Amy Ann Morse Married To John Matthew Bilich

A wedding of interest to valley residents was held in Washington, D.C., October 25, when Miss Amy Ann Morse, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Wayne L. Morse, Eugene, Ore., and Washington, D.C., became the bride of John Matthew Bilich, son of Mrs. Joseph A. Bilich, Aliquippa, Penna., and the late Joseph A. Bilich.

Monsignor Edward Rouch of the Shrine of the Blessed Sacrament officiated at the 9:30 o'clock morning nuptial mass attended by 200 relatives and friends.

The bride wore a silk gown of deep ivory fashioned with scoop neckline inset with lace and pearls, and three-quarter length sleeves. Covered buttons trimmed the back of the bodice from the neckline to the flat bustle bow at the waistline. The floor length skirt formed a chapel train and her lace veil was also floor length. She carried a bouquet of white orchids. Senator Morse escorted his daughter to the altar.

Mrs. Hugh Campbell, Atlanta, Ga., was honor attendant for her sister. Other attendants were Mrs. Joseph T. Bilich, Louisville, Ohio, sister-in-law of the bridegroom; Mrs. Wade Eaton, Eugene, sister of the bride; Miss Mary Ann Bilich, Aliquippa, Penna., sister of the bridegroom; and honorary bridesmaids, Miss Sally Wheeler, Washington, D.C., and Miss Loradale Lawrence, Bradford, Penna. They wore velveteen frocks styled on princess lines of American Beauty rose fashioned with scoop necklines and three-quarter length sleeves. They carried bouquets of white roses. Little Melanie Campbell served as flower girl for her aunt.

Joseph T. Bilich served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Richard Woznicki, Aliquippa, John Jones, Richmond, Va., and Hugh Campbell.

A men's choir sang. Following the ceremony, a breakfast was given at the Columbia Country club, Chevy Chase, Md., by Senator and Mrs. Morse. About 200 guests attended. Saturday evening Mrs. Bilich, mother of the bridegroom, was hostess for a dinner reception at the Jones and Laughlin Veterans club in Aliquippa for approximately 300 guests.

The newlywed couple are traveling to Smoky mountains and Williamsburg, Va., on their wedding trip. For traveling the bride chose a brown tweed suit with white feather hat and brown accessories. They will make their home in Sewickley, Penna., after November 10.

The bride is a graduate of the University of North Carolina and is a nurse on the staff of Sewickley Valley hospital. Mr. Bilich is a graduate of the University of North Carolina and is with the Personal relations department of the National Supply company, Pittsburgh, Penna.

Wedding Day Set

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cooper of Camp White and Medford announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Fran, to Dr. John Volkmann of Providence, R. I. The wedding is scheduled to be held in Providence November 1.

Miss Cooper, a graduate of Mount Holyoke college, South Hadley, Mass., will receive her master's degree in psychology this year from Brown university, Providence, where she last year accepted a teaching assistantship for four years while studying towards her doctorate degree.

She is a graduate of Grants Pass High school and in 1953 won the American Field Service trip abroad. In her freshman year she received the Charles Cooley award and the Elks award. While at Mount Holyoke, Miss Cooper did both independent and honor work in her major. Her paper, "The Visual Discrimination of Simultaneity and Succession," is in the field of psychophysics.

For several years she represented the National Youth Commission of the Episcopal church as president of the western province.

Dr. Volkmann is head of the psychology department at Mount Holyoke and is an authority on the "Quantum theory of Psychophysics."

The couple plan a short wedding trip in Canada and will make their home at 183 Benefit street, Providence.
