

Members of Local CAP Attend Meeting

Three members of the Medford Civil Air Patrol composite squadron attended the Pacific regional conference in Seattle, Wash., recently as representatives from this district.

They were First Lt. John Gregory, representing the commanders department; First Lt. Bette Miller, representing the adjutants and supply department; and Warrant Officer Richard D. Chapman, representing the commandant of cadets department.

Regional problems and difficulties in individual wings were discussed at the conference. All wings of the Pacific region were represented, including delegates from Hawaii, Nevada, Alaska, Oregon, California and Washington.

The next conference will be held in Las Vegas, Nev., in May, 1959.

CENTRAL POINT Back to School Slated

By DORIS HUGHES

Central Point - Helen Caster, publicity chairman for the Crater High School Parent Teachers association, announced that parents of Crater High school students from Sams Valley, Gold Hill, Howard and Central Point areas are invited to attend a "back to school night" Monday, Oct. 27. Parents may visit classes at 8 p.m. at Crater High school.

Arthur Straus, principal, will introduce the teachers. Roy Henry will preside at the meeting. Refreshments will be served in the high school cafeteria. All parents of Crater students are urged to attend.

The Crater Grandmothers club met Oct. 20 at the home of Mrs. Charles Jantzer of North Pacific highway in Central Point. Fifteen members and three guests were present. Before the meeting a desert luncheon was served by Mrs. Jantzer, with Mrs. O. T. Wilson as cohostess.

In the absence of the president, the vice president, Mrs. Jantzer, presided. Mrs. Rex Note, Mrs. Clayton Walker, and Mrs. Olaf Severson of the Medford Rogue club, were introduced and welcomed.

Mrs. Walker gave a short talk on the aims and purpose of a club, stressing the fact that it is national in scope.

New officers for the coming year were installed by Mrs. Severson and Mrs. Note. Officers are Mrs. Walter Gebhart, president; Mrs. Cordie Burns, vice president; Mrs. August Sukow, secretary; and Mrs. Royal Greenman Sr., treasurer. Mrs. Burns was unable to attend because of illness and was installed by proxy.

The president appointed the following committees: Mrs. G. F. Brood, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Carl Hoyer, Mrs. Anne Mathes, Mrs. Edward Jones and Mrs. Royal Greenman Sr., yearbook committee; Mrs. Oscar Minnick and Mrs. Earl Boling, publicity; Mrs. Cordie Burns and Mrs. May Morehouse, membership committee; Mrs. Mabel Smith, sunshine committee chairman; Mrs. Edward Jones, Mrs. O. T. Wilson and Mrs. Anna Mathes, ways and means committee; and Mrs. Arthur Foote, scrapbook chairman.

Medford club members invited Crater club members to visit them Monday, Oct. 27. Next meeting will be Nov. 17 at the home of Mrs. D. A. Hendrickson of Bursell rd.

The Table Rock Ladies club met Oct. 15 at the home of Mrs. Ruth Brown on Pumice lane. New officers elected are Mrs. Norma Madsen, president; Mrs. Lois Smith, vice president, and Mrs. Joan Sharp, treasurer-secretary. Club sisters' names were revealed and new names drawn. The next meeting will be Nov. 12 at the home of Mrs. Lucille Frinks on Linden lane. The cohostesses will be Mrs. Margaret Wilson.

Airman Dick Rainey, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rainey, was home last week end. Rainey who is in the Navy Air Force at Moffett field, Calif., will be leaving at the end of this month on a cruise. He expects to go to Hawaii, Japan and Formosa. He will be gone 7½ months.

Boy Scout troop 40 met Oct. 15 at the American Legion hall on Pine st. in Central Point. The Scouts and their families gathered at the hall to view the pictures which M. C. Gleason took of his recent trip to Alaska. The benediction was given by John Yoakley. Yoakley also played a piano solo for the program. The Boy Scouts sang several songs.

Goethe finished "Faust" at the age of 80.
