

Army, Ohio State Hurting For Important Skirmishes

By TIM MORIARTY
United Press International
Top-ranked Army and second-ranked Ohio State both are "hurting" for their important battles with their rivals Saturday.

The unbeaten Cadets were most concerned over the condition of Pete Dawkins when they took off today for their date with the University of Pittsburgh, which will be televised throughout the East. Dawkins sustained a pulled thigh muscle in last Saturday's game against Virginia and hasn't been near the practice field all week.

With fullback Harry Walters laid up with a sprained ankle and Dawkins regarded as a doubtful starter, Coach Earl Blaik indicated the Cadets will depend on their newfound air power against Pitt.

"This is a more crucial game for us than the one with Notre Dame," Blaik declared. "And the only possible way we can win it, considering our injuries, is by throwing the ball."

Four Walking Wounded
Ohio State, meanwhile, will have four "walking wounded" in its lineup against Wisconsin. Half back Don Clark has a sore shoulder, while fullback Bob White, center Dan Fronk and tackle Jim Tyrer have lingering leg injuries.

However, the Buckeyes, like Army, are one touchdown favorite to maintain their perfect record.

South Carolina knocked off previously unbeaten Clemson, 26-6, in their "Big Thursday" brawl Thursday, leaving only eight major colleges on the perfect record list. In addition to Army and Ohio State, they are Texas, Northwestern, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Colorado and Rutgers.

Texas, ranked fourth nationally, meets Rice in a "pick 'em" game that should have a major bearing on the Southwestern Conference race. The Owls suffered their only conference defeat at the hands of Texas last year and would like to return the compliment Saturday.

Willamette Encounters CI Coyotes

By United Press International
The Willamette Bearcats go after their fourth straight Northwest Conference football victory at Salem Saturday against the College of Idaho Coyotes.

Willamette needs only victories over College of Idaho and Lewis & Clark to complete a perfect conference season. The Bearcats are ranked fourth nationally in NAIA ratings this week.

Two other games, both in Oregon, also are scheduled. Whitman travels to Forest Grove to meet Pacific and Lewis and Clark is at Linfield.

Solomon Keeps Lead

Stan Solomon, Willamette's elusive halfback, retained his conference ground gaining lead last week over Jack Nehring of Pacific. Solomon has gone 586 yards on 80 carries and Nehring has 580 yards on 142 carries. Nehring holds the total offense lead with 709 yards in five games. Charlie Alvaro of College of Idaho leads the passers with 46 completions in 95 attempts for 655 yards.

Keith Driver, Willamette quarterback, and Terry Nicknell, Linfield tackle, were named back and linemen of the week for their play last Saturday.

Malheur Refuge Activities Set For Tomorrow

Portland—Dr. Ira N. Gabrielson, president of the Wildlife Management Institute and formerly director of the biological survey and the fish and wildlife service, will be speaker Saturday at ceremonies marking the 50th anniversary of the Malheur National Wildlife Refuge.

Oregon division of the Izaak Walton League of America, Inc. is sponsoring a day-long program of activities starting with a tour of the refuge at 10 a.m., and ending with a dinner at Burns, Ore., at 6:30 p.m.

At 4 p.m., at refuge headquarters, the League will dedicate a plaque honoring Stanley G. Jewell and William L. Finley. Jewell was a well-known biologist with the biological survey, predecessor agency of the bureau of sport fisheries and wildlife, and was the first superintendent of the Malheur refuge after its reactivation in the 1930's. Finley, a noted ornithologist and wildlife photographer, was director of the Oregon game commission during the same period.

The principal affair marking the 50th anniversary will be a dinner at the Catholic parish hall at Burns, Ore., co-sponsored by the Izaak Walton League and the Burns Chamber of Commerce. The commemorative address will be given by Dr. Gabrielson and the master of ceremonies will be L. C. (Jack) Binford, member, national executive board, Izaak Walton League.

'Skins Play At Merrill On Saturday

Jacksonville — Jacksonville's Redskins go to Merrill high on Saturday for an afternoon District 5B football engagement. It's a key combat and they "figure on winning."

Host Merrill is undefeated in district action and Jacksonville, with one loss on its loop slate, needs the triumph to stay in the title chase.

Jacksonville has a couple of injured which will keep regular linemen out of the tangle. Coach Dea Cox, however, said that, "it's really not too discouraging. I think we stand a good chance..."

Backs Run Hard
The mentor said that the Redskin defense has tightened up and looks good. He reported that halfbacks Doyle Branson and Ron Davis and fullback Wayne Cabler are running hard. Branson is at a half after starting the season at quarterback. Cabler was switched from an end to his present position.

The sidelined linemen are tackle Ed Graham with an eye injury and guard Donald Goldschmidt with a hurt hand. Their probable replacements are Noel Dunlap at guard and tackle Jerry Winningham.

Central Point Beats Hedrick
Central Point eighth graders ran their football victory string to four games without a loss here last night by trimming Hedrick of Medford 26 to 13.

Mike Glines and Gary Wald ran about 50 yards for pointers touchdowns. A 55-yard pass play, Glines to Vern Swanson, got another. A long pass play, Glines to Mike Watson, set up the fourth. Walt went the last three yards. Pat Pepper kicked one extra point and a Glines to Swanson pass got the other.

