, spent the day in court Tuesday waiting to appear before Judge Bruce M. Forrester but hearing on their suit was delayed by arguments on a $197,570 claim against the Del Mar Corp., and its principal stockholder, oilman Coy Burpitt.

Last Monday the court settled a $15,260 suit against Del Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees, and continued one of $117,497 against actor Van Johnson.

McLoughlin Jr. High

By Joel Gregory

Halloween signs to keep elderly or sick people from being disturbed on Halloween night are being distributed by students of McLoughlin again this year. Carl Washburn heads the committee and those interested may telephone SPring 3-4513 and students will post the signs.

Carl Washburn has been elected president of the McLoughlin Junior High school student body this year. Signs around the buildings and campaign speeches in the home rooms added enthusiasm to the election.

Gene Offord was elected vice-president, and Lynda Grimes, secretary; Jack Lowery, treasurer; with Karen Brattain, seventh grade reporter to the council, winning the other positions on the council.

Nancy McLoughlin was named song queen and will work with the Ninth grade cheer leaders at all pep assemblies and rallies.

The Hunter Safety program which started last year under the direction of Don Davis, met Tuesday night after school to organize plans for the coming year.

Seventh grade girls chorus is meeting regularly during activity period. Mrs. Dorothy B. Jones and Mr. Ray Lewis, advisors, expect great things from this group this year.

A general pep assembly was held Friday with the ninth grade cheerleaders presenting a skit about KRAZY radio station and leading cheers to spur the ninth grade football team to victory over North Grants Pass.

The new student body officers were introduced.

Results of the student body election were announced and these new officers introduced.

The Library club met Thursday in the library. Officers elected were John Alansky, president; Wally Huffman, vice-president; Ruth Milligan, secretary; Diane Myers, treasurer; Steve Bartlett, reporter; and Karen Ekberg, sergeant-at-arms. Joel Gregory and Carl Washburn were elected to the legislative committee.

C. P. Junior High

By Joyce Roberts

Everyone has been busy getting into the swing of school affairs. Students are working hard to keep up their grades and get some of the awards which will be given at the end of the year.

The football season is off to a good start with two wins. The Pointers beat South Grants Pass Junior High, 31 to 7, and McLoughlin Junior High in Medford, 14 to 6.

The student body had a pep assembly before the McLoughlin game with the student body president, Mike Glines, in charge. The yell leaders and Mrs. Alice Smock girls' physical education teacher, have been working on yells and cute dance steps for assemblies and games. Yell leaders are Carole Crenshaw, Karen Holley, Judy Gebhard and Judy Childress.

The junior high classes of the seventh and eighth grades voted whether to have room parties or a skating party for Halloween. Almost everyone wanted a skating party. The party will be on Nov. 3. We will leave at 5:30 p.m., start skating at 6:30 p.m., and be back at the school by 9:30 p.m.

The Central Point Junior High band has some new marches and overtures. Along with the pep band, which plays in assemblies and games, they have some new popular numbers.

Holmes Proclaims Education Week

Salem—(UPI)—Gov. Robert D. Holmes Tuesday proclaimed the week Oct. 19-25 as patriotic education week in Oregon.

The week is sponsored annually by the Children of the American Revolution.

Boy-Meets-Girl Affair Takes Place at Ohio Zoo

Columbus, Ohio (UPI)—(UPI)—a black 21 pounds, wearing a reflective expression.

Colo, six months older and 12 pounds heavier, shows signs of being spoiled, says Dr. James Vickers, zoo veterinarian approached Colo's cage with the little immigrant from the French Cameroons clinging tightly to him.

Bongo poked an inquiring paw at Colo and she responded enthusiastically, indicating apparent success at the meeting. Ordered as Playmate Zoo Supt. Earl Davis ordered Bongo to an estimated cost of $5,000 as a playmate for Colo, he said, when it appeared she was beginning to act as though she thought she were human.

Vickers said Bongo's cage will be moved next to Colo's so they can get acquainted. Eventually they will share a suite, and if all goes well, eight years from now they may start a family.
