HOCKEY

United Press International It didn't take long for the Montreal Canadiens to show the upstart Chicago Black Hawks who's boss in the National Hockey league. The Habs, meeting the surprised Black Hawks for the first time this season, went on one of their typical scoring rampages to smother Chicago, 9-1, Thursday night at Montreal.
In the only other NHL action Thursday night, the Detroit Red Wings moved into second place by beating the Boston Bruins, 3-1, at Detroit.

WITH TORNADO AT EUREKA—Don Harrison, above, is a 189 senior tackle for the Medford High football team. With the back Tornado playing a platoon system, Harrison has been a regular on offense. The Tornado is playing at Eureka, Calif., this evening.

Anderson To Start As LB for Tornado

End Jerry Anderson likely will get starting call at a line-backer post for the Medford high football team this evening. He would fill the spot usually held down by quarterback Fred Funston. Medford's Black Tornado has a non-league encounter at Eureka, Calif. Funston is one of three players being left behind because of ailments. He has the flu. The other two remaining home were linemen Gary Heath who sprained an ankle in the Klamath Falls game last week and tackle Gordon Pathman who has poison oak. Tackle Monty Penwell is expected to play although he has been troubled by a bruised knee. While Anderson may get the starting defensive call, John Harvey and Reggie Breeze may alternate with him. Platoon Disrupted The ailments have disrupted to some extent the Tornado platoon system and a number of gridders may be called upon to go both ways. Medford carries a 5-0 record to the northern California coast while Eureka is 2-4 for the season. There is no direct comparison between the two teams. Indirectly, a comparison results from Medford's 53 to 0 win over Klamath Falls, Shasta of Redding's 33 to 6 decision over Klamath and Redding's 20 to 7 victory over Eureka. Eureka wins have been over Ukiah and Fortuna and the Loggers have bowed to Arcata, Del Norte and Fortuna, as well as Redding. They lost their first game with 20 to 0 but won the second 33 to 20. Medford has defeated North Salem, David Douglas, Marshfield, Crater and Klamath Falls.

Whitehurst Foe Of Sonny Liston

St. Louis — (UPI) — Charles (Sonny) Liston, ranked ninth among the nation's heavyweights, will take on Bert Whitehurst of Baltimore, Md., tonight in a nationally televised 10-rounder that he hopes will move him a step closer to a title match. Liston is possessor of a lethal right hand punch. Three of his last wins came via the knockout route and his victims—Wayne Bethea, Julio Mederos and Frankie Daniels—lasted a total of less than four rounds against him. He has an overall record of 20 wins against a single defeat and is presently seeking to extend a string of 13 consecutive triumphs. Whitehurst, a hardy trial horse, has a 24-14-4 record. He was a loser on a decision to Liston in a previous match.

Western Senior In Semi-Final

Pinehurst, N.C. — (UPI) — Former Western Seniors champion James H. McAlvin, Lake Forest, Ill., faced Jack Brittain Sr., Woodhaven, N.Y., today in one semi-final match of the North and South Seniors golf championship. The other matched J. Wolcott Brown, Sea Girt, N.J., against Frederick Holmes, Riviera Beach, Fla. Bowling has been played for at least 17 centuries.
