

Russian Writers Expel Pasternak For Betrayal

Moscow—(UPI)—The Union of Soviet Writers today expelled Russia's Nobel prize author Boris Pasternak for conduct "incompatible with the calling of a Soviet writer."

The announcement appeared in the Literary Gazette less than a week after Pasternak had been designated by the Swedish Literary Academy as this year's winner of the $41,000 Nobel prize for literature.

Pasternak's citation said he was honored for his work in producing contemporary literature. It pointedly made no mention of his best-known book, "Dr. Zhivago," which is banned in Russia but published in 18 other countries.

Decision Unanimous

The Literary Gazette said Pasternak's ouster was unanimously decided upon.

The announcement said Pasternak had betrayed the Soviet people. It stripped him of the title "Soviet writer."

The official Soviet news agency Tass said the decision took into consideration "the political and moral downfall of Pasternak, his betrayal of the Soviet people and of the cause of socialism, peace and progress rewarded by the Nobel prize in the interests of fanning cold war."

The Literary Gazette charged that the prize was awarded to Pasternak "solely for political motives."

Bodies of Crash Victims Removed

Nellis AFB, Nev.—(UPI)—Rescuers at dawn today were to start the seven-hour hike down rugged Sheep Range Mountain with the battered bodies of four crewmen killed in the crash of a B25 bomber.

Wreckage of the craft from Reese Air Force Base, Tex., which crashed during a lightning storm Friday, was spotted Monday morning.

Eight men from this air base made the arduous climb to the 9,000-foot level of the mountain about 20 miles northwest of here and arrived just before dusk.

Victims of the crash were identified as:

GERMAN AUTHOR DIES
Murnau, Germany—(UPI)—Walter von Molo, 78, German author and poet, died Monday in his villa near Munich.
