

Paulson Leads OSC To 14-12 Victory Over Washington

Portland, Ore. —(UPI)—Halfback Dainard Paulson, a fourth stringer at the start of the season, ran and passed Oregon State to a 14-12 Pacific Coast conference football victory over Washington before 29,057 fans Saturday.

Paulson led two long Oregon State scoring marches and plunged for the two points after Oregon State's first touchdown to provide the winning margin.

OSC in Bowl Picture

The victory put Oregon State solidly back into the Rose Bowl picture with a 3-1 PCC record. Coach Tommy Prothro of Oregon State now has gone 15 straight games in four years without suffering defeat at home.

Paulson climaxed a 79-yard Oregon State drive in the first half by throwing a 14-yard scoring pass to end Don Thiel. Late in the third period the 184-pound junior from Inglewood, Calif., ran for 40 yards of an 84-yard Oregon State drive climaxed by fullback Nub Beamer's touchdown plunge from one yard out.

Washington turned two of Oregon State fumbles into two touchdowns.

Punt Fumbled

After Oregon State's first touchdown Washington's Bob Schloredt got off a 70-yard punt that Oregon State's John Horrorell fumbled on the OSC 15. Jack Walters recovered for Washington and Bob Hivner hit Carver Gayton with a scoring pass on the next play.

McLoughlin Skids Past South GP

Outfought and out-hustled for quarters two, three and four, the ninth grade Bulldogs of McLoughlin Junior high managed to salvage a win out of a football scrap with new North Grants Pass on Friday.

The sparkle and glint of the past few games was not in evidence, aggressive linemen, mounting three long scoring campaigns and showing the knack of turning breaks into touchdowns, pounded luckless Ashland 40-13 in Southern Oregon conference football Friday night.

The Comets, in command except for a couple of brief stretches, recorded their first victory in District 6 A-1 football in three tussles while Ashland bowed for the second time in as many games. Scoring was the most and victory margin the widest in eight years of contention between the two aggregations. It was Crater's third grid win over the Grizzlies who have owned the Comets four times. One game ended in a tie.

Irish Edged by Purdue, 29-22

South Bend, Ind.—(UPI)—Purdue's rugged football team stood off a blistering finish by Notre Dame Saturday to punch out a 29-22 victory with an alert defense and driving attack in a rainstorm before 59,563 fans.

But the Boiler-makers nearly gave up the triumph. Substitute Quarterback George Izo sparked the Irish to two touchdowns in the last 12 minutes and directed another drive which broke up on the Purdue one but which led to a safety to add to Notre Dame's total.

The TD made the score 33 to 0. Crater player at left is guard George Hunt (44) and in background is Comet quarterback Wayne Allen (15).

Crater Romps Over Ashland 40-13 In District 6 Scrap

Ashland — Crater high hard running backs and rugged, aggressive linemen, mounting three long scoring campaigns and showing the knack of turning breaks into touchdowns, pounded luckless Ashland 40-13 in Southern Oregon conference football Friday night.

The Comets, in command except for a couple of brief stretches, recorded their first victory in District 6 A-1 football in three tussles while Ashland bowed for the second time in as many games. Scoring was the most and victory margin the widest in eight years of contention between the two aggregations. It was Crater's third grid win over the Grizzlies who have owned the Comets four times. ## Areas Provide Good Shooting For Waterfowl

Portland—Though plagued mostly by bluebird weather, with only a sprinkling of stormy days, waterfowl hunters are having a field day at the game commission's waterfowl management areas.

Most hunters report excellent success from Malheur, Warner valley, Summer lake, and Sauvie island. The Klamath marshes up to the present, time have been a little stingy in yielding birds.

At Malheur, waterfowl hunters have been averaging almost four birds per man, with lots of mallards and canvasbacks in the bag. Pintails and honkers also show well, but snow geese are few in number. A few stormy days have pushed an abundance of birds into the area, with probably the best shooting yet to come.

Lions Foe For Rams

Los Angeles —(UPI)—The Los Angeles Rams, who survived a three-game road swing with a single loss, entertain the sagging Detroit Lions this afternoon in a National Football League game that finds the defending champs 10 point underdogs.

Los Angeles, never particularly successful on the road beat both the San Francisco Forty Niners and the Lions before last week's disaster at Chicago, when the Bears walloped the visitors, 31-10.

Montana State Wins Sixth Straight

Bozeman, Mont.—(UPI)—Montana State college made it six in a row in a bid for national football recognition as they crushed a weak Omaha University team 42-0 here Saturday.

Warner Loaded

Warner valley is loaded with birds although the main flocks are not making use of the shooting area. About 100,000 snow geese and 50,000 ducks in addition to good numbers of cackling geese and whitefronts are shuttling back and forth throughout the lower valley.

Despite the waiting game, some 30 hunters checking in to the management area daily have been averaging better than three birds per hunter which is pretty good shooting on any man's duck pond. Again, as with Malheur, the best shooting is yet to come.

Eagle Pointers Outscore Douglas in Non-Loop Mix

Eagle Point — Eagle Point high doubled the score on Douglas Friday night, defeating the Trojans 38 to 19 at Winston in a non-counting scrap between grid clubs of District 6 A-2.

The Eagles never trailed in the scuffle and were in front 20 to 6 at halftime. They had two of their touchdowns before Douglas dented the end zone.

Bill Turner set up the first TD with a pass steal. Bill Skeeters ran 35 yards to score and Dave Huffman sneaked the extra counter. Turner went over for the next touchdown with a five-yard swing around end and got the bonus point on a buck lateral.

Marquette Upsets College of Pacific

Milwaukee —(UPI)—Marquette university went fishing for halfback Dick Bass and caught a whale here Saturday as the warriors upset favored College of the Pacific 28-17 before a homecoming crowd of 10,000.

The stunned crowd, which hadn't tasted victory against a major opponent in three years went berserk with two minutes remaining in the game and tore down the goal posts while players, officials and police vainly protested.

Bulldog Eighth Clubs PG 50-14

Jack Lowery scored four touchdowns and Frank Van Pelt three Friday in McLoughlin Junior high eighth grade's 50 to 14 verdict over North Grants Pass.

Lowery crossed the goal on three reverse plays going 30 yards or better each time and he tallied on a pass from Van Pelt good for 40 yards. Van Pelt ran a kick-off back 55 yards to the goal and counted up another six-pointer on a pass interception run. He was on the tabulation end of a pass lateral play, Dick Deffley to David Crocker to Van Pelt, which went 40 yards.

Klamath Has Been Slow

Klamath has been slow. Although several million birds are in the Klamath area, few are feeding in the management areas. Spotty at present, this nationally known duck and goose country should improve as the season progresses.

Blues Triumph Over Red Crew

Hedrick Blues tripped the Hedrick Reds 13 to 0 Friday in a Medford seventh grade football game marked by good defense play on both sides.

Walter Venstrady scored for the Blues on an end run in the second quarter and passed to Steve Moore for a touchdown in the third quarter. Greg Gandee ran over the extra after the second TD.

Roosevelt won 20 to 6 from Washington and Jefferson trimmed Jackson 20 to 0 Friday in city grade school football games.
