Crusade Announced

Chairmen and workers who will conduct the annual Home Crusade of the United Medford Crusade will meet Monday at 10 a.m. in the Red Cross building for a "kick off coffee." Mrs. E. R. Hoppe, general chairman, points out that the Home Crusade, a house-to-house canvass, will be conducted Tuesday.

Colonels, captains and all workers are asked to attend the coffee. A film will be shown, and workers will receive their kits and instructions. Quota for the Home Crusade this year is $3,000.

Colonels for the crusade are Mrs. Scott Wickersham, Mrs. C. H. Herman Jr., Mrs. Edward Sickels, Mrs. M. H. Hurt, Mrs. Richard F. Traylor, Mrs. Lawrence Buonocore, Mrs. Milo Kubalek and Mrs. Walter Smith. Working with these eight women are 34 captains and scores of other women.

Mrs. Hoppe states that since Monday morning's meeting will be brief, women may bring their children if they wish.

Chapter Pledges Honored Sunday At Davis Home

A preferential tea honoring new pledges of Beta Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was held Sunday afternoon, noon, October 19 at the home of Mrs. Scott Davis. The refreshment table was decorated with fall flowers and candles and Mrs. Richard Knoll, president of the chapter, presided.

A chapter meeting was held October 21 at the home of Mrs. DeVon Wray. It was the third anniversary of the group, and gifts were exchanged by the members. A birthday cake decorated with candles was served by the hostess, Mrs. Wray and the co-hostess, Mrs. Dale Hogan.

The cultural program was presented by Mrs. Arthur Brooks. Her topic was "Self-Analysis". During the business meeting final plans were made for a barn dance for members and guests at Thurston's dance studio on November 1. It will be a potluck dinner followed by games and dancing.

The chapter also made preliminary plans for the formal pledge ritual, to be held November 4 at the home of Mrs. Mel Hogan.

An international party will be held October 24 at the Red Cross building by all chapters in Medford and the Ashland chapters of Beta Sigma Phi will be their guests.

Ice-Cream Sandwich Halloween Treat

A kiddy ice-cream sandwich is an appropriate dessert party. Bake large sugar cookies and cool. Decorate half the cookie batch, using candies and gumdrops to make a grinning face. Cut 1-inch slices from a square pint of ice cream. Place the ice cream slice on a plain cookie and top with a decorated cookie.

Eagle Point PTA Slates Meeting

Eagle Point - October is parent - teacher association membership month. Mrs. Martin Jorde and Mrs. Robert Bever, membership chairmen of the Eagle Point Elementary Parent - Teacher association have announced that they are working to increase last year's enrollment and will be present to welcome new members at the meeting of the association Tuesday, October 28, at 8 p.m., in the grade school auditorium.

Mrs. Joe Shelton and James Collier, program chairmen, have announced that Mrs. Owen Kunkel, president of the Jackson County Council of Parents and Teachers, has planned a program for this meeting based on an explanation and discussion of the PTA tuition scholarship program and how it applies to the Eagle Point community.

Martin Jorde, PTA president, will call for suggestions from the floor for a project for this year.

Refreshments will be served by mothers of children in the eighth grade.

Officials of the PTA wish to stress to residents in all sections of the community that the new idea is optional and that no one should feel he need give both treats and pennies when the youngsters call.

Gold Hill PTA To Assist UNICEF Halloween Plan

Gold Hill-Gold Hill children will have an opportunity to participate in the United Nations' International Children's Emergency Fund program, "The Trick is to Treat" program, being sponsored for the first time in this area by the Gold Hill Parent Teacher association on Halloween night, Friday, October 31. Children taking part will be requested to work in their own neighborhoods.

Chairmen have been named for each section of the community, and each chairman will distribute the proper containers and identification tags, and arrange for refreshments for only those who participate.

Instead of the usual hand-out of candies, etc., these children will collect small coins which will be used to purchase food and medicine for needy children in all parts of the world. Officials of the PTA unit wish to point out that participation is optional. Children participating in the "penny drive" will do so strictly on a volunteer basis and will have proper identification given to them by authorized adults. When the youngsters return to their respective home stations with the cartons for which they are responsible, they will receive treats. Interested parents may contact the chairman in their own vicinity for additional information, and are invited to offer their help.

Mrs. Ogden Kellogg, Sardine creek, is in charge of arrangements. She may be contacted at telephone Ulrich 5-1406. Other chairmen are Mrs. Donald Arseth, Upper River road; Mrs. Ralph Hixson, Old Stage road; Mrs. Charles Rosecrans, Kanes Creek road; Mrs. Kenneth
