

Howard-Kelley Ceremony Held at Methodist Church

The wedding of Miss Loretta Ellen Kelley to Raymond Wayne Howard was an event of Saturday, October 18, at First Methodist church. The bride is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orval P. Kelley, 1629 Thomas road, and the bridegroom's parents are Mrs. Lily M. Howard and Cecil C. Howard, both Portland.

The ceremony took place at three o'clock in the afternoon with Dr. George G. Roseberry officiating. About 80 guests attended the service and the reception which followed in the church parlors.

The bride wore a gown of white lace over taffeta with long sleeves, scoop neckline and full-gored skirt. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried white stephanotis centered with a white orchid. Her pearl necklace and earrings were the bridegroom's gift.

Miss Lois Fay Kelley was her sister's honor attendant. She wore a street-length frock of rust-colored crystal-lette over taffeta fashioned with scoop neckline, short sleeves and a full skirt. Her flowers were a nosegay of yellow roses encircled with cream-colored roses.

Mrs. Boyd Dunford, the former Celia Clogston, Creswell, Ore., was bridesmatron. She also wore rust-colored crystal-lette and taffeta fashioned as the honor attendant's gown, and carried roses.

Mr. Kelley gave his daughter in marriage, and Norman Quigley, Portland, was best man for the bridegroom. Edward J. Lugar, Portland, seated the guests.

Mrs. Leslie Boardman was organist and William Wilson sang the wedding songs. Baskets of bronzes, yellow and white chrysanthemums decorated the church and the reception rooms.

For the wedding and reception Mrs. Kelley wore a rose-beige lace dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue lace dress with matching accessories and corsage of pink sweetheart roses. Pouring for the reception
