Venison Recipes Prepared

Corvallis—If the hunter in your household bags a deer, be prepared to serve tasty venison now and in months to come with these new recipes.

New cooks and old alike soon tire of plain pot roasts, venison steaks and stew, say Oregon State college home economists. New recipes are requested every year for venison and other game meat.

In any recipe, remove all fat from the meat before using, they caution. Fat carries a strong unpleasant flavor.

Directions for making venison mincemeat, barbecued venison and venison meat loaf are offered by Mrs. Ruth Klippstein, OSC extension nutritionist. Mincemeat may be frozen and used later in pies or in filled holiday cookies. For the mincemeat use 2 pounds cooked venison, antelope or elk, chopped; 4 pounds chopped apple, 2 pounds raisins, 4 cups brown or white sugar, ¾ pounds chopped suet or butter, ½ teaspoon nutmeg, 2 teaspoons salt, 1½ teaspoons cinnamon.

Method Given

Remove fat from venison before simmering. Simmer till tender. Cool and grind. Combine these ingredients and add about 1 quart of cider to cover. Other fruit juices may be substituted for cider, by adding ½ cup vinegar to the juices. Reduce sugar if sweet fruit juices are used. Cook mixture very slowly until fruits are tender (about an hour). Stir often. Freeze in amounts sufficient for a pie. If mincemeat is canned, process as for ground beef; 90 minutes at 10 pounds pressure for quarts, 75 minutes at 10 pounds pressure for pints.

A tasty marinating sauce, for use on less tender cuts such as necks and shoulders used in stews, is suggested. Steaks may also be brushed with the sauce, and allowed to stand before cooking. The oil garlic sauce tenderizes the meat and adds flavor.

The sauce uses 1 cup cooking oil, 1 tablespoon salt, 1 teaspoon black pepper, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce or beef extract, 3 cloves of garlic, minced.

Place sauce in closed container and shake vigorously to blend.

Broil meat over hot coals for 20 to 25 minutes, brushing liberally with sauce, or oven