Crater Back Might Miss Ashland Tiff

Crater high hopes for its Southern Oregon conference football game with Ashland have suffered a blow with the report that Kerman Bennett, one of the club's top backs may be sidelined this evening.

Bennett, a fullback, is troubled by a painful sciatic nerve. He reportedly wants to try to play but the ailment hurts rather badly.

The Comets and Ashland play in the District 6 A-1 hassle on the Ashland turf. Kick-off is planned for 8 p.m. The Grizzlies and Crater are each looking for their first league victory.

Ohio State, Iowa Picks In Big 10
Chicago—(UPI)—Iowa and Ohio State today were favored to get by their Saturday opponents and remain undefeated in the Big Ten football race.

The Hawkeyes, with victories over Indiana and Wisconsin, tackle the rampaging Wildcats of Northwestern at Iowa City and were picked by 10 points.

The Buckeyes, who have beaten Indiana and Illinois, meet their toughest foe of the season in Wisconsin at Columbus, Ohio, Saturday, but the oddsmakers saw them as a one-touchdown choice.

First Landing, Tomy Lee Top Race Choices
Camden, N.J.—(UPI)—First Landing and Tomy Lee, the favorites, plus 11 other two-year-olds are expected to be entered today for Saturday's Garden State — the world's richest horse race.

Internationally, Crafty Skipper, Restless Wind, Rico Tesio, Sword Dancer, Black Hills, Sherry Prince, Namon, Winsome Winner, Carolina Joy and Moon Age are the others who figure to be entered for the mile-and-a-half event. If 13 start, the race will be worth $297,250 with the victorious owner collecting $178,360.

Flu Victims Return
If Bennett is unable to play, he'll be the second back lost this week by the Comets. Halfback Bob Fowler was dropped from the squad for missing practice.

Ashland players who have been flu victims were back with the squad yesterday and the only Grizzly on the doubtful list was big center Art Kizer. He has a bum knee.

The Crater-Ashland fray matches the two small schools in the district. Their common district foe so far has been Grants Pass which beat the Comets 26 to 7 and Ashland 33 to 7.

The Buckeyes, who have beaten Indiana and Illinois, meet their toughest foe of the season in Wisconsin at Columbus, Ohio, Saturday, but the oddsmakers saw them as a one-touchdown choice.

In the only other conference clash, two clubs without a win in the conference meet at Ann Arbor, Mich., with Michigan playing host to Minnesota. The Wolverines are seven-point favorites.

Indiana tackles Miami of Ohio at Bloomington, Ind., and Purdue was a two-point underdog in its traditional battle with Notre Dame at South Bend, Ind., Saturday.

Irish Pat Ready For Title Bout

Portland—(UPI)—Irish Pat McMurtry of Tacoma, who a week ago decided George Chuvalo in Madison Square Garden, says he's ready to meet champion Floyd Patterson "any time or any place."

McMurtry added that he did not expect a title match to be signed very soon. But he said, "Floyd will have to come out of his hole one of these days, and when he does I'll be right there waiting to take him on."

McMurtry plans a two-week hunting and fishing trip with his father and manager, Clarence.

RAIDER HALFBACK—Rick Herman, above, freshman from Springfield, is among the newcomers on the Southern Oregon college football squad this fall. He is a halfback who stands six feet and weighs 175 pounds. The Red Raiders play Oregon college on Saturday night at Monmouth.

OCE Hosts Red Raiders

United Press International
Oregon Tech, riding high atop the Oregon Collegiate conference football standings, gets a bye this week end.

The top conference contest ends Southern Oregon, 1-1, to Oregon College of Education, 2-0. An OCE loss would assure Oregon Tech of at least a tie for the 1958 title. Oregon Tech meets OCE's Wolves Nov. 1.

Eastern Oregon, still after its first win, plays Portland State at Portland. Portland State is 0-3 in league play while EOC is 0-2 in the conference.

Oregon Tech had a game scheduled with Malstrom Air Force base but it was cancelled by the airmen.

Top-Ranked Teams Rule Favorites

United Press International
The top-ranked teams in Oregon high school football circles seem to have little danger of dropping out of their high-ranking positions this week end.

Jefferson, which has swamped everybody it has played, puts its number-one coaches' ranking on the line against Franklin at Portland. Jeff is a prohibitive favorite.

Medford and Roseburg, ranked second and third, respectively, play California opponents. Medford travels to Eureka and Roseburg will be at Crescent City.

Astoria vs. Hillsboro
Astoria, number four, may have the toughest test among the top five. The fighting Fishermen meet a good Hillsboro team at the coastal city.

North Salem, ranked fifth, goes up against Sweet Home. Marshfield, No. 6, is at South Eugene; Baker, tied with Grants Pass for seventh, hosts Mac-Hi; Grants Pass is at Klamath Falls; North Bend, No. 9, hosts a good Springfield team, and Roosevelt, No. 10, tangles with Madison which is tied with Cleveland of Portland, 15th.

McMinnville, No. 11, is at Tillamook; Redmond, No. 12, hosts Madras.
