

Federal Reserve Board's Order Effective Despite Controversy

Washington—UPI—A Federal Reserve Board credit-tightening order went into effect Friday despite a controversy over whether it would slow down recovery from the nation's business recession.

The board late Thursday authorized Federal Reserve banks in five cities to boost from 2 to 2½ per cent their fee—known as the discount rate—for loans to commercial banks.

The action was described by the board as a "technical adjustment" although similar moves in the past have been aimed at curbing inflation.

Dr. Marcus Nadler, consulting economist to the Hoover Bank in New York City, said even though the move primarily was intended to narrow the gap between the commercial interest rates it would further tighten the mortgage and municipal bond markets.

There was widespread agreement that the board authorized Federal Reserve banks in Philadelphia, Richmond, Va., St. Louis, Mo., Minneapolis, Minn., and Dallas, Tex., to boost the rates in the sincere belief it would not significantly impair recovery from the business recession.

Economists said the board probably hoped, however, that the economic uptrend might be slowed a bit to keep it from getting out of hand and generating serious inflationary pressures.

County Unit of Cancer Society To Meet Oct. 31

The annual meeting of the Jackson county unit of the American Cancer society will be held at the Rogue Valley Country club Friday, Oct. 31. Registration will start at 9:15 a.m., and the morning session will start at 9:45 o'clock.

Harry Skerry, Ashland attorney and vice president of the Jackson county unit, will be master of ceremonies at a discussion of Jackson county's solution to the cancer problem. Topics which will be covered include service facilities, educational program, memorials, tumor registry and clinic and the film story.

Dr. C. Todd Jessell, chairman of the executive committee of the American Cancer Society, Oregon division, will be principal speaker at 11:15 a.m. He will speak on the American Cancer society, relating its origin, history and future course.

Following a luncheon and presentation of awards to volunteers by Dr. Jessell and Mrs. Mahr Reymers, executive secretary, a panel of doctors will be featured in a discussion. Dr. Richard W. Schwahn, gynecologist, will be moderator, and others will be Dr. William Miller, pediatrics; Dr. Elliot L. Harlow, dermatology; Dr. Florian J. Shasky, urology; and Dr. John T. Weisel, eye.

Officers will be elected at a business meeting at 2:30 p.m. and a film, "Time and Two Women," will be shown between 2:30 and 3 p.m.

Slate Fall Kills Three in Mine

Kingwood, W. Va.—UPI—Three miners were killed and another injured Thursday in a slate fall at a small coal mine near here.

Leonard Bolinger, 30, Lewis Rager, 35, and Lawrence Turner, 35, all of Kingwood, died in the cave-in near the working face of the mine. Turner was the son of the mine operator, J. Wesley Turner.

Clayton Eagle was injured seriously.

The victims were survived by 17 dependents, nine of Rager's.

Volunteers worked two and a half hours to recover the bodies 900 feet back in the mine tunnel.

The accident occurred in a conveyor section of the mine near the working face where coal is dug and placed on conveyors.

Three other employees of the mine escaped injury.
